Marin To Get Brief Breather From Storms

Hail Whitens Area; Houseboat Sinks, Huge Tree Falls

A day of fair skies was predicted for Marin after yesterday's hail, rain and lightning storm which helped sink a Sausalito houseboat, close a state highway, and knocked out power.

The United States Weather Bureau predicted fair weather tonight and tomorrow More rain will reach the county by the weekend, the forecast said.

High winds and tide early yesterday nearly took the life of Christine Phillips, 37, and sank the 16 by 40 foot houseboat in which she was living behind the Ark Restaurant in Sausalito.

Miss Phillips said she was asleep about midnight when the houseboat's pontoons began to take on water. She could not pump fast enough and soon found herself in neck-deep water.

Miss Phillips, who cannot swim, said she climbed to the boat's roof and screamed until neighbors rescued her and her cat and dog with a ladder.

All of her belongings were left behind on the houseboat. When the tide was out yesterday afternoon, she managed to

Peking, U.S. Envoys Confer In Warsaw

WARSAW (AP) — The U.S. and Red Chinese ambassadors in Warsaw met for 3 hours and 20 minutes today in the 132nd scheduled session of the secret talks that began in Geneva in 1955. They set June 7 as the date for their next meeting.

"As always, we had a good, frank discussion with considerable give and take," said U.S. Ambassador John A. Gronouski.

HOSPITAL BOARD BALKS ON HIRING

Supervisors Warned Mental Center Endangered By Racial Jobs Clause

By STEPHEN COOK

Marin County Supervisors can require a pre-bid, equal hiring agreement from contractors for the $1.3 million community mental health center, but the financial risk is all theirs.

This was the effect of a letter directors of the Marin Hospital District agreed to send to supervisors last night.

The hospital board also urged supervisors to reconsider their requirement for the pre-bid agreement, fearing it will "sabotage the whole project," in the words of director Irving D. Chapman.

The board rejected an amended agreement between the county and the district which would have required the two agencies to share equally any unforeseen, extra expenses in construction of the center.

The board noted it has agreed to pay $333,264 toward the project and can pay no more. Of funds for the project, $150,000 were raised by a district tax for capital improvement, an equal amount by public subscription, and $33,264 has been pledged.

Harold F. Reide, attorney for the district, said the district cannot levy another capital improvement tax for three years. "Where would you get the money if you had to pay more?" he asked.

Riede urged the board to either insist on $333,264 as the limit to the district's liability on the project or insist that the equal hiring agreement, adopted by 3-2 vote of supervisors, be removed.

The board agreed on the ceiling for the district contribution to the project, but also urged that supervisors abandon the civil rights clause.

Board president Marion C. Ibach said she feared the clause will force bids too high when they come in at the end of February and may jeopardize the project.

"Somebody is kidding somebody if they don't think the project has already been jeopardized," said Chapman. "With this additional restriction, it's obvious that bids are not going to come in as we wished."

Americans Troops Take Up Residence In Mekong Delta

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — More than 1,000 American combat troops, the first to be stationed permanently in the Mekong Delta, moved today into their new post at My Tho 45 miles southwest of Saigon on the banks of the muddy Mekong River, a U.S. spokesman said.

The troops are part of the Army's 9th Infnatry Dvision.

The spokesman said they formed the headquarters detachment of the division's third brigade along with a reinforced battalion. More troops are expected to follow shortly.

The contingent joined engineer and support units which had moved into the delta base camp Jan. 10.

The entry of U. S. combat forces into the delta, where large sections are under Viet Cong domination, came during one of the periodic lulls in fighting in the Vietnam war.

The U. S. and South Vietnamese military commands reported only small ground skirmishes in widely scattered sectors.

Over North Vietnam, monsoon rains and heavy cloud cover once again hampered U. S. air raids. American bombing pilots flew only 41 mission yesterday.

The bad weather is expected to continue for the next six weeks.

High Schools' Officials Blast Student Paper

High Times, a county-wide bi-weekly written by high school students, has been banned at Novato High School and Marin Catholic High School because of controversial content and was attacked last night by a San Rafael Board of Education member.

Very Rev. Edward M. Dullea, Marin Catholic principal, called it "a sounding board for discontents."

Novato High School also had dropped distribution of the paper on its campus.

STROM ATTACKS IT

Last night San Rafael Board of Education member Anita C. Strom attacked the paper, charging it "fans the flames of rabble rousing."

Edward J. Neumeier, administrative assistant in the Tamalpais High School District who serves as educational consultant to the paper, today called the attack "an attempt at censorship" and countered the articles are "a true reflection of the thinking of kids today."

Mrs. Strom's request for a policy prohibiting distribution of material at San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools "unless it is under the jurisdiction of the district" brought into the open controversy that has surrounded the paper since it first appeared last October.

'NOT MATURE'

Father Dullea said that at Marin Catholic High, "we went into it to be cooperative at first so the students could contribute articles, but the faculty have found it to be nothing but a sounding board for the young people to criticize everything. The kids aren't mature enough to criticize their schools and teachers."

Neumeier said today: "I think this is an attempt at censorship,

Unruh-Burns Split Over Grocery Tax

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said today he was "flatly opposed" to adding the sales tax to groceries, but Senate leader Hugh M. Burns said he voted for such a tax in 1937 and hasn't changed his mind.

Both Unruh and Burns said they would consider extension of the 4 per cent sales tax to services such as haircuts, shoeshines and dry cleaning.

The two Democratic leaders appeared at their joint weekly news conference, often referred to as the "Hugh and Jesse Show."

Unruh and Burns showed a difference of opinion both on the groceries tax bill, introduced yesterday by Sen. Clark Bradley, R-San Jose, and on the controversial firing of University of California President Clark Kerr by the Board of Regents.

Burns said Kerr's dismissal was "inevitable, it was bound to come sooner or later." Burns has been a frequent critic of Kerr.

Unruh, a member of the Board of Regents, voted against firing Kerr. But he said at the news conference he would not be drawn "into a shouting match" with Gov. Ronald Reagan who called for Kerr's dismissal.

Unruh praised university students and faculty members for the "highly responsible" manner in which they have protested both Kerr's ouster and Reagan's proposal to cut the high-

Gary Grant And Wife Separate

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actor Cary Grant, 62, and his wife, Dyan Cannon, 28, have been living apart for about a month, the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner said yesterday.

In a story by Hollywood motion picture editor Dorothy Manners, a friend of the couple was quoted as saying: "Sorry to say there is an estrangement. Cary is deeply upset and doing all in his power to get his wife to return to their home with the baby and nurse."

Similar reports were published in London earlier this week.

Message To Congress Predicts Good 1967

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson directed today that plans be prepared to avoid a recession that might otherwise follow "the welcome day of peace" in Vietnam.

The possibilities of quick tax reduction and spending speed-ups will be studied by a Cabinet-level group, Johnson told Congress, as a part of a "major and coordinated effort to review our readiness" for the war's end—a day still not foreseen, he emphasized.

MODERATE GAINS

The announcement came in his annual economic report. In it, Johnson forecast a moderate advance of the economy through 1967, if it can be steered past the hazards of inflation on the one side and recession on the other.

The outlook is for a $47-billion rise of national output, he said, to a record $787 billion — a slower climb than in 1966, but with smaller price rises, easier money, and continued almost-full employment.

AGAINST SPIRAL

Johnson renewed urgently his appeal to labor and industry for wage and price restraint, in continued voluntary support of guideline policies, to avoid "a wage-price spiral which is in the interest of neither . . . and disastrous to the nation."

But the surprise of the message, sent to the Capitol along with a report by the President's Council of Economic Advisers, was a section titled "After Vietnam."

Johnson said he was naming Gardner Ackley, economic council chairman, to take leadership of a postwar study group

AND NO HANGOVER

Scientists Find Out Why Islanders Tipple Happily

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Researchers at the University of Pittsburgh say they have isolated a key ingredient of kava kava, a South Seas drink that reportedly produces a peaceful, happy feeling — with no hangover.

The ingredient, called F-1, was described yesterday as "extremely potent" by Pitt's Dr. Joseph P. Buckley.

He explained that F-1, unlike other substances derived from kava kava, is water soluble — an important point, because South Sea islanders dissolve the kava kava root in water and drink it. In other words, it might be F-1 that gives kava kava its kick.

F-1 was tried out on some mean laboratory rats, Dr. Buckley said, and the results were dramatic.

The rats were made vicious by brain lesions, said Dr. Buckley, adding, "The rats were so wild we couldn't hold them without heavy gloves."

But F-1 changed them remarkably, he said. No longer were they biting, rage-filled fighters. They became quiet and docile.

What's more, he said, the rats, under the influence of F-1, could walk along a rotating rod without losing their balance.

Electrical impulses from the brains of the rats showed the F-1 had acted on a much more primitive brain center than does alcohol, Buckley said.

Alcohol affects brain areas concerned with reason, balance and coordination, said Buckley, but F-1 acted on areas associated with such things as rage and hate.

SKIPPER LBJ SETS UP SAFE BOATING WEEK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson, a power boat skipper himself, wants more attention paid to safe boating practices and emergency procedures.

In proclaiming the week of July 2 "National Safe Boating Week" yesterday, Johnson noted that pleasure boating has become one of the nation's favorite pastimes and has added nearly $3 billion to the economy.

Rio's Flood Troubles Worsening

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — More rainfall was forecast today after two days of heavy downpours which left at least 233 persons dead and thousands homeless in Rio de Janeiro and the surrounding area.

Searchers probed for bodies and survivors in the flood-ravaged areas, which also were suffering from acute shortages of electricity, gas and drinking water and were threatened with a typhoid epidemic.

First estimates indicated 500 persons may have been killed in floods and landslides, but authorities scaled down the figure to between 200 and 300 after reports from the affected areas began coming in. No foreign victims were reported.

At least 20 persons were known killed in the city of Rio de Janeiro, 17 in Mazomba, 13 in Volta Redonda and 4 in Sao Paulo. A government spokesman in Niteroi, capital of Rio de Janeiro State across the bay from Rio, estimated the statewide toll at 200.

Several thousand persons were reported homeless in rural areas and inland cities.

Six persons died in Rio yesterday afternoon when a building collapsed in Tijuca suburb, the city's most heavily affected area.

Peking Reveals Mao Using Army To Put Down Rebellious Enemies

HONG KONG (UPI)—The official Peking People's Daily said today Mao Tse-tung used loyal army units to crush a budding revolt of his enemies in the northern Chinese Communist industrial province of Shansi.

China experts here said the report, broadcast by Peking Radio, may signal an army-backed crackdown on anti-Mao factions throughout his trembling domain.

Earlier reports had said "supporters" of Mao had taken over the province after a shooting battle involving "tens of thousands" of pro and anti-Mao workers but made no direct mention of army units.

"The liberation (Chinese) army stationed in Shansi military district stood for the proletarian revolution line represented by Mao and supported the revolutionary rebel faction's fight to seize control," the People's Daily said.

China watchers in Hong Kong said Mao may be deliberately exaggerating the extent of anti-government plotting in Shansi in order to justify the use of the nation's three-million-man army in other areas.

McAteer Offers Bill To Extend Transport Board

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The San Francisco Bay Area Transportation Commission should have more power and be extended until 1969, Sen. J. Eugene McAteer of San Francisco says.

McAteer, a Democrat planned to introduce a bill today that would accomplish these ends. The commission also would be allowed to review local applications for federal funds without having the final say.

He said the commission, now due to expire this year, would have authority under the bill to join in studies of a regional Bay Area airport.

Its duties might involve a new San Francisco - Marin County crossing, rapid transit and feeder transit service.

Miss Phillips said the houseboat was insured for $10,000 by its owner, Ann Cost of 55 Meadow Drive, San Rafael. The two women are partners in a shop called the Sandalmakers at 635 Bridgeway, Sausalito.

At 1:15 am today, a granddaddy cypress tree —100 feet tall and 10 feet around at its base — toppled across Shoreline Highway at Stinson Beach, knocking down power lines and closing the highway.

The roadway was closed entirely until 4 a.m., when State Division of Highways crews, working with buzz saws in the forest of branches, cleared one lane.

Power was blanked to the Stinson Beach, Bolinas and Muir Beach areas as the tree fell across a 12,000-volt line and snapped three power poles.

Electricity was restored to Bolinas, Muir Beach and a portion of Stinson Beach by 2:22 a.m. The rest of Stinson was without power to late in the morning, according to Z. P. Melcon, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. electrical superintendent.

The tree was still blocking half of the highway late this morning.

A furious hail storm pelted the county between 3:30 and 5 p.m. yesyerday, leaving a white blanket of hailstones for about a half hour after it subsided.

Light patches of snow were reported atop Mount Tamalpais during the night, but they were gone by daylight. High in the Ross-Kent Woodlands hills, temperatures stayed low enough to preserve a layer of hailstones until this morning.

Yesterday morning's electrical storm blanked power to 300 P.G. and E. customers in the Peacock Gap area, when lightning struck a power line at 8:10 a.m. Electricity was restored by 9:55 a.m., according to Melcon.

Electricity was lost for almost an hour in the Marshall-Pierce Point area in West Marin, beginning at 3:41 p.m. yesterday, Melcon reported, with 102 customers affected.

Yesterday's storm knocked out power to much of the city of Stockton yesterday and eight planes at the city airport were damaged by high winds, United Press International reported.

In the Bay Area, a concrete tube section for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's underground line sank prematurely, when water broke through safety hatches. It must be raised from 40 feet of water.

Rainfall in the 24 hours to noon today was .45 of an inch.

Elsewhere in the county, in the 24 hours to 8 a.m. today, rainfall figures were: Chevy Chase in Larkspur, .52; Ross, .32; San Anselmo, .35; Fairfax, .4; Woodacre, .19; Point Reyes Station, .31; Inverness, .1; Bolinas, .32; Mill Valley, .37; Tamalpais Valley, .27; Sausalito, .18; Belvedere, .2; Civic Center, .34; Terra Linda, .35; Hamilton Air Force Base, .47, and Novato, .15.

Hallinan Case To High Court

Attorney Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere yesterday took his long legal battle with the Roman Catholic Church to the State Supreme Court, seeking to overturn a State Court of Appeals decision that it would be unconstitutional to inquire into the truth or falsity of religious belief.

Hallinan has been seeking to break the will of David Supple, who left most of his $200,000 estate to churches and church groups. Hallinan has contended that Supple was persuaded to do so because the church taught it could save his soul from purgatory.

Hallinan, in his request for a Supreme Court hearing claimed the lower court failed to distinguished between total freedom of belief and more limited freedom to act.

10 Per Cent State Budget Cut Hinted

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Reagan administration — facing a deficit despite economies— put final touches on its budget today amid specuiation about the size of the big spending program.

An authoritative legislative source said he understood California's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 would be 10 per cent below the current year's record $4.59 billion.

But Gov. Reagan's finance director, Gordon P. Smith, said "That was ridiculous."

Asked if it would be lower than the present year's budget, Smith replied "I'd rather not comment on that," adding "I don't want to imply that it is lower."

The source said he had been told the administration's proposed budget calls for "not much" new construction or new programs, plus a 10 per cent cutback on present spending.

Whatever the size, administration officials said belt tightening has only cut $200 million from an expected budget deficit of $473 million.

"Our cuts now leave us with a $273 million gap and we have to go farther," said Philip M. Battaglia, Reagan's executive secretary. The budget must be submitted to the legislature by yesterday.

That indicates Reagan will have to send along a tax program of possibly $200 million to balance the budget. He has also promised additional state taxes to offset local government losses from property tax reductions.

Reagan's economy edict required each department to slash its budget request for the coming fiscal year by 10 per cent.

The University of California and the state colleges protested that would bring their appropriations below this year's level.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Max Rafferty told a reporter that Reagan promised yesterday there would be no cuts in state support to local schools, now more than $1.2 billion a year.

But Reagan told junior college officials Tuesday there would be no increase, Rafferty said.

er education budget and impose tuition.

Unruh said he would try to block passage of Bradley's bill to extend the sales tax to groceries and prescription drugs. Bradley said the measure would raise $204 million annually and would come close to balancing the state's budget.

The speaker said such an extention would "make the sales tax the most regressive in the business."

The sales tax covered groceries and drugs in 1935 and 1936. The 1937 legislature exempted them.

Burns said he voted against the exemption in 1937. He said he was open to argument now but "I think the sales tax should be across-the-board."

The Fresno senator said he would favor "broadening the base" of the sales tax to raise the revenue which Reagan and most legislators agree will be needed to balance the budget.

Burns said the tax could be extended to services as well as to some sales now exempt.

Unruh agreed the legislature would have to consider extending the tax to services. He said he had not yet made up his mind on the matter.

Social Visit

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A. E. Ritchie, Canada's ambassador to the United States, met with Gov. Reagan for a brief social visit this morning.

ECONOMY

made up of the heads of the appropriate federal departments.

Among other preparedness efforts, he said, Ackley's group will:

Consider "possibilities and priorities for tax reduction."

Determine which high-priority government programs can be expanded quickly.

Prepare for a prompt easing of credit and expansion of money supply.

"Examine ways in which the transition to peace can be smoothed for the workers, companies and communities now engaged in supplying our defense needs, and the men released from our armed forces."

The unemployment rate should stay close to the current 3.9 per cent, he predicted.

But the forecast of 1967 national output was conservative. It called for a 6.5 per cent rise compared to 8.5 per cent last year. When deflated for probable price increases, it shrank to 4 per cent.

The council's accompanying report foresaw a price rise of about 2.5 per cent this year, compared with the 3.3 per cent of 1966—which Johnson called intolerable.

Concerning interest rates, which zoomed to 40-year highs in 1966, choking off the supply of mortgage credit and sending the housing industry into a depression, Johnson said:

"The burden of tight money is being lifted. Interest rates are still extremely high, but they are moving down from their peaks."

The housing industry should be "moving smartly forward by the end of 1967, and ready for one of its best years in 1968," he said.

The presidential report is the third and last of his major annual messages to Congress.

SAIGON

tory of ruling generals was breaking up. But some disgruntlement at the ouster of the southern general was reported among southern leaders in Saigon who resent the northerners' domination.

No troop movements were reported. Some officers of the 7th Vietnamese Division headquartered at My Tho, 30 miles south of the capital, were among those arrested, sources said.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu was reported traveling in the Mekong Delta. Premier Nguyen Cao Ky was winding up a tour of New Zealand and was expected back late Thursday or early Friday.

Despite Ky's statement to newsmen yesterday that no governmental reshuffle was taking place, Vietnamese sources said Ky was present when the junta met before he left and decided to fire Co.

Co was on an official visit to Formosa when the junta cabled him Sunday not to return to Vietnam. The message suggested he visit Tokyo and Seoul.

Co got as far as Hong Kong today but was intercepted there and taken to a hotel to see Security Minister Linh Quang Vien, who had hurriedly flown to Hong Kong after word was received that Co planned to return.

Informed sources said Vien would tell Co if he remained outside Vietnam, he might be appointed ambassador to South Korea, Tunisia or the Ivory Coast. The sources said Co would be warned that if he returned to Saigon, he would face a military trial on corruption charges. It was understood political jockeying in the junta played a part in his ouster.

The move against Co had been long planned and came as no surprise, the sources said. His removal leaves only Thieu and Lt. Gen. Pham Xuan Chieu the only junta members from the group of 13 officers who overthrew the late President Ngo Dinh Diem Nov. 1, 1963.

Assembly Committees are expected to be announced on Thursday by Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, is in line for a chairmanship, probably of the judiciary committee.

Rasnick Jury Resumes Talks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jurors resumed deliberations today in the trial of Ben Rasnick, the third man to be tried for the murder of AFL-CIO Painters Union local leader Dow Wilson.

The nine-woman , three-man jury heard 50 minutes of instruction from Superior Court Judge Robert Drews yesterday and then discussed the case for three hours before being locked up for the night.

Prosecutors charged that Rasnick, a 45-year-old official of the Painters Union International in Oakland, had ordered the shotgun slaying here last April 5 of Wilson, who had been critical of the international.

but people are trying to disguise it in another way."

He said he had been aware for weeks that Mrs. Strom opposed the paper's content. He said he discovered yesterday that Novato High School had dropped distribution, claiming "community and economic pressure had been applied."

Novato High School Principal Robert Wisgerhof was unavailable for comment today. Supt. James G. Bunker of Novato Unified School District said, "This is the kind of thing we would leave up to the high school itself."

Mrs. Strom brought up the issue, which was not on the agenda, at last night's San Rafael Board of Education meeting. The question of banning distribution caught other members who had not read High Times, unaware and there was no action.

Principal Allan Ellsberg of San Rafael High School said he had concern about control of editorial policy and principals of other high schools are concerned, too.

One recent article by a University of California student, formerly a San Rafael High School sutdent, was "quite inflammatory," Ellsberg said.

Neumeier said some teachers have criticized High Times because it only features the concerns of the brightest, most intellectual students, "but these are the ones who have taken the leadership."

The first three issues with faculty editors were "dull," said Neumeier; then students took over editing and were given free rein.

Stephen McNamara, publisher of the Pacific Sun, which prints and distributes High Times, said his paper has no control over the editorial content of High Times except to check for possible libel.

"It's a cooperative exercise in journalism," said McNamara.

Mrs. Strom questioned whether schools should participate in distributing a "commercial venture" on campuses.

Neumeier said this aspect of the paper had been discussed before it was started. He said it was comparable to "supplements of other scholastic newspapers distributed on campuses.

However, if many districts drop distribution of High Times he will abandon the publication, said Neumeier, "because it must be written by students county-wide."

'Lost' Girl Walks Two Miles Home

But Lesley Mitchell arrived safe and sound at her home, 27 Corte Linosa. She told her mother, Mrs. Bradley R. Mitchell, she got tired of waiting to be picked up and decided to walk the two mile journey over Wolfe Grade alone.

Electricity was restored to Bolinas, Muir Beach and a portion of Stinson Beach by 2:22 a.m. The rest of Stinson was without power to late in the morning, according to Z. P. Melcon, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. electrical superintendent.

The tree was still blocking half of the highway late this morning.

A furious hail storm pelted the county between 3:30 and 5 p.m. yesyerday, leaving a white blanket of hailstones for about a half hour after it subsided.

Light patches of snow were reported atop Mount Tamalpais during the night, but they were gone by daylight. High in the Ross-Kent Woodlands hills, temperatures stayed low enough to preserve a layer of hailstones until this morning.

Yesterday morning's electrical storm blanked power to 300 P.G. and E. customers in the Peacock Gap area, when lightning struck a power line at 8:10 a.m. Electricity was restored by 9:55 a.m., according to Melcon.

Electricity was lost for almost an hour in the Marshall-Pierce Point area in West Marin, beginning at 3:41 p.m. yesterday, Melcon reported, with 102 customers affected.

Yesterday's storm knocked out power to much of the city of Stockton yesterday and eight planes at the city airport were damaged by high winds, United Press International reported.

Hallinan Case To High Court

Attorney Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere yesterday took his long legal battle with the Roman Catholic Church to the State Supreme Court, seeking to overturn a State Court of Appeals decision that it would be unconstitutional to inquire into the truth or falsity of religious belief.

Hallinan has been seeking to break the will of David Supple, who left most of his $200,000 estate to churches and church groups. Hallinan has contended that Supple was persuaded to do so because the church taught it could save his soul from purgatory.

Hallinan, in his request for a Supreme Court hearing claimed the lower court failed to distinguished between total freedom of belief and more limited freedom to act.

10 Per Cent State Budget Cut Hinted

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Reagan administration — facing a deficit despite economies— put final touches on its budget today amid speculation about the size of the big spending program.

An authoritative legislative source said he understood California's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 would be 10 per cent below the current year's record $4.59 billion.

But Gov. Reagan's finance director, Gordon P. Smith, said "That was ridiculous."

Asked if it would be lower than the present year's budget, Smith replied "I'd rather not comment on that," adding "I don't want to imply that it is lower."

The source said he had been told the administration's proposed budget calls for "not much" new construction or new programs, plus a 10 per cent cutback on present spending.

Whatever the size, administration officials said belt tightening has only cut $200 million from an expected budget deficit of $473 million.

"Our cuts now leave us with a $273 million gap and we have to go farther," said Philip M. Battaglia, Reagan's executive secretary. The budget must be submitted to the legislature by yesterday.

That indicates Reagan will have to send along a tax program of possibly $200 million to balance the budget. He has also promised additional state taxes to offset local government losses from property tax reductions.

Reagan's economy edict required each department to slash its budget request for the coming fiscal year by 10 per cent.

The University of California and the state colleges protested that would bring their appropriations below this year's level.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Max Rafferty told a reporter that Reagan promised yesterday there would be no cuts in state support to local schools, now more than $1.2 billion a year.

But Reagan told junior college officials Tuesday there would be no increase, Rafferty said.

er education budget and impose tuition.

Unruh said he would try to block passage of Bradley's bill to extend the sales tax to groceries and prescription drugs. Bradley said the measure would raise $204 million annually and would come close to balancing the state's budget.

The speaker said such an extention would "make the sales tax the most regressive in the business."

The sales tax covered groceries and drugs in 1935 and 1936. The 1937 legislature exempted them.

Burns said he voted against the exemption in 1937. He said he was open to argument now but "I think the sales tax should be across-the-board."

The Fresno senator said he would favor "broadening the base" of the sales tax to raise the revenue which Reagan and most legislators agree will be needed to balance the budget.

Burns said the tax could be extended to services as well as to some sales now exempt.

Unruh agreed the legislature would have to consider extending the tax to services. He said he had not yet made up his mind on the matter.

Social Visit

made up of the heads of the appropriate federal departments.

Among other preparedness efforts, he said, Ackley's group will:

Consider "possibilities and priorities for tax reduction."

Determine which high-priority government programs can be expanded quickly.

Prepare for a prompt easing of credit and expansion of money supply.

"Examine ways in which the transition to peace can be smoothed for the workers, companies and communities now engaged in supplying our defense needs, and the men released from our armed forces."

The unemployment rate should stay close to the current 3.9 per cent, he predicted.

But the forecast of 1967 national output was conservative. It called for a 6.5 per cent rise compared to 8.5 per cent last year. When deflated for probable price increases, it shrank to 4 per cent.

The council's accompanying report foresaw a price rise of about 2.5 per cent this year, compared with the 3.3 per cent of 1966—which Johnson called intolerable.

Concerning interest rates, which zoomed to 40-year highs in 1966, choking off the supply of mortgage credit and sending the housing industry into a depression, Johnson said:

"The burden of tight money is being lifted. Interest rates are still extremely high, but they are moving down from their peaks."

The housing industry should be "moving smartly forward by the end of 1967, and ready for one of its best years in 1968," he said.

SAIGON

tory of ruling generals was breaking up. But some disgruntlement at the ouster of the southern general was reported among southern leaders in Saigon who resent the northerners' domination.

No troop movements were reported. Some officers of the 7th Vietnamese Division headquartered at My Tho, 30 miles south of the capital, were among those arrested, sources said.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu was reported traveling in the Mekong Delta. Premier Nguyen Cao Ky was winding up a tour of New Zealand and was expected back late Thursday or early Friday.

Despite Ky's statement to newsmen yesterday that no governmental reshuffle was taking place, Vietnamese sources said Ky was present when the junta met before he left and decided to fire Co.

Co was on an official visit to Formosa when the junta cabled him Sunday not to return to Vietnam. The message suggested he visit Tokyo and Seoul.

Co got as far as Hong Kong today but was intercepted there and taken to a hotel to see Security Minister Linh Quang Vien, who had hurriedly flown to Hong Kong after word was received that Co planned to return.

Informed sources said Vien would tell Co if he remained outside Vietnam, he might be appointed ambassador to South Korea, Tunisia or the Ivory Coast. The sources said Co would be warned that if he returned to Saigon, he would face a military trial on corruption charges. It was understood political jockeying in the junta played a part in his ouster.

The move against Co had been long planned and came as no surprise, the sources said. His removal leaves only Thieu and Lt. Gen. Pham Xuan Chieu the only junta members from the group of 13 officers who overthrew the late President Ngo Dinh Diem Nov. 1, 1963.

Rasnick Jury Resumes Talks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jurors resumed deliberations today in the trial of Ben Rasnick, the third man to be tried for the murder of AFL-CIO Painters Union local leader Dow Wilson.

The nine-woman , three-man jury heard 50 minutes of instruction from Superior Court Judge Robert Drews yesterday and then discussed the case for three hours before being locked up for the night.

Prosecutors charged that Rasnick, a 45-year-old official of the Painters Union International in Oakland, had ordered the shotgun slaying here last April 5 of Wilson, who had been critical of the international.

TIMES

but people are trying to disguise it in another way."

He said he had been aware for weeks that Mrs. Strom opposed the paper's content. He said he discovered yesterday that Novato High School had dropped distribution, claiming "community and economic pressure had been applied."

Novato High School Principal Robert Wisgerhof was unavailable for comment today. Supt. James G. Bunker of Novato Unified School District said, "This is the kind of thing we would leave up to the high school itself."

Mrs. Strom brought up the issue, which was not on the agenda, at last night's San Rafael Board of Education meeting. The question of banning distribution caught other members who had not read High Times, unaware and there was no action.

Principal Allan Ellsberg of San Rafael High School said he had concern about control of editorial policy and principals of other high schools are concerned, too.

One recent article by a University of California student, formerly a San Rafael High School sutdent, was "quite inflammatory," Ellsberg said.

Neumeier said some teachers have criticized High Times because it only features the concerns of the brightest, most intellectual students, "but these are the ones who have taken the leadership."

The first three issues with faculty editors were "dull," said Neumeier; then students took over editing and were given free rein.

Stephen McNamara, publisher of the Pacific Sun, which prints and distributes High Times, said his paper has no control over the editorial content of High Times except to check for possible libel.

"It's a cooperative exercise in journalism," said McNamara.

Mrs. Strom questioned whether schools should participate in distributing a "commercial venture" on campuses.

Neumeier said this aspect of the paper had been discussed before it was started. He said it was comparable to "supplements of other scholastic newspapers distributed on campuses.

However, if many districts drop distribution of High Times he will abandon the publication, said Neumeier, "because it must be written by students county-wide."

New Peacock Gap Site For School

The San Rafael Board of Education last night decided to purchase a 9.1-acre site at Riviera and Biscayne drives for an elementary school in Peacock Gap.

The board had been considering purchase of a 25-acre site in Peacock Gap for both elementary and junior high schools, and had started a condemnation suit to acquire it.

When the owner, Latipac Corp., sought a price well beyond the district's appraisal, board members studied other sites. County Counsel Richard Godino was directed to negotiate for the site at Riviera and Biscayne.

Robert A. Metzger, a director of the Peacock Gap Home Owners Assn., said there has been confusion among residents about "what's happening" and asked for clarification.

Board Member Herman L. Childress said there are only two sites available to the district, and the 25-acre site would be expensive to acquire and develop.

Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. noted that the district only has a short time to amend its condemnation suit, switching it from the 25-acre site to the new site, also owned by Latipac.

At its last meeting the board had asked the citizens finance advisory committee to consider the recommendation for purchase of the 9.1 acre site. John T. Schmitz, chairman of the committee, reported last night that the committee had no objection.

Metzger said it didn't "make sense" to give the committee only an hour to consider a problem of that magnitude.

Board members agreed that Supt. John F. Plank and Asst. Supt. William C. Jordan should meet with Peacock Gap residents to discuss site acquisition.

The board received a report from Jerald Gill on the adult education program, including the parent education (nursery school) program, where costs were up about $600 from the 1965-66 school year. This prompted Board Member Anita C. Strom to call for economy. Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer said he would like to know the impact of the nursery school work on later years in school.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Received a report that San Rafael Teachers Assn. had 350 members in the city schools as of Jan. 3, and Marin County Federation of Teachers had 44 as of last Nov. 15.

2. Approved a change in policy authorizing the superintendent and business manager to pay bills up to $5,000 prior to obtaining board approval.

3. Approved hiring Abbot A. Hanks as testing laboratory for work on the six-classroom addition to Coleman School.

4. Received a report on high school district curriculum for 1967-68, including proposed new courses, which will be discussed at the Feb. 14 board meeting.

5. Accepted gifts of two art prints from Mrs. Ursula Johnson for use in the art appreciation program at West End School, and $100 from the John MacPhail School Parent-Teacher Assn. for library books for MacPhail School.

7. Received a letter from Mrs. William K. Beare of 17 Moncada Way objecting to cancellation of the singing of Christmas carols at San Rafael High School, and requesting the board to investigate the matter.

Adjourned until Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Administration Building, Third and E street.

Cabin Cruiser's Wreckage Found

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Coast Guard found the wreckage of the cabin cruiser Hesperus yesterday floating south of Pedras Blancas near San Simeon on the Central California coast.

A Coast Guard spokesman said the 22-foot craft sailed Monday from Morro Bay, en route to San Simeon, with only Reini Vanderlinden aboard. An aircraft and a beach party continued a search for him.

The wreckage was spread over four miles of the ocean five to nine miles south of the cape.

WALTER R. CASTRO Jr,
Doctor's orders

Castro Gives Up Education Board Seat

Walter R. Castro Jr. resigned from the San Rafael Board of Education last night because he has to restrict his "outside activities" as the result of a heart attack last October.

Castro was greeted with applause when he arrived at the meeting, his first board session since suffering the attack.

At the close of the session, Board President Carl J. Brown read Castro's letter of resignation, which said Castro had doctor's orders to restrict his activity.

Castro, president of Campbell-Castro Leasing Co. in Corte Madera, was elected to a four-year term on the board in April, 1965.

Under the San Rafael City Charter, the San Rafael City Council is slated to fill the vacancy on the board in 20 days. If the council fails to fill the vacancy in that time, it will be filled by the board of education.

Assault Charge Plea Due Today

William Henry Paraspolo, 20, of 904 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, was to plead this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of statutory rape. He was arraigned yesterday.

Paraspolo and seven co-defendants allegedly had sexual relations with a 15-year-old San Anselmo girl in Larkspur last month. Five were arraigned Monday. Arrest warrants for two others have been issued.

Resignation Spurs Contract Discussion

The San Rafael Board of Education last night took a look at the policy of releasing teachers under contract during the school year.

Board members accepted the resignation of Prosper Boutet, social science teacher and former department head at San Rafael High School, effective Friday, Boutet will become a social sciences teacher at San Francisco State College, reported Alan Ellsberg, San Rafael High School principal.

The resignation sparked a discussion about "mid-year" resignations.

Board Member Anita C. Strom asked if the high school district had been given ample time to locate a successor to Boutet. Ellsberg replied that it had. He said Boutet had been teaching part-time at San Francisco State College and knew about six weeks ago that the job might become fulltime.

Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. said "the prime responsibility is with the contract" and he "could be sticky" about releasing anyone from contract if no successor were available.

The board hired Daniel Murphy of Berkeley, who taught at a private school in Connecticut, to replace Boutet at $6,815 a year.

The board granted Charles Perkins, elementary district psychologist sabbatical leave for the 1967-68 school year to make a study of difficulties students have in learning and how they can be minimized through classroom instruction.

In Other Personnel Action:

1. Hired Janet Booker as girls' physical education teacher, high school district, $6,005 a year; Mrs. Irene Herkenhoff, intermediate grades, elementary district, $8,840; Justin Kielty, primary grades, elementary district, $6,815; Mrs. Alice Garrison, continuation education, high school district $7,200; Mrs. Hanna Merians, foreign language, elementary district, $5,600; Mrs. Marcia Nute, science, high school district, $8,030; Mrs. Kelley Tucker, primary grades, elementary district, $7,220; Mrs. Suzzanne, noon supervisor, Short School; Mrs. Erlys Gallagher, secretary to deans, Terra Linda High School; Susan Schroth, noon supervisor, West End School; and Judith Silveira, noon supervisor, Sun Valley School; Theresa Komo, noon supervisor, Laurel Dell Intermediate School.

New Peacock Gap Site For School

The San Rafael Board of Education last night decided to purchase a 9.1-acre site at Riviera and Biscayne drives for an elementary school in Peacock Gap.

The board had been considering purchase of a 25-acre site in Peacock Gap for both elementary and junior high schools, and had started a condemnation suit to acquire it.

When the owner, Latipac Corp., sought a price well beyond the district's appraisal, board members studied other sites. County Counsel Richard Godino was directed to negotiate for the site at Riviera and Biscayne.

Robert A. Metzger, a director of the Peacock Gap Home Owners Assn., said there has been confusion among residents about "what's happening" and asked for clarification.

Board Member Herman L. Childress said there are only two sites available to the district, and the 25-acre site would be expensive to acquire and develop.

Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. noted that the district only has a short time to amend its condemnation suit, switching it from the 25-acre site to the new site, also owned by Latipac.

At its last meeting the board had asked the citizens finance advisory committee to consider the recommendation for purchase of the 9.1 acre site. John T. Schmitz, chairman of the committee, reported last night that the committee had no objection.

Metzger said it didn't "make sense" to give the committee only an hour to consider a problem of that magnitude.

Board members agreed that Supt. John F. Plank and Asst. Supt. William C. Jordan should meet with Peacock Gap residents to discuss site acquisition.

The board received a report from Jerald Gill on the adult education program, including the parent education (nursery school) program, where costs were up about $600 from the 1965-66 school year. This prompted Board Member Anita C. Strom to call for economy. Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer said he would like to know the impact of the nursery school work on later years in school.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Received a report that San Rafael Teachers Assn. had 350 members in the city schools as of Jan. 3, and Marin County Federation of Teachers had 44 as of last Nov. 15.
2. Approved a change in policy authorizing the superintendent and business manager to pay bills up to $5,000 prior to obtaining board approval.
3. Approved hiring Abbot A. Hanks as testing laboratory for work on the six-classroom addition to Coleman School.
4. Received a report on high school district curriculum for 1967-68, including proposed new courses, which will be discussed at the Feb. 14 board meeting.
5. Accepted gifts of two art prints from Mrs. Ursula Johnson for use in the art appreciation program at West End School, and $100 from the John MacPhail School Parent-Teacher Assn. for library books for MacPhail School.
7. Received a letter from Mrs. William K. Beare of 17 Moncada Way objecting to cancellation of the singing of Christmas carols at San Rafael High School, and requesting the board to investigate the matter.

Adjourned until Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Administration Building, Third and E street.

Stern Cuts Book

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—The West German magazine Stern in a surprise announcement said today it was voluntarily cutting some sections of its serialization of "The Death of a President" that the family of the late President John F. Knnedy had found objectionable.

Cabin Cruiser's Wreckage Found

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Coast Guard found the wreckage of the cabin cruiser Hesperus yesterday floating south of Pedras Blancas near San Simeon on the Central California coast.

A Coast Guard spokesman said the 22-foot craft sailed Monday from Morro Bay, en route to San Simeon, with only Reini Vanderlinden aboard. An aircraft and a beach party continued a search for him.

The wreckage was spread over four miles of the ocean five to nine miles south of the cape.

WALTER R. CASTRO Jr,
Doctor's orders

Castro Gives Up Education Board Seat

Walter R. Castro Jr. resigned from the San Rafael Board of Education last night because he has to restrict his "outside activities" as the result of a heart attack last October.

Castro was greeted with applause when he arrived at the meeting, his first board session since suffering the attack.

At the close of the session, Board President Carl J. Brown read Castro's letter of resignation, which said Castro had doctor's orders to restrict his activity.

Castro, president of Campbell-Castro Leasing Co. in Corte Madera, was elected to a four-year term on the board in April, 1965.

Under the San Rafael City Charter, the San Rafael City Council is slated to fill the vacancy on the board in 20 days. If the council fails to fill the vacancy in that time, it will be filled by the board of education.

Assault Charge Plea Due Today

William Henry Paraspolo, 20, of 904 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, was to plead this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of statutory rape. He was arraigned yesterday.

Paraspolo and seven co-defendants allegedly had sexual relations with a 15-year-old San Anselmo girl in Larkspur last month. Five were arraigned Monday. Arrest warrants for two others have been issued.

Resignation Spurs Contract Discussion

The San Rafael Board of Education last night took a look at the policy of releasing teachers under contract during the school year.

Board members accepted the resignation of Prosper Boutet, social science teacher and former department head at San Rafael High School, effective Friday, Boutet will become a social sciences teacher at San Francisco State College, reported Alan Ellsberg, San Rafael High School principal.

The resignation sparked a discussion about "mid-year" resignations.

Board Member Anita C. Strom asked if the high school district had been given ample time to locate a successor to Boutet. Ellsberg replied that it had. He said Boutet had been teaching part-time at San Francisco State College and knew about six weeks ago that the job might become fulltime.

Board Member Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. said "the prime responsibility is with the contract" and he "could be sticky" about releasing anyone from contract if no successor were available.

The board hired Daniel Murphy of Berkeley, who taught at a private school in Connecticut, to replace Boutet at $6,815 a year.

The board granted Charles Perkins, elementary district psychologist sabbatical leave for the 1967-68 school year to make a study of difficulties students have in learning and how they can be minimized through classroom instruction.

Lolli Will Head General Services

Andrew R. Lolli, 55, former Air Force major general at Hamilton Air Force Base and a top missile man, has been launched in a new career by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The governor's office yesterday announced Lolli has been appointed director of the State General Services Department at a salary of $23,500 a year.

Until his retirement last August, Lolli was in command of the Western North American Air Defense Command with headquarters at Hamilton. Under his orders were U.S. Army and Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force units all along the west coast.

In addition to this top job, he commanded the Sixth Army Air Force Command with headquarters at Fort Baker.

The governor's office said the former major general has not been affiliated with any political party. Since leaving the military service, he has been assistant to the vice president of Hughes Aircraft at Fullerton.

During his 26 years in the service, Lolli served in Europe and Asia in addition to several domestic posts, including command of the Fourth Army Corps at the Presidio of San Francisco.

ANDREW R. LOLLI
New job with state

He arrived at Hamilton in June, 1964, to command the 28th North American Air Defense Region, which was later enlarged. He holds the Distinguished Service Medal.

Lolli lives in Riverside and San Francisco. In his new job, he succeeds Robert L. Harkness, who has taken over a newly created post of assistant finance director for staff services.

Flood Damages Pump In Novato

Excess water burned out one of Novato Sanitary District's pumps during the flood Saturday, Charles Joseph, engineer-manager of the district, reported last night to the district board.

The Olive Avenue pump was out for about 24 hours before it was repaired, he said.

Thief Stalls Auto

When his car parked behind his home would not start yesterday, Gary W. Kincaid of 137 Martens Boulevard told San Rafael police, he checked under the hood. Someone had stolen the carburetor.

Supervisors Endorse Housing Repair Plan

Marin County supervisors yesterday endorsed in principle a five-year project to upgrade housing in unincorporated areas, a job to be supported largely by federal grants.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker presented the proposal, called Neighborhood Improvement Progran (or NIP). It would increase building code enforcement and encourage home improvement.

The federal government would provide two-thirds of the cost, while the other third would be put up by the county in the form of staff time, Zucker explained.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen asked if some kind of property assessment plan could be developed to encourage home improvements. Zucker said he would confer with the assessor on the project.

The planning director said he would present more details when he is ready to file application for federal aid.

Supervisors are to discuss the annual report on the "workable program" in Marin next Tuesday. This is a report necessary to continue to receive federal support for low-income housing.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday also:

1. Appointed Lloyd Tunik to the law library board. There is still one more vacancy to be filled.

2. Asked for a report on Western Fairs Assn. activities after being asked to appoint a representative to the governing board. Marin contributes $1,000 a year to the association.

3. Approved a resolution changing composition of the Marin County safety commission. The changes include one-year terms for a department head at large and a representative of county employees.

4. Agreed to increase the salary offer for a psychologist to fill a vacancy in community mental health services from $1,500 to $1,700 per month to get a man of higher qualifications.

5. Hired Meredith A. Blundell as half-time public health nurse at $309.50 a month; Steven L. Fahrion as one-fourth time psychologist at $207.25, and Leonardo M. Marmol as psychologist-I at $753 a month in community mental health services; Elidia V. Hecht and Sharon L. Burge as intermediate clerks at $362 a month in welfare, and Jo Ann J. Wisnes as senior stenographer at $419 in the superintendent of schools office.

6. Authorized increase in monthly rent in the Cheda Building in downtown San Rafael from $795 to $905 for probation department quarters, due to the addition of two more rooms.

7. Agreed to accept Mercy Ambulance Service in the contract for transporting medically indigent and mentally ill. The firm has bought out Cal-Marin Ambulance Co. of Novato.

8. Authorized creation of an earth shoulder for a walkway on Sutro Road and Vineyard Avenue in the Novato area where the North Marin Council of the Parent-Teacher Assn. complained over lack of sidewalks.

9. Agreed not to press legal action against the state in an attempt to force state aid for a common-law wife whose husband is in the service. His allotment is going to an earlier legal wife. The common-law wife will continue to receive general relief from the county.

10. Approved the master plan for the county airport at Novato and learned that available county and federal funds will cover all but $21,428 of the cost of first phase development.

11. Continued for two weeks consideration of the request of Mr. and Mrs. Glease Conner of 28 Marina Court for a pipe railing rather than a redwood timber atop the San Pedro Road retaining wall built in connection with San Pedro Road widening.

12. Adjourned at 5 p.m.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, traveling with the Air Force to tour Military installations in Colorado, was absent.

Pentagon Is Centralizing News To GIs

NEW YORK (AP) — The Pentagon is centralizing the flow of news to servicemen abroad, but says the move is a physical one, aimed at efficiency and not news management.

However, Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the Special Government Information subcommittee, was on record today as looking into the matter.

The New York and Los Angeles offices of the official Armed Forces Press, Radio and Television Service already have shifted to Arlington, Va. The New York Burea uof the Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, was expected to follow.

"I have directed the subcommittee staff to look into the Stars and Stripes matter and I will keep you advised on developments," Moss wrote Hu Blonk, managing editor of the Wenatchee (Wash.) Daily World and chairman of The Associated Press Managing Editors Freedom of Information Committee.

Blonk said he had received reports of a planned Pentagon centralization of news, and had written Moss about them.

Lolli Will Head General Services

Andrew R. Lolli, 55, former Air Force major general at Hamilton Air Force Base and a top missile man, has been launched in a new career by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The governor's office yesterday announced Lolli has been appointed director of the State General Services Department at a salary of $23,500 a year.

Until his retirement last August, Lolli was in command of the Western North American Air Defense Command with headquarters at Hamilton. Under his orders were U.S. Army and Air Force and Royal Canadian Air Force units all along the west coast.

In addition to this top job, he commanded the Sixth Army Air Force Command with headquarters at Fort Baker.

The governor's office said the former major general has not been affiliated with any political party. Since leaving the military service, he has been assistant to the vice president of Hughes Aircraft at Fullerton.

During his 26 years in the service, Lolli served in Europe and Asia in addition to several domestic posts, including command of the Fourth Army Corps at the Presidio of San Francisco.

ANDREW R. LOLLI
New job with state

He arrived at Hamilton in June, 1964, to command the 28th North American Air Defense Region, which was later enlarged. He holds the Distinguished Service Medal.

Lolli lives in Riverside and San Francisco. In his new job, he succeeds Robert L. Harkness, who has taken over a newly created post of assistant finance director for staff services.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

Flood Damages Pump In Novato

Excess water burned out one of Novato Sanitary District's pumps during the flood Saturday, Charles Joseph, engineer-manager of the district, reported last night to the district board.

The Olive Avenue pump was out for about 24 hours before it was repaired, he said.

Thief Stalls Auto

When his car parked behind his home would not start yesterday, Gary W. Kincaid of 137 Martens Boulevard told San Rafael police, he checked under the hood. Someone had stolen the carburetor.

Supervisors Endorse Housing Repair Plan

Marin County supervisors yesterday endorsed in principle a five-year project to upgrade housing in unincorporated areas, a job to be supported largely by federal grants.

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker presented the proposal, called Neighborhood Improvement Progran (or NIP). It would increase building code enforcement and encourage home improvement.

The federal government would provide two-thirds of the cost, while the other third would be put up by the county in the form of staff time, Zucker explained.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen asked if some kind of property assessment plan could be developed to encourage home improvements. Zucker said he would confer with the assessor on the project.

The planning director said he would present more details when he is ready to file application for federal aid.

Supervisors are to discuss the annual report on the "workable program" in Marin next Tuesday. This is a report necessary to continue to receive federal support for low-income housing.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday also:

1. Appointed Lloyd Tunik to the law library board. There is still one more vacancy to be filled.

2. Asked for a report on Western Fairs Assn. activities after being asked to appoint a representative to the governing board. Marin contributes $1,000 a year to the association.

3. Approved a resolution changing composition of the Marin County safety commission. The changes include one-year terms for a department head at large and a representative of county employees.

4. Agreed to increase the salary offer for a psychologist to fill a vacancy in community mental health services from $1,500 to $1,700 per month to get a man of higher qualifications.

5. Hired Meredith A. Blundell as half-time public health nurse at $309.50 a month; Steven L. Fahrion as one-fourth time psychologist at $207.25, and Leonardo M. Marmol as psychologist-I at $753 a month in community mental health services; Elidia V. Hecht and Sharon L. Burge as intermediate clerks at $362 a month in welfare, and Jo Ann J. Wisnes as senior stenographer at $419 in the superintendent of schools office.

6. Authorized increase in monthly rent in the Cheda Building in downtown San Rafael from $795 to $905 for probation department quarters, due to the addition of two more rooms.

7. Agreed to accept Mercy Ambulance Service in the contract for transporting medically indigent and mentally ill. The firm has bought out Cal-Marin Ambulance Co. of Novato.

8. Authorized creation of an earth shoulder for a walkway on Sutro Road and Vineyard Avenue in the Novato area where the North Marin Council of the Parent-Teacher Assn. complained over lack of sidewalks.

9. Agreed not to press legal action against the state in an attempt to force state aid for a common-law wife whose husband is in the service. His allotment is going to an earlier legal wife. The common-law wife will continue to receive general relief from the county.

10. Approved the master plan for the county airport at Novato and learned that available county and federal funds will cover all but $21,428 of the cost of first phase development.

11. Continued for two weeks consideration of the request of Mr. and Mrs. Glease Conner of 28 Marina Court for a pipe railing rather than a redwood timber atop the San Pedro Road retaining wall built in connection with San Pedro Road widening.

12. Adjourned at 5 p.m.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr, traveling with the Air Force to tour Military installations in Colorado, was absent.

Pentagon Is Centralizing News To GIs

NEW YORK (AP) — The Pentagon is centralizing the flow of news to servicemen abroad, but says the move is a physical one, aimed at efficiency and not news management.

However, Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the Special Government Information subcommittee, was on record today as looking into the matter.

The New York and Los Angeles offices of the official Armed Forces Press, Radio and Television Service already have shifted to Arlington, Va. The New York Burea uof the Army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, was expected to follow.

"I have directed the subcommittee staff to look into the Stars and Stripes matter and I will keep you advised on developments," Moss wrote Hu Blonk, managing editor of the Wenatchee (Wash.) Daily World and chairman of The Associated Press Managing Editors Freedom of Information Committee.

Blonk said he had received reports of a planned Pentagon centralization of news, and had written Moss about them.

$1,2000 Japanese Scroll Is Stolen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police are searching for the thief and the $1,200 Japanese scroll painting he stole from the Avery Brundage collection at the M. H. de Young Museum.

Officials said the landscape painting was taken last Thursday from the second floor gallery of the museum in Golden Gate Park. The art was done by 19th century Japanese master Shibata Zesshin.

Marin's Legislators Back Kerr Dismissal

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Marin's two state legislators were surprised by the sudden ouster of President Clark Kerr of University of California, but they are in accord with the dismissal itself.

"In my estimation," said State Sen. John F. McCarthy, "If President Kerr had taken a strong stand during the Berkeley riots, this wouldn't have happened."

McCarthy likened President Kerr to a captain of a ship. "There was something wrong with the university. If something goes wrong, ultimate responsibility rests with the captain, not his officers. In this case, it was President Kerr."

However, the senator said he was surprised by the suddenness of the dismissal.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley said he regrets the timing of the ouster. "From the standpoint of the university, it would have been much better had the dismissal taken place let's say six months from now, at a time of calm rather than of chaos," Bagley said.

"Having the dismissal at the same time as the budget cut and the start of the new administration gives the impression that the heavy hand of politics is being felt within the university structure, and that I don't like.

"As far as President Kerr himself is concerned, it had become apparent that although he was highly respected in many quarters, his utility had expended itself."

Assemblyman Bagley immediately introduced Assembly Constitutional Amendment 18, which would require the university regents to open their meetings to the public just as provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act apply to local public agencies.

"If this had been the law," said Bagley, "we would have avoided the ostensibly precipitous nature of the dismissal."

Lodge Festivity

A combination anniversary dinner-dance and district meeting of the Redwood Empire District of the Loyal Order of Moose will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday by the Novato Moose Lodge and its auxiliary, Women of the Moose, at the Moose Hall at 844 Vallejo Avenue, according to Gov. Willis Frey.

U.C. Faculty At Berkeley Calls Ouster Betrayal Move

BERKELEY (UPI) — The faculty of the University of California's Berkeley campus has denounced the Board of Regents for betrayal of public trust in firing President Clark Kerr.

"As of today, no reputable educator would assume the presidency of that university which yesterday was the envy of every other state," some 1,000 professors said yesterday in a bitter proclamation addressed to the citizens of California.

The Academic Senate, the largest in the nine-campus system, adopted the measure during an emergency meeting in the Student Union building. About 2,000 students listened by means of a public address system and greeted the departing professors with thundering applause.

The teachers' meeting was held just hours after Gov. Ronald Reagan told a state Capitol news conference in Sacramento that Kerr's firing was not a political move. He said the educator had "outlived his usefulness."

In New York City it was announced that Kerr would head a far-reaching study of the future structure and financing of U. S. higher education for the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

The Academic Senate at the U.C. Medical Center in San Francisco followed the Berkeley professors' action by adopting a resolution expressing "profound disapproval" of Kerr's firing.

Also the Academic Senate at the Santa Barbara campus, on a 237-13 vote, charged Kerr's dismissal was "wrong and the manner of it brutal."

As these new charges developed over the large university system, Dr. Harry R. Wellman, acting president at the Berkeley campus, assured faculty and students he would work to keep "the non-political character of the university."

In his first policy statement since assuming Kerr's post, he lauded Kerr's "far-sighted leadership."

And on the Stanford University campus President Wallace Sterling referred obliquely to the University of California situation in his "state of the university address" when he said no university should "become a political instrument or pawn."

Sterling also said he took delight in student activism, which has occured at both Stanford and Berkeley, "because it bespeaks concern about the welfare of mankind and a desire to be of service."

Marin's Legislators Back Kerr Dismissal

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Marin's two state legislators were surprised by the sudden ouster of President Clark Kerr of University of California, but they are in accord with the dismissal itself.

"In my estimation," said State Sen. John F. McCarthy, "If President Kerr had taken a strong stand during the Berkeley riots, this wouldn't have happened."

McCarthy likened President Kerr to a captain of a ship. "There was something wrong with the university. If something goes wrong, ultimate responsibility rests with the captain, not his officers. In this case, it was President Kerr."

However, the senator said he was surprised by the suddenness of the dismissal.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley said he regrets the timing of the ouster. "From the standpoint of the university, it would have been much better had the dismissal taken place let's say six months from now, at a time of calm rather than of chaos," Bagley said.

"Having the dismissal at the same time as the budget cut and the start of the new administration gives the impression that the heavy hand of politics is being felt within the university structure, and that I don't like.

"As far as President Kerr himself is concerned, it had become apparent that although he was highly respected in many quarters, his utility had expended itself."

Assemblyman Bagley immediately introduced Assembly Constitutional Amendment 18, which would require the university regents to open their meetings to the public just as provisions of the Ralph M. Brown Act apply to local public agencies.

"If this had been the law," said Bagley, "we would have avoided the ostensibly precipitous nature of the dismissal."

Lodge Festivity

A combination anniversary dinner-dance and district meeting of the Redwood Empire District of the Loyal Order of Moose will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday by the Novato Moose Lodge and its auxiliary, Women of the Moose, at the Moose Hall at 844 Vallejo Avenue, according to Gov. Willis Frey.

U.C. Faculty At Berkeley Calls Ouster Betrayal Move

BERKELEY (UPI) — The faculty of the University of California's Berkeley campus has denounced the Board of Regents for betrayal of public trust in firing President Clark Kerr.

"As of today, no reputable educator would assume the presidency of that university which yesterday was the envy of every other state," some 1,000 professors said yesterday in a bitter proclamation addressed to the citizens of California.

The Academic Senate, the largest in the nine-campus system, adopted the measure during an emergency meeting in the Student Union building. About 2,000 students listened by means of a public address system and greeted the departing professors with thundering applause.

The teachers' meeting was held just hours after Gov. Ronald Reagan told a state Capitol news conference in Sacramento that Kerr's firing was not a political move. He said the educator had "outlived his usefulness."

In New York City it was announced that Kerr would head a far-reaching study of the future structure and financing of U. S. higher education for the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.

The Academic Senate at the U.C. Medical Center in San Francisco followed the Berkeley professors' action by adopting a resolution expressing "profound disapproval" of Kerr's firing.

Also the Academic Senate at the Santa Barbara campus, on a 237-13 vote, charged Kerr's dismissal was "wrong and the manner of it brutal."

As these new charges developed over the large university system, Dr. Harry R. Wellman, acting president at the Berkeley campus, assured faculty and students he would work to keep "the non-political character of the university."

In his first policy statement since assuming Kerr's post, he lauded Kerr's "far-sighted leadership."

And on the Stanford University campus President Wallace Sterling referred obliquely to the University of California situation in his "state of the university address" when he said no university should "become a political instrument or pawn."

Sterling also said he took delight in student activism, which has occured at both Stanford and Berkeley, "because it bespeaks concern about the welfare of mankind and a desire to be of service."

Warner Creek's Flooding Hits Novato City Coffers

Weekend flooding cost the City of Novato 290 hours of overtime, 300 hours of regular work time, plus equipment use and rental, Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, reported last night to the Novato City Council.

Warner Creek was the main source of trouble, going out of its banks twice on Saturday and again Monday night, he sai.

"Warner Creek is the problem of the flood control district, and until it is deepened, we will have this problem during heavy rains," Coleman said.

"Our storm drains worked in reverse," Coleman said. The city's new drainage ditches into Warner Creek let the water out of the creek when it was high instead of helping drain into the creek, he reported.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Approved an agreement with Sunset International Petroleum Corp. for that company to maintain landscaping in street center islands of San Marin.

2. Set for March 14 a public hearing on annexation of 49 acres at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road, which includes a junior high school site. It also gave the staff the go-ahead in processing a 6.4-acre annexation at Vineyard Road and Sutro Avenue.

3. Passed an ordinance designating city holidays. The main change is the swapping of Admission Day for the day before Christmas.

4. Authorized the city staff to negotiate for the purchase of property for widening of De Long Avenue to connect with Diablo Avenue.

5. Approved plans for a tot lot to be installed at the Lions Park by the Lions club.

Silva and Mayor J. Wayne Womack were absent last night.

In addition to the cash donations which ares till coming to the city, the City of Petaluma gave a plant, the Novato Community Club a bouquet of flowers and Councilman M. E. Babe Silva, the cake.

Mayor pro-tem Douglas M. Merrill named Mrs. Bea Carpenter who designed the refurbishing of the Community House, Edward Adams, parks and recreation director and himself to a committee to determine how the cash donations would be spent to further beautify the Community House.

Stillman Kuhns reported yesterday to Tiburon Sheriff's substation someone stole about 20 gallons of gasoline from his car while it was parked in his carport at 1754 Lagoon View Drive, Tiburon.

Glen Parks Wins Speaking Contest

Sophomore Glen Parks of Tomales High School last night won first prize in the Future Farmers of American public speaking contest in Santa Rosa.

Parks, winner of the Tomales local contest in December, defeated four other local winners in the sectional contest. At 15, the youngest contestant, he won over seniors from Analy, Santa Rosa, Healdsburg and Petaluma high schools.

Parks thus qualified for the regional contest Feb. 10 at Scotia, Humboldt County, where he will compete with other sectional winners from Half Moon Bay to Oregon for a try at the state championships in May.

On Feb. 10, at Scotia, he will also compete as a member of Tomales High School's five-member debating team, which qualified in a second category of the public speaking competitions.

Judges at last night's contest were radio announcer Merl Ross; Charles Belden, vocational director at Santa Rosa Junior College, and Dee Whitmire, 4-H Club adviser for Sonoma County.

Parks is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Parks of Tomales.

Arraignment On Worthless Checks

Gerald Tomsen, 32, San Francisco, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court Monday on a charge of passing three worthless checks totaling $100.59, and plea entry was set for 1:30 p.m. next Monday.

Tomsen allegedly passed the checks Oct. 7 in San Rafael with intent to defraud Lachman Bros. and Macy's.

Minimum Area For Complexes

The Larkspur Planning Commission last night approved a 420-square-foot minimum area per unit in multiple dwellings.

An amendment to the subdivision ordinance requiring developers to submit a parcel map was approved.

Calm Prevails At San Quentin; 1,300 At Work

Calm continued today at San Quentin Prison, a week after the racial strife involving 1,000 convicts.

A force of 1,300 inmates was released for work, the same number as yesterday. The remaining 2,700 prisoners were held in cells as officials seek a gradual return to routine.

Visits and tours were still banned.

Last Wednesday, Negro and white inmates formed for a battle in the main yard. Tempers were cooled only after guards fired riot guns and tear gas.

Officials expect it will be several weeks before the prison functions normally.

Minor Crash Cuts

Roger Terry Case, 23, of Santa Rosa told California Highway Patrol he dozed while driving yesterday and woke up just before his car hit a guard rail south of the Ignacio overpass on Highway 101 at 10.40 p.m. He was treated at Novato General Hospital for cuts on face and nose.

Opposition Radio Stations, Paper Closed In Nicaragua

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — The Nicaraguan government has closed three opposition radio stations and a newspaper after the pre-election battle which left 34 persons dead and 69 wounded.

President Lorenzo Guerrero said the capital was "tranquil" again and that the 20-hour uprising would probably not cause postponement of the presidential elections Feb. 5. The government said the opposition radio stations and the newspaper La Prensa were shut down because they were inciting violence.

Political passions boiled up Sunday night after a rally at which Fernando Aguero, the presidential candidate of the opposition Conservative party, appealed for "free, just and honest elections with the fullest guarantees."

The Conservatives and the ruling Somoza machine blamed each other for the disorders, which ended Monday night when the rebels surrendered their arms and freed 117 foreign hostages, including 89 North Americans.

The population of Long Island, N.Y., is 6.4 million, greater than that of 43 of the 50 states.

Warner Creek's Flooding Hits Novato City Coffers

Weekend flooding cost the City of Novato 290 hours of overtime, 300 hours of regular work time, plus equipment use and rental, Lawrence A. Coleman, director of public works, reported last night to the Novato City Council.

Warner Creek was the main source of trouble, going out of its banks twice on Saturday and again Monday night, he sai. "Warner Creek is the problem of the flood control district, and until it is deepened, we will have this problem during heavy rains," Coleman said.

"Our storm drains worked in reverse," Coleman said. The city's new drainage ditches into Warner Creek let the water out of the creek when it was high instead of helping drain into the creek, he reported.

The Novato City Council Also:

1. Approved an agreement with Sunset International Petroleum Corp. for that company to maintain landscaping in street center islands of San Marin.

2. Set for March 14 a public hearing on annexation of 49 acres at Wilson Avenue and Vineyard Road, which includes a junior high school site. It also gave the staff the go-ahead in processing a 6.4-acre annexation at Vineyard Road and Sutro Avenue.

3. Passed an ordinance designating city holidays. The main change is the swapping of Admission Day for the day before Christmas.

4. Authorized the city staff to negotiate for the purchase of property for widening of De Long Avenue to connect with Diablo Avenue.

5. Approved plans for a tot lot to be installed at the Lions Park by the Lions club.

6. Adjourned to Jan. 31 to decide on a civic center site. However, Mayor pro-tem Douglas M. Merrill today said that M. E. Babe Silva probably would not be at the meeting next week, so it was canceled. The next regular meeting of the council is Feb. 14.

RICHARD PARMER
Long-distance scouting

Eagles Badge Will Go To Marin Scout

Richard Parmer will have to make a special trip to attend the Boy Scout Court of Honor at which he will receive his Eagle badge, scouting's highest award.

He moves this week to Riverside, in Southern California, where his father, Ross L. Parmer, has been transferred by Firemen's Fund Insurance Co.

No date has been set by Troop 55 of San Rafael for the Court of Honor, but Richard, 14, is no stranger to long-distance scouting, having transferred here with his parents two years ago from Bellevue, Wash.

A freshman at San Rafael High School, Richard also plays the trombone and has been an Independent-Journal newspaper boy for two years. The family home is at 140 Dominican Drive.

Appraiser Joins Card Complainers

Edward P. Morphy, a San Rafael appraiser, has complained to Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) about an advertisement from a Los Angeles firm made to look like a bill which requires payment.

The ad, in the form of a yellow punched computer card, is sent out by Classified Business Directory of Los Angeles and, said Morphy, resembles legitimate invoices sent out by Pacific Telephone Co.

The ad is addressed individually to local business firms and requests it is returned together with checks for set amounts, apparently to pay for insertions in a directory. A card requesting $68 was received by the Independent-Journal.

Several Marin businessmen have complained that the form gives the impression it is for services rendered instead of an advertisement.

Small print on the reverse side states: "This is not a renewal, invoice, or bill for advertising."

Report Flood Damage Now

If you were flooded during the storm and want the county assessor to know about it, now is the time to let him know.

This was the report made by County Administrator Alan Bruce yesterday. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen commented that a home subject to flooding certainly has a lower market value than a home that is not.

Bruce told the board of supervisors he had conferred with County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel on the matter and Broemmel said inspections would be made on request.

Most Public Schools Will Close Friday

Most public schools in Marin County will be closed Friday while teachers attend a county teachers' institute.

Schools will be closed in all districts except Dixie, Kentfield, Lagunitas, Reed, West Marin, Novato Unified, and Marin Junior College.

The institute on "new theories in teaching and their application" will open at College of Marin's gymnasium at 9 a.m. Principal speakers will be Dr. Paul Plowman, California state consultant in the education of the mentally gifted and co-director of California Project Talent, and Mary Broderick, director of the Los Angeles pilot demonstration center for Project Talent.

In the afternoon, there will be demonstrations on new methods of instruction by Marin teachers.

Redwood Empire Lists Events

Two hundred affairs are listed in the 1967 edition of the Redwood Empire Assn.'s calendar.

The February-through-September issue of the calendar is available free from REA at 476 Post Street, San Francisco.

Events include the Cloverdale Citrus Fair, Feb. 16-18; the annual Prune Blossom Tour at Healdsburg March 18-19; the Anderson Valley Wildflower Show at Boonville, April 30-May 1; the annual Mountain Play, "Kismet" near Mill Valley, May 14 and 21; the Boatmik Whitewater Races at Grants Pass, May 27-30; Pioneer Days at Middletown, June 17-18; the Old Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration at Crescent City; the Napa Town and Country Fair, Aug. 3-6. The 8th annual World's Wrist-Wrestling Championships at Petaluma, Feb. 3, and the Victorian Village Antique Show at Ferndale, Sept. 24, Oct. 1.

Dead Convict's Family Can Sue

FRESNO (AP) — The Fifth District Court of Appeals in Fresno yesterday ruled the widow and surviving children of a prisoner killed in a state prison can sue the state.

The suit was filed in Kern County Superior Court by Mrs. Margaret Garcia and her five children in the death nearly four years ago of her husband, Santiago, an inmate at the Tehachapi State Prison.

He died when 225 pounds of weight, with which he was exercising, slipped from his hands and crushed his skull.

The suit was dismissed in Kern County on grounds the state statutes preclude a prisoner from bringing legal action against the state.

Drunken Driver Is Fined $345

Robert Nelson Sorem, 54, San Francisco, was fined $345 and placed on six months proation in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving. San Rafael police arrested him Saturday on Francisco Boulevard.

Donald Earl Rouse, 33, of 1307 Leafwood Drive, Novato, was fined $230 and placed on six months probation for the same offense. California Highway Patrol arrested him on Highway 101 Sunday.

What do they do at the Starlite Roof when the stars aren't out?

They have a marvelous a la carte luncheon Monday through Friday, a Saturday buffet and a Sunday brunch. Also, they show San Francisco in full color.

(And there's dancing nightly to the music of Richie Ferraro and his combo. No cover, no minimum.)

RICHARD PARMER
Long-distance scouting

Eagles Badge Will Go To Marin Scout

Richard Parmer will have to make a special trip to attend the Boy Scout Court of Honor at which he will receive his Eagle badge, scouting's highest award.

He moves this week to Riverside, in Southern California, where his father, Ross L. Parmer, has been transferred by Firemen's Fund Insurance Co.

No date has been set by Troop 55 of San Rafael for the Court of Honor, but Richard, 14, is no stranger to long-distance scouting, having transferred here with his parents two years ago from Bellevue, Wash.

A freshman at San Rafael High School, Richard also plays the trombone and has been an Independent-Journal newspaper boy for two years. The family home is at 140 Dominican Drive.

Appraiser Joins Card Complainers

Edward P. Morphy, a San Rafael appraiser, has complained to Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) about an advertisement from a Los Angeles firm made to look like a bill which requires payment.

The ad, in the form of a yellow punched computer card, is sent out by Classified Business Directory of Los Angeles and, said Morphy, resembles legitimate invoices sent out by Pacific Telephone Co.

The ad is addressed individually to local business firms and requests it is returned together with checks for set amounts, apparently to pay for insertions in a directory. A card requesting $68 was received by the Independent-Journal.

Several Marin businessmen have complained that the form gives the impression it is for services rendered instead of an advertisement.

Small print on the reverse side states: "This is not a renewal, invoice, or bill for advertising."

Report Flood Damage Now

If you were flooded during the storm and want the county assessor to know about it, now is the time to let him know.

This was the report made by County Administrator Alan Bruce yesterday. Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen commented that a home subject to flooding certainly has a lower market value than a home that is not.

Bruce told the board of supervisors he had conferred with County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel on the matter and Broemmel said inspections would be made on request.

WHIPPING UP tasty treats made from Camp Fire Girls chocolate covered mints which will be sold throughout Marin beginning next Wednesday are three members of the Camp Fire Girls with Mrs. Harold Fulkerson, general chairman for the fund-raising project. Yummy Camp Fire Mint Treats

An activity which is the only fund raising project of the Camp Fire Girls of Marin will get under way next Wednesday with the sale of chocolate covered mints.

Adrian Van Herlwynen, chairman of the Marin Section of the Golden Gate Council, has named Mrs. Harold Fulkerson general chairman of the event.

With a slogan of "One box for the table and one for the freezer" Camp Fire Girls provide recipes for your pleasure.

To make 43,200,000 traditional Camp Fire Mints mix 114,806 eggs, 398,675 pounds of sugar, 629 pints of pure oil of peppermint. Dip heavily in 249,538 pounds of rich chocolate. That's all there is to making those delicious mints — but the following are more practical — and still out-of-this world.

CHOCOLATE SUPREME

1 baked pie shell
1 package chocolate pudding mix
1 package vanilla pudding mix
12 light chocolate Camp Fire Mints

Cook pudding as directed on package. Let cool a few minutes then add the Camp Fire mints and pour into pie shell. Or line the pie shell with the mints, then pour pudding mixture over them. When pie has cooled top it with whipped cream.

PASTRY SURPRISES

Cut rounds of pie crust with a large biscuit cutter. Place one Camp Fire mint between two rounds, dampen edges and press together with a fork. Bake in hot oven until brown.

COOKIES WORTH A MINT

Freeze one box of Camp Fire Mints. This recipe makes 36 cookies.

Cream —
1 cup shortening (half butter is good)
1 cup light brown sugar (packed)
½ cup white sugar
Add —
2 eggs, unbeaten
2 tablespoons water
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream well.
Sift together —
3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt

Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture and mix well. Add 1 cup finely chopped walnuts. Cover and refrigerate 2 hours. Enclose a frozen Camp Fire Mint in enough chilled dough to cover mint completely. Place on greased cookie sheet about 2 inches apart. Bake at 425 degrees for 7 or 8 minutes. After the first five minutes watch the cookies because at this high heat they will cook fast. If baked at a lower heat the mints will melt and run.

MINT PARFAIT

Into one recipe for vanilla or chocolate pudding stir ½ dozen chocolate Camp Fire mints cut in quarters. After the mixture has cooled in the pan for 10 minutes, place in parfait glasses. When ready to serve top with whipped cream or topping and ¼ mint. The same filling may be used for a pie and decorated with whipped cream and pieces of mint.

MINT TAPIOCA

1 egg, slightly beaten
⅓ cup of sugar
3 tablespoons Minute Tapioca
⅛ teaspoon salt
2¾ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix slightly beaten egg, sugar, salt, minute tapioca and milk in saucepan. Let stand about 5 minutes. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture comes to a full boil and is slightly thickened. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Let cool slightly then fold in 8 to 10 quartered mints. Spoon into serving dishes. Serve warm or chilled.

FROZEN MINT SQUARES

In top of double boiler (do not let water boil) melt:
1 oz. square of milk chocolate
12 Camp Fire Mints
12 Marshmallows cut in quarters
Stir in ½ cup of milk
Dash of salt

Set this mixture aside to cool. Whip one cup of cream until stiff. Fold in cooled chocolate mixture, add 1½ cups vanilla wafer crumbs and mix well. Line refrigerator tray with wax paper, pour in mixture, sprinkle top with finely chopped nuts and freeze until firm. When ready to serve cut into squares with a warm knife. Serve plain or garnish with whipped cream.

WHIZ MINT CHOCO-NUT CRINKLES

1 package commercial cake mix
¼ cup soft shortening
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
1 six oz. package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
½ cup chopped nuts
4 Camp Fire Mints, cut into small pieces

Blend together cake mix, shortening, egg and water — dough will be fairly stiff and you may want to use your hands to mix. Add semi-sweet chocolate pieces, nuts and pieces of Camp Fire Mints. Chill dough thoroughly. Drop on ungreased baking sheet in size of teaspoon. Place two inches apart. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 minutes until just browned. Place on wire rack to cool. Makes three to four dozen cookies.

QUICK ICING

Bake one layer commercial cake mix. Remove from oven and while still warm put one box of Camp Fire Mints on top. Broil two minutes watching carefully.

MINT CUPCAKES WOHELO

⅔ cup shortening
1¾ cup sugar
2⅔ cup flour
3½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1⅓ cups skim milk
2 teaspoons vanilla
4 egg whites (½) cup), stiffly beaten
6 Camp Fire Mints, cut fine

Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Sift together dry ingredients and stir in alternately with milk and vanilla. Fold in egg whites and mint pieces. Fill cupcake papers ⅔ full and bake 15 or 20 minutes at 350. (Note — Package cake may be substituted.)

Special sale booths will be in operation at various locations throughout the county. If your freezer needs a mint refill please call the Camp Fire Office.

Spicy Vegetable

Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake-Topped With Cherry Crown

Here's a showpiece dessert to make for February parties, one that's crowned with cherries to fit the February holidays. Happily, Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake is not as calorie-filled as it looks. It's made with cottage cheese, high in protein and food value but low in calories.

IT'S ALSO A no-bake cheesecake, not cooked but chilled for several hours in the refrigerator, so it's an ideal make ahead dessert. Eggs and unflavored gelatin make it fluffy-light and help set the mold. The delicate flavor is a combination of pineapple and lemon. Not too sweet, not too tart, these fresh fruit flavors are complemented by the dreaminess of cottage cheese and whipping cream.

This firm, yet airy cheesecake filling is surrounded by a buttery crumb crust and set in a springform pan for easy unmolding. Since it can be made ahead and refrigerated for a day or more, it's an excellent recipe to serve at a ladies' luncheon or any occasion when you don't have time for last minute fixing.

GLORIFY YOUR Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake with a topping of ruby-red cherries for February entertaining. They're the easiest part of the whole dessert. Simply heat canned cherry pie filling, adding a little almond extract and a tablespoon of butter. Spoon on a generous amount of cherry topping just before you slice and serve the cheesecake.

PINEAPPLE CHIFFON CHEESECAKE

CRUST:
1½ cups graham cracker crumbs
¼ cup sugar
½ cup (1 stick) butter, melted

CHEESECAKE:
2 tablespoons (2 envelopes) unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons cornstarch
½ cup milk
2 egg yolks, beaten
2 cups cottage cheese, sieved
1 can (8¾ oz.) crushed pineapple in heavy syrup
1 tablespoon lemon rind
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream

TOPPING:
2 cups (1-lb. 5-oz. can) cherry pie filling
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon almond extract.

To prepare crust: In a bowl combine crumbs and sugar; stir in butter. Press mixture firmly and evenly against the bottom and side of a 9-inch springform pan. Chill. To prepare Cheesecake: Soften gelatin in water. In a 1-quart saucepan mix sugar and cornstarch. Gradually add milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add small amount of hot mixture to egg yolks; return all to saucepan. Cook 1 additional minute. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Pour into bowl; cool to lukewarm. Add cottage cheese, pineaple with syrup, lemon rind and juice to gelatin mixture. In a small mixing bowl beat egg whites until foamy, continue beating; gradually add sugar and beat until stiff peaks form. Fold beaten egg whites into cheese mixture. Whip cream until stiff; fold into mixture. Pour into crust; chill until set. To prepare Topping: In a 1-quart saucepan cook cherry pie filling over medium heat, stirring occasionally, for about 5 minutes. Stir in butter to melt. Add almond extract. Chill sauce; spoon over cheesecake. Chill several hours before serving. Makes 10-12 servings.

Make Meat Pies

Individual meat pies from leftover stews topped with leftover mashed potatoes, biscuit or pastry topping are convenient to have to bake directly from the freezer.

Saucy Steak Is A Snap To Prepare

Condensed onion sauce gives the gravy for beef round steak after the meat's been braised in it. That makes this saucy as well as snappy!

One whole round steak, or portions of the round, may be used, says meat expert, Reba Staggs. If the market sells the round as bottom or top round steaks, one steak of each kind will give approximately the same amount, as will two of either.

Soup will contain most of the seasonings, accented only with a bit of celery seed and chili sauce.

SAUCY STEAK

1 Beef round steak, cut ½-inch thick
¼ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed onion soup.
½ cup water
½ teaspoon celery seed
2 tablespoons chili sauce

Mix together flour, salt and pepper. Pound steak with seasoned flour to ¼-inch thickness. Cut into serving pieces. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add onion soup, water, celery seed and chili sauce. Cover tightly and simmer 1½ hours or until meat is tender. 5 to 6 servings.

Sprightly Sauce Accents Hearty Beef Short Ribs

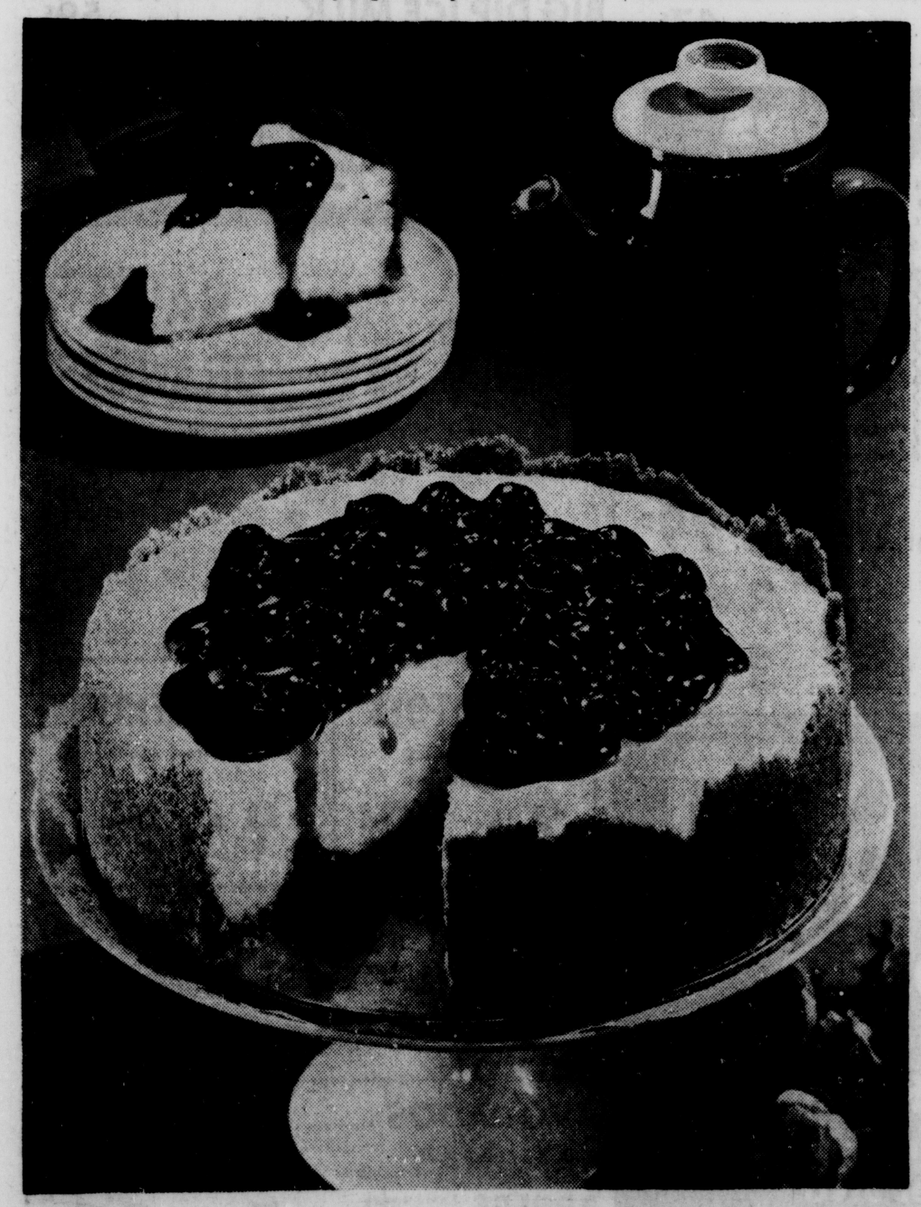
Hearty is a word that describes beef short ribs but it's not the only one. Flavorful is another. Delectable can also be used when these ribs are prepared with a tangy raisin sauce.

Square to rectangular in shape, composed of alternating layers of lean and fat, short ribs are browned in their own fat. After cooking tightly covered for an hour and a half, the drippings are poured off. The sauce ingredients, brought to a boil, are used as the braising liquid.

BEEF SHORT RIBS — RAISIN SAUCE

4 pounds beef short ribs
2 teaspoons salt .. ⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 onion, quartered
½ cup brown sugar
1 tsp. mustard
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 bay leaf
1½ cups water
½ cup raisins

Brown short ribs in own fat, cover tightly and cook slowly 1½ hours. Pour off drippings. Season ribs with salt and pepper. Add quartered onion. Combine remaining ingredients and bring to a boil. Pour over short ribs. Cover tightly and cook slowly about 2 hours or until meat is tender. Thicken sauce, if desired. 6 servings.



CHILL A cheesecake in a delicate crumb crust for a heavenly light dessert. Guests will rave over this Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake, the no-bake kind that's made with cottage cheese so it's calorie-low.

Most Public Schools Will Close Friday

Most public schools in Marin County will be closed Friday while teachers attend a county teachers' institute.

Schools will be closed in all districts except Dixie, Kentfield, Lagunitas, Reed, West Marin, Novato Unified, and Marin Junior College.

The institute on "new theories in teaching and their application" will open at College of Marin's gymnasium at 9 a.m. Principal speakers will be Dr. Paul Plowman, California state consultant in the education of the mentally gifted and co-director of California Project Talent, and Mary Broderick, director of the Los Angeles pilot demonstration center for Project Talent.

In the afternoon, there will be demonstrations on new methods of instruction by Marin teachers.

Dead Convict's Family Can Sue

FRESNO (AP) — The Fifth District Court of Appeals in Fresno yesterday ruled the widow and surviving children of a prisoner killed in a state prison can sue the state.

The suit was filed in Kern County Superior Court by Mrs. Margaret Garcia and her five children in the death nearly four years ago of her husband, Santiago, an inmate at the Tehachapi State Prison.

He died when 225 pounds of weight, with which he was exercising, slipped from his hands and crushed his skull.

The suit was dismissed in Kern County on grounds the state statutes preclude a prisoner from bringing legal action against the state.

Drunken Driver Is Fined $345

Special Touches To Recipe Make For Really Good Soup

In many sections of the country and around the world a meal rarely starts without a cup or a bowl of soup. The Japanese enjoy it even at breakfast. So it can be a welcome appetizer or a main-dish supper when served with a salad and fresh hot bread.

Whether you're an expert or novice you can create a really good soup. The experienced cook often experiments and adds her own special touches to a recipe. All a beginner need do is follow directions precisely. To the French, soupe is feminine and potage is masculine but call it what you will, here are two flavorful soups that belie their simplicity and ease of preparation.

BAKED BEAN SOUP

½ cup onions, chopped fine
1 medium carrot, sliced thin
1 stalk celery, chopped fine
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2½ cups canned pork and beans
4 cups water
2 frankfurters
1 teaspoon worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
Paprika

Saute onions, carrots and celery in butter till lightly browned. Combine with beans, water and 1 frankfurter that has been cut in half lengthwise Simmer 20 minutes, then discard frankfurter which will be flavorless. Add the other frankfurter, sliced thin, the worcestershire sauce and salt and pepper. Simmer about 5 minutes to heat thoroughly and serve very hot. Top with croutons and sprinkle with paprika. Serves 4 to 6.

DELUXE BEAN SOUP

2 cups precooked quick beans
3 cups water
1 cup tomato juice
1 onion, diced
1 clove garlic, minced
3 stalks celery, sliced
1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
1 ham hock or 1 cup cubed smoked ham
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
Salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients, except salt and pepper in cooking pot. Simmer 30 minutes or longer, if desired. Season with salt and freshly ground pepper just before serving. Serves 6 to 8.

Tasty Salmon Casserols—

To add variety to mid-winter meals, try this appetizing salmon loaf casserole, topped with a lemon and mushroom sauce. Not only is it simple to prepare but this recipe is also easy on the household food budget.

Practically a meal in itself, all you need to serve with this tasty, nutritious casserole is crunchy French bread and a crisp green salad.

SALMON LOAF

2 1-pound cans salmon
2 cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
⅓ cup chopped parsley
2 eggs, slightly beaten
cup evaporated milk
⅓ cup bottled lemon juice
¼ cup melted butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worchestershire sauce

Drain and flake fish. Combine remaining ingredients; add fish and mix well. Pat into a 9¼x5¼-x2¾-inch loaf pan or a 1½-quart casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (375°) for 35 to 40 minutes or until firm. Suggested garnish: parsley sprigs and sliced hard-boiled egg. Serve with Lemon Mushroom Sauce.

Makes 6 to 8 servings.

LEMON MUSHROOM SAUCE

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 tablespoons bottled lemon juice
¼ cup water
¼ teaspoon Worchestershire sauce
⅛ teaspoon dried dill

BUTTER CRISPS

Yield: 8 dozen
Baking sheets
Preheated 350 degrees oven
1 cup (2 sticks) butter
1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese
1 cup sugar
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2¼ cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon baking powder

In a mixing bowl cream together butter and cream cheese; gradually add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Beat in egg yolk and vanilla. Sift together flour, salt and baking powder gradually add to creamed mixture. With cookie press, form cookies on ungreased baking sheet. Bake 12-15 minutes. Remove to wire rack to cool.

Two Pounds Of Ground Meat Serves Eight

Thrifty homemakers will count heavily on supplies of ground meat when they work at balancing their budgets. For variety's sake, they select from beef as well as lamb, pork and veal.

Patties are a favorite entree because they cook quickly. A combination of pork and veal with their seasonings can add interest to menus. The patties will take approximately 20 minutes of cooking time.

Spicy flavor comes from oregano and sage and cayenne pepper if it's used. A small amount of brown sugare enhances the flavor of these mildly flavored meats.

Serve them attractively around a rice ring, its center filled with mixed vegetables. The salad might be a molded apple and cranberry combination with gingerbread and whipped cream as the dessert.

SPICY PORK PATTIES

1½ pounds ground pork
½ pound ground veal
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1½ teaspoons oregano
1 teaspoon sage
⅛ teaspoon cayenne pepper, if desired
2 tablespoons water

Combine pork, veal, salt, pepper, brown sugar, parsley, oregano, sage and cayenne pepper. Shape into 8 patties. Place patties in frying-pan. Add water, cover tightly and cook slowly 10 minutes. Remove cover and cook patties slowly until browned on both sides, about 20 minutes. 8 servings.

Flavor For Chicken

Baked Barley Accompanies A Meat Dish

Fresh Fruit Holiday Cookies

BAKED BARLEY AND MUSHROOMS

¼ cup butter or margarine
1 small onion, finely chopped
1 cup pearled medium-size barley
1 can (6 ounces) sliced mushrooms
1¾ cups fat-free veal broth

In a 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add onion and cook until wilted. Add barley and cook and stir until it begins to turn golden. Remove from heat and stir in mushrooms, ¼ cup of the mushroom liquid and ¾ cup of the veal broth; turn into a 1-quart round ovenglass casserole (6½ by 2½ inches). Bake, tightly covered, in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes. Pour remaining 1 cup broth over the barley. Continue baking, tightly covered, for 30 minutes — barley should be cooked through but chewy. Makes 6 servings.

Statistics Say Women Slimmer, Men Are Heavier

NEW YORK (WMNS) — Despite the canard that women are becoming more masculine and men more feminine, statistics show that women are becoming slimmer (daintier) while men are becoming heavier (more stalwart?) as times goes on. This is the news from statiticians at a life insurance company who report that according to studies of insured men and women over a 22-year-period men are getting heavier—by about eight pounds under age 45 and by about five pounds between 45 and 64.

The fair sex, on the other hand, is growing slimmer by about five pounds between ages 35 and 54, and by as much as 10 pounds at 55 to 64 years. The shorter men and women are, the fewer pounds they add; the taller they are the more the additional poundage.

You can't beat the juice in this decanter.

Carnaby Street Drops Hemlines

LONDON, (AP) — Carnaby Street — home of the thigh-high miniskirt — dropped hemlines eight inches below the knee today.

"I'm experimenting," said Irvine Sellars, 27. "A surprise move, you might say."

Sellars is one of the more successful clothes designers of Carnaby Street, the fashion arbiter for London dollies and their long-haired boy friends.

"In dropping the hemline, I'm being both practical and sexy too," he said.

"Practical because in our chilly, wet English weather, the wintry blasts hit hardest where the skirts are shortest, so to speak."

'Shock Collection' Shown By Roger Vivier

By LUCIE NOEL
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS (AP) — Roger Vivier, shoe designer to royalty and the best of the haute couture, produced a collection yesterday in which imagination runs riot. The expanse of bare legs under brief skirts proved a new incentive.

He dresses ankles with several gold bangles or with a deep fringe of ostrich feathers. Legs are decked with gold or silver masks, featuring the lion, the ram, the parrot and the owl, the sun, idols and a golden heart.

Vivier's "Shock Collection for '67" features besides these fun ideas "shoes that balance the silhouette," all essentially practical and young.

He emphasizes soles, like a wedge and almost an inch thick. Heels stand no nonsense, are strong and squared. The shock wedge soles add an extra inch to the wearer and lend lightness to her step.

For mornings, ankle-high booties and walking styles have stacked heels but are in light leathers, ostrich and spotted lizard. In the sandal department, darkest Africa steps in with masks, fetishes, witch doctors' regalia and wooden beads as trimming.

For the conservative, there is a wide range of plain opera pumps and shoes for general wear. There are pearly boxcalf, patent leather and Hong Kong braided straw.

Buckles, laquered in ivory or white or silver, cover the vamp and are beautifully detailed with metal or rhinestone trim depending on hour and occasion. For evening Vivier shows nacre leathers, silver serpent, and jungle or African printed crepes. Trimming goes wild here with masks, anklets and feathers and fringe.

Esterel delighted his audience by showing skinny narrow afghan or rajah pants with couturier styled dresses. The costume did double duty. First worn as a hostess outfit, the pants were discarded and the dress was paraded for town wear with small brimmed millinery, gloves and handbag.

Esterel introduces his collection with two "rhythms" — the first for street and city wear, the second "a little mad," he says, for sports.

THE CITY line follows a soft flowing flared silhouette. A bright red coat dress has cornet pockets and a pointed cowl collar in the front. A navy sheath and jacket are lined in lemon yellow and are softly tailored. Cinnamon, almond green, chef's mustard and navy blue are worked out with color contrasts or just plain.

ESTEREL concentrates on sailing, automobile racing, cycling, beach wear and riding with different styles for each sport. Bermudas for cycling are laced up the sides, or skin tight and very brief. In beachwear he "dresses" bikinis with contrasting trousered legs, leaving the frilly-or-plain or bicolor G-string triangles outside, achieving a bizarre effect. His cycling costume is best of all, in scarlet with the pants banded at the ankles, and a peaked cap of the same wool worn back to front. A matching red battle jacket reveals a skinny ribbed white sweater.

LOUIS FERAUD concentrates on the young teen-ager and unless you're built that way, his clothes are not for you. But they spell charm. He favors stripes all the way, from top to toe, and his socks repeat the stripes in the dress or suit.

WHY A RAIN DANCE?

Well, it's traditional—at least for the past two years, so the Parents Club of Miller Creek School will follow through this year with festivities on Feb. 4, beginning at 9 p.m. at the Marin Country Club. Trying out the fancy umbrellas for the occasion are, from left, Raymond Riley, principal, Mrs. Dale Brubaker, who with her husband, at right, are co-presidents; and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hoskins .Mrs. George Gazules and Mrs. Stuart Spence are ticket chairmen for the parents club's only fund-raising event.

Marinites Named To Aid Committee

Mrs. William W. Schwarzer of Mill Valley has been appointed Marin County sub-chairman of the special events committee of the World Affairs Council of Northern California.

Other Marin members of the committee are Mesdames Edgar Burns Chisewell of San Rafael; Bert D. Deckert of Mill Valley; Ralph Dewey of Belvedere; Franklin Hawley of San Rafael; Allan N. Littman of Tiburon and Thomas A. Skornia of Ross.

Yummy Camp Fire Mint Treats

An activity which is the only fund raising project of the Camp Fire Girls of Marin will get under way next Wednesday with the sale of chocolate covered mints.

Adrian Van Herlwynen, chairman of the Marin Section of the Golden Gate Council, has named Mrs. Harold Fulkerson general chairman of the event.

With a slogan of "One box for the table and one for the freezer" Camp Fire Girls provide recipes for your pleasure.

To make 43,200,000 traditional Camp Fire Mints mix 114,806 eggs, 398,675 pounds of sugar, 629 pints of pure oil of peppermint. Dip heavily in 249,538 pounds of rich chocolate. That's all there is to making those delicious mints — but the following are more practical — and still out-of-this world.

CHOCOLATE SUPREME

1 baked pie shell
1 package chocolate pudding mix
1 package vanilla pudding mix
12 light chocolate Camp Fire Mints

Cook pudding as directed on package. Let cool a few minutes then add the Camp Fire mints and pour into pie shell. Or line the pie shell with the mints, then pour pudding mixture over them. When pie has cooled top it with whipped cream.

PASTRY SURPRISES

COOKIES WORTH A MINT

Freeze one box of Camp Fire Mints. This recipe makes 36 cookies.

Cream —
1 cup shortening (half butter is good)
1 cup light brown sugar (packed)
½ cup white sugar
Add —
2 eggs, unbeaten
2 tablespoons water
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream well.
Sift together —
3 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt

Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture and mix well. Add 1 cup finely chopped walnuts. Cover and refrigerate 2 hours. Enclose a frozen Camp Fire Mint in enough chilled dough to cover mint completely. Place on greased cookie sheet about 2 inches apart. Bake at 425 degrees for 7 or 8 minutes. After the first five minutes watch the cookies because at this high heat they will cook fast. If baked at a lower heat the mints will melt and run.

MINT PARFAIT

Into one recipe for vanilla or chocolate pudding stir ½ dozen chocolate Camp Fire mints cut in quarters. After the mixture has cooled in the pan for 10 minutes, place in parfait glasses. When ready to serve top with whipped cream or topping and ¼ mint. The same filling may be used for a pie and decorated with whipped cream and pieces of mint.

MINT TAPIOCA

1 egg, slightly beaten
⅓ cup of sugar
3 tablespoons Minute Tapioca
⅛ teaspoon salt
2¾ cups milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix slightly beaten egg, sugar, salt, minute tapioca and milk in saucepan. Let stand about 5 minutes. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture comes to a full boil and is slightly thickened. Remove from heat and stir in vanilla. Let cool slightly then fold in 8 to 10 quartered mints. Spoon into serving dishes. Serve warm or chilled.

FROZEN MINT SQUARES

In top of double boiler (do not let water boil) melt:
12 Camp Fire Mints
12 Marshmallows cut in quarters
Stir in ½ cup of milk
Dash of salt

Set this mixture aside to cool. Whip one cup of cream until stiff. Fold in cooled chocolate mixture, add 1½ cups vanilla wafer crumbs and mix well. Line refrigerator tray with wax paper, pour in mixture, sprinkle top with finely chopped nuts and freeze until firm. When ready to serve cut into squares with a warm knife. Serve plain or garnish with whipped cream.

WHIZ MINT CHOCO-NUT CRINKLES

1 package commercial cake mix
¼ cup soft shortening
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
1 six oz. package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
½ cup chopped nuts
4 Camp Fire Mints, cut into small pieces

Blend together cake mix, shortening, egg and water — dough will be fairly stiff and you may want to use your hands to mix. Add semi-sweet chocolate pieces, nuts and pieces of Camp Fire Mints. Chill dough thoroughly. Drop on ungreased baking sheet in size of teaspoon. Place two inches apart. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 minutes until just browned. Place on wire rack to cool. Makes three to four dozen cookies.

QUICK ICING

Bake one layer commercial cake mix. Remove from oven and while still warm put one box of Camp Fire Mints on top. Broil two minutes watching carefully.

MINT CUPCAKES WOHELO

⅔ cup shortening
1¾ cup sugar
2⅔ cup flour
3½ teaspoons baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
1⅓ cups skim milk
2 teaspoons vanilla
4 egg whites (½) cup), stiffly beaten
6 Camp Fire Mints, cut fine

Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Sift together dry ingredients and stir in alternately with milk and vanilla. Fold in egg whites and mint pieces. Fill cupcake papers ⅔ full and bake 15 or 20 minutes at 350. (Note — Package cake may be substituted.)

Special sale booths will be in operation at various locations throughout the county. If your freezer needs a mint refill please call the Camp Fire Office.

Spicy Vegetable

Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake-Topped With Cherry Crown

Here's a showpiece dessert to make for February parties, one that's crowned with cherries to fit the February holidays. Happily, Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake is not as calorie-filled as it looks. It's made with cottage cheese, high in protein and food value but low in calories.

IT'S ALSO A no-bake cheesecake, not cooked but chilled for several hours in the refrigerator, so it's an ideal make ahead dessert. Eggs and unflavored gelatin make it fluffy-light and help set the mold. The delicate flavor is a combination of pineapple and lemon. Not too sweet, not too tart, these fresh fruit flavors are complemented by the dreaminess of cottage cheese and whipping cream.

This firm, yet airy cheesecake filling is surrounded by a buttery crumb crust and set in a springform pan for easy unmolding. Since it can be made ahead and refrigerated for a day or more, it's an excellent recipe to serve at a ladies' luncheon or any occasion when you don't have time for last minute fixing.

GLORIFY YOUR Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake with a topping of ruby-red cherries for February entertaining. They're the easiest part of the whole dessert. Simply heat canned cherry pie filling, adding a little almond extract and a tablespoon of butter. Spoon on a generous amount of cherry topping just before you slice and serve the cheesecake.

PINEAPPLE CHIFFON CHEESECAKE

CRUST:
1½ cups graham cracker crumbs
¼ cup sugar
½ cup (1 stick) butter, melted

CHEESECAKE:
2 tablespoons (2 envelopes) unflavored gelatin
½ cup cold water
¾ cup sugar
2 teaspoons cornstarch
½ cup milk
2 egg yolks, beaten
2 cups cottage cheese, sieved
1 can (8¾ oz.) crushed pineapple in heavy syrup
1 tablespoon lemon rind
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream

TOPPING:
2 cups (1-lb. 5-oz. can) cherry pie filling
1 tablespoon butter
½ teaspoon almond extract.

To prepare crust: In a bowl combine crumbs and sugar; stir in butter. Press mixture firmly and evenly against the bottom and side of a 9-inch springform pan. Chill. To prepare Cheesecake: Soften gelatin in water. In a 1-quart saucepan mix sugar and cornstarch. Gradually add milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add small amount of hot mixture to egg yolks; return all to saucepan. Cook 1 additional minute. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Pour into bowl; cool to lukewarm. Add cottage cheese, pineaple with syrup, lemon rind and juice to gelatin mixture. In a small mixing bowl beat egg whites until foamy, continue beating; gradually add sugar and beat until stiff peaks form. Fold beaten egg whites into cheese mixture. Whip cream until stiff; fold into mixture. Pour into crust; chill until set. To prepare Topping: In a 1-quart saucepan cook cherry pie filling over medium heat, stirring occasionally, for about 5 minutes. Stir in butter to melt. Add almond extract. Chill sauce; spoon over cheesecake. Chill several hours before serving. Makes 10-12 servings.

Make Meat Pies

Individual meat pies from leftover stews topped with leftover mashed potatoes, biscuit or pastry topping are convenient to have to bake directly from the freezer.

Saucy Steak Is A Snap To Prepare

Condensed onion sauce gives the gravy for beef round steak after the meat's been braised in it. That makes this saucy as well as snappy!

One whole round steak, or portions of the round, may be used, says meat expert, Reba Staggs. If the market sells the round as bottom or top round steaks, one steak of each kind will give approximately the same amount, as will two of either.

Soup will contain most of the seasonings, accented only with a bit of celery seed and chili sauce.

SAUCY STEAK

1 Beef round steak, cut ½-inch thick
¼ cup flour
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed onion soup.
½ cup water
½ teaspoon celery seed
2 tablespoons chili sauce

Mix together flour, salt and pepper. Pound steak with seasoned flour to ¼-inch thickness. Cut into serving pieces. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add onion soup, water, celery seed and chili sauce. Cover tightly and simmer 1½ hours or until meat is tender. 5 to 6 servings.

Sprightly Sauce Accents Hearty Beef Short Ribs

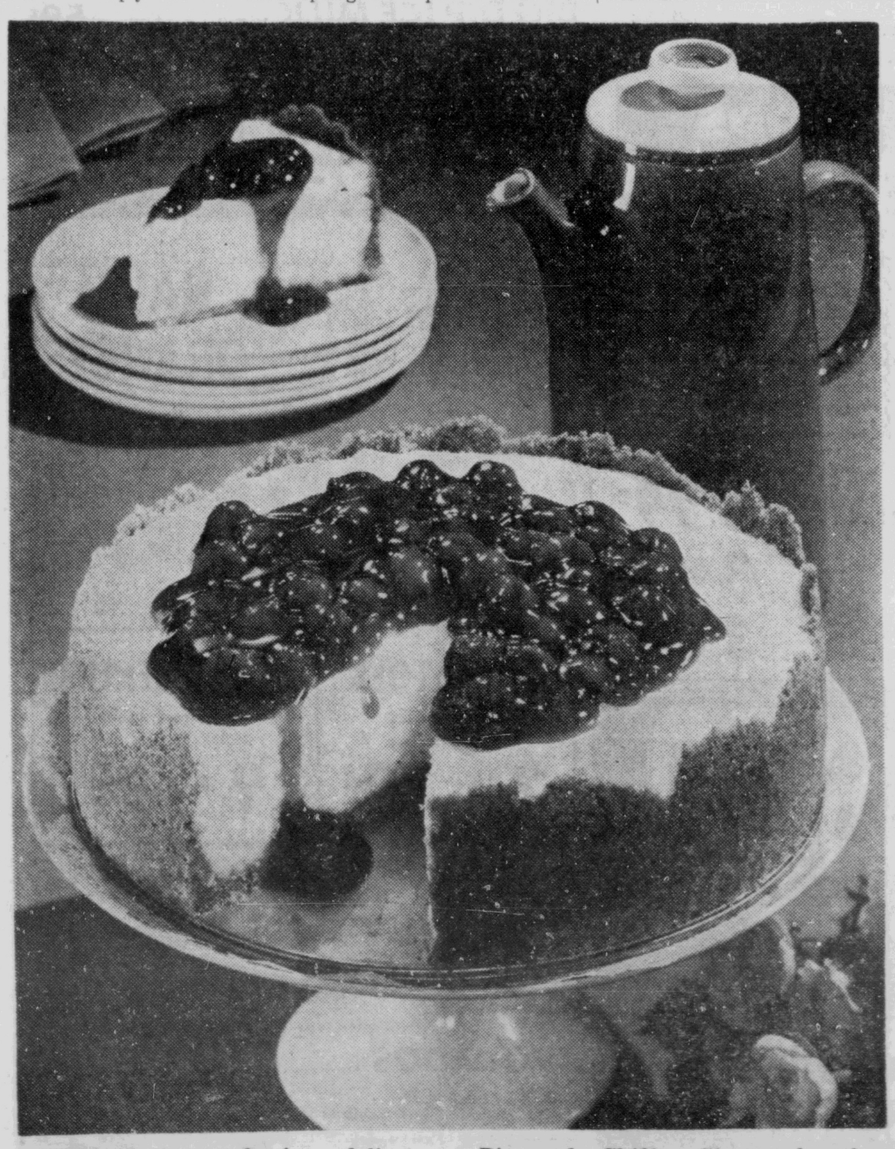
Hearty is a word that describes beef short ribs but it's not the only one. Flavorful is another. Delectable can also be used when these ribs are prepared with a tangy raisin sauce.

Square to rectangular in shape, composed of alternating layers of lean and fat, short ribs are browned in their own fat. After cooking tightly covered for an hour and a half, the drippings are poured off. The sauce ingredients, brought to a boil, are used as the braising liquid.

BEEF SHORT RIBS — RAISIN SAUCE

4 pounds beef short ribs
2 teaspoons salt ... ⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 onion, quartered
½ cup brown sugar
1 tsp. mustard
1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 bay leaf
1½ cups water
½ cup raisins

Brown short ribs in own fat, cover tightly and cook slowly 1½ hours. Pour off drippings. Season ribs with salt and pepper. Add quartered onion. Combine remaining ingredients and bring to a boil. Pour over short ribs. Cover tightly and cook slowly about 2 hours or until meat is tender. Thicken sauce, if desired. 6 servings.



CHILL A cheesecake in a delicate crumb crust for a heavenly light dessert. Guests will rave over this Pineapple Chiffon Cheesecake, the no-bake kind that's made with cottage cheese so it's calorie-low.

Special Touches To Recipe Make For Really Good Soup

In many sections of the country and around the world a meal rarely starts without a cup or a bowl of soup. The Japanese enjoy it even at breakfast. So it can be a welcome appetizer or a main-dish supper when served with a salad and fresh hot bread.

Whether you're an expert or novice you can create a really good soup. The experienced cook often experiments and adds her own special touches to a recipe. All a beginner need do is follow directions precisely. To the French, soupe is feminine and potage is masculine but call it what you will, here are two flavorful soups that belie their simplicity and ease of preparation.

BAKED BEAN SOUP

½ cup onions, chopped fine
1 medium carrot, sliced thin
1 stalk celery, chopped fine
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
2½ cups canned pork and beans
4 cups water
2 frankfurters
1 teaspoon worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
Paprika

Saute onions, carrots and celery in butter till lightly browned. Combine with beans, water and 1 frankfurter that has been cut in half lengthwise Simmer 20 minutes, then discard frankfurter which will be flavorless. Add the other frankfurter, sliced thin, the worcestershire sauce and salt and pepper. Simmer about 5 minutes to heat thoroughly and serve very hot. Top with croutons and sprinkle with paprika. Serves 4 to 6.

DELUXE BEAN SOUP

2 cups precooked quick beans
3 cups water
1 cup tomato juice
1 onion, diced
1 clove garlic, minced
3 stalks celery, sliced
1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
1 ham hock or 1 cup cubed smoked ham
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
Salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients, except salt and pepper in cooking pot. Simmer 30 minutes or longer, if desired. Season with salt and freshly ground pepper just before serving. Serves 6 to 8.

Tasty Salmon Casserols—

To add variety to mid-winter meals, try this appetizing salmon loaf casserole, topped with a lemon and mushroom sauce. Not only is it simple to prepare but this recipe is also easy on the household food budget.

Practically a meal in itself, all you need to serve with this tasty, nutritious casserole is crunchy French bread and a crisp green salad.

SALMON LOAF

2 1-pound cans salmon
2 cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
⅓ cup chopped parsley
2 eggs, slightly beaten
cup evaporated milk
⅓ cup bottled lemon juice
¼ cup melted butter
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worchestershire sauce

Two Pounds Of Ground Meat Serves Eight

Thrifty homemakers will count heavily on supplies of ground meat when they work at balancing their budgets. For variety's sake, they select from beef as well as lamb, pork and veal.

Patties are a favorite entree because they cook quickly. A combination of pork and veal with their seasonings can add interest to menus. The patties will take approximately 20 minutes of cooking time.

Spicy flavor comes from oregano and sage and cayenne pepper if it's used. A small amount of brown sugare enhances the flavor of these mildly flavored meats.

Serve them attractively around a rice ring, its center filled with mixed vegetables. The salad might be a molded apple and cranberry combination with gingerbread and whipped cream as the dessert.

SPICY PORK PATTIES

1½ pounds ground pork
½ pound ground veal
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1½ teaspoons oregano
1 teaspoon sage
⅛ teaspoon cayenne pepper, if desired
2 tablespoons water

Combine pork, veal, salt, pepper, brown sugar, parsley, oregano, sage and cayenne pepper. Shape into 8 patties. Place patties in frying-pan. Add water, cover tightly and cook slowly 10 minutes. Remove cover and cook patties slowly until browned on both sides, about 20 minutes. 8 servings.

Flavor For Chicken

Baked Barley Accompanies A Meat Dish

Fresh Fruit Holiday Cookies

BAKED BARLEY AND MUSHROOMS

¼ cup butter or margarine
1 small onion, finely chopped
1 cup pearled medium-size barley
1 can (6 ounces) sliced mushrooms
1¾ cups fat-free veal broth

In a 10-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter; add onion and cook until wilted. Add barley and cook and stir until it begins to turn golden. Remove from heat and stir in mushrooms, ¼ cup of the mushroom liquid and ¾ cup of the veal broth; turn into a 1-quart round ovenglass casserole (6½ by 2½ inches). Bake, tightly covered, in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes. Pour remaining 1 cup broth over the barley. Continue baking, tightly covered, for 30 minutes — barley should be cooked through but chewy. Makes 6 servings.

Statistics Say Women Slimmer, Men Are Heavier

NEW YORK (WMNS) — Despite the canard that women are becoming more masculine and men more feminine, statistics show that women are becoming slimmer (daintier) while men are becoming heavier (more stalwart?) as times goes on. This is the news from statiticians at a life insurance company who report that according to studies of insured men and women over a 22-year-period men are getting heavier—by about eight pounds under age 45 and by about five pounds between 45 and 64.

The fair sex, on the other hand, is growing slimmer by about five pounds between ages 35 and 54, and by as much as 10 pounds at 55 to 64 years. The shorter men and women are, the fewer pounds they add; the taller they are the more the additional poundage.

You can't beat the juice in this decanter.

Here's a new half-gallon bottle for the West's leading apple juice. But no matter what size you buy, every ounce is pure and delicious. Is there anything better for the whole family?

MRS. OSCAR OLSEN

Volunteer For Red Cross Named Woman Of Year

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin presented Mrs. Oscar (Esther) Olsen of San Rafael its "Woman of the Year" award at a dinner meeting last night at Lin Fa Restaurant in Terra Linda.

Chairman for the evening was Mrs. J. E. Mazzini, who also presented the award for service.

Mrs. Olsen was given the award for her service to the Marin County Chapter of the Red Cross and other volunteer work in the county. She has been a teacher, has worked for the YWCA, and was a volunteer for 10 years with the Red Cross in New Jersey before moving to Marin in 1963. Mrs. Olsen received her 15 year Red Cross service pin at the last Marin County Chapter meeting.

She was selected as the "Volunteer Woman of the Year" in 1964 at the Red Cross meeting and was named to the board of directors of the Marin County Chapter in September 1964. She also serves as a member at large of the executive committee.

Mrs. Olsen also serves as treasurer of the United Presbyterian Women in the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael and is executive editor of the Kirk Journal, their monthly newspaper.

Class Saturday

Dr. Richard Hahn Wins Award For Mexican Health Program

The 14th District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, has awarded an honorary life membership to Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere.

Dr. Hahn was chosen by the district committee for his work in the Alliance for Health, which began in 1963 as a personal effort by the doctor and his family to cut down the high incidence of tuberculosis in an area in Michoacan state in Mexico.

In 1964, Dr. Hahn; his wife, Gloria; son, Richard, and daughters Kim, Melanie and Genevieve, outfitted a small bus with tuberculin testing supplies and movie equipment and spent their vacation in Zacapu, Mexico, doing tuberculin testing. The response was so great that they ran out of supplies, and tests showed high incidence of tuberculosis among both adults and children.

The following year, several other doctors assisted and the program was broadened. Last summer the project was expanded, with two teams of about 20 trained persons. They gave 15,000 children tuberculin skin tests, about 14,000 BCG immunization against TB, and more than 3,000 chest x-rays. Two physicians remained in Zacapu to help set up a clinical laboratory, train local technicians, establish a well baby clinic, and start a mass immunization program against childhood diseases.

The clinic has expanded from three to 15 beds, half of a 10-acres site for a future 50-bed hospital has been donated by a Mexican physician, and plans are being made for a continuing health care program for rural Mexicans.

The project has been carried on without funds from either government and without backing by any large foundation. Rather, the people of Marin and of Zacapu have made it possible — with much of the financial load borne by Dr. Hahn.

Carnaby Street Drops Hemlines

LONDON, (AP) — Carnaby Street — home of the thigh-high miniskirt — dropped hemlines eight inches below the knee today.

"I'm experimenting," said Irvine Sellars, 27. "A surprise move, you might say."

Sellars is one of the more successful clothes designers of Carnaby Street, the fashion arbiter for London dollies and their long-haired boy friends.

"In dropping the hemline, I'm being both practical and sexy too," he said.

"Practical because in our chilly, wet English weather, the wintry blasts hit hardest where the skirts are shortest, so to speak."

'Shock Collection' Shown By Roger Vivier

By LUCIE NOEL
AP Fashion Writer

PARIS (AP) — Roger Vivier, shoe designer to royalty and the best of the haute couture, produced a collection yesterday in which imagination runs riot. The expanse of bare legs under brief skirts proved a new incentive.

He dresses ankles with several gold bangles or with a deep fringe of ostrich feathers. Legs are decked with gold or silver masks, featuring the lion, the ram, the parrot and the owl, the sun, idols and a golden heart.

Vivier's "Shock Collection for '67" features besides these fun ideas "shoes that balance the silhouette," all essentially practical and young.

He emphasizes soles, like a wedge and almost an inch thick. Heels stand no nonsense, are strong and squared. The shock wedge soles add an extra inch to the wearer and lend lightness to her step.

For mornings, ankle-high booties and walking styles have stacked heels but are in light leathers, ostrich and spotted lizard. In the sandal department, darkest Africa steps in with masks, fetishes, witch doctors' regalia and wooden beads as trimming.

For the conservative, there is a wide range of plain opera pumps and shoes for general wear. There are pearly boxcalf, patent leather and Hong Kong braided straw.

Buckles, laquered in ivory or white or silver, cover the vamp and are beautifully detailed with metal or rhinestone trim depending on hour and occasion. For evening Vivier shows nacre leathers, silver serpent, and jungle or African printed crepes. Trimming goes wild here with masks, anklets and feathers and fringe.

Esterel delighted his audience by showing skinny narrow afghan or rajah pants with couturier styled dresses. The costume did double duty. First worn as a hostess outfit, the pants were discarded and the dress was paraded for town wear with small brimmed millinery, gloves and handbag.

Esterel introduces his collection with two "rhythms" — the first for street and city wear, the second "a little mad," he says, for sports.

THE CITY line follows a soft flowing flared silhouette. A bright red coat dress has cornet pockets and a pointed cowl collar in the front. A navy sheath and jacket are lined in lemon yellow and are softly tailored. Cinnamon, almond green, chef's mustard and navy blue are worked out with color contrasts or just plain.

ESTEREL concentrates on sailing, automobile racing, cycling, beach wear and riding with different styles for each sport. Bermudas for cycling are laced up the sides, or skin tight and very brief. In beachwear he "dresses" bikinis with contrasting trousered legs, leaving the frilly-or-plain or bicolor G-string triangles outside, achieving a bizarre effect. His cycling costume is best of all, in scarlet with the pants banded at the ankles, and a peaked cap of the same wool worn back to front. A matching red battle jacket reveals a skinny ribbed white sweater.

LOUIS FERAUD concentrates on the young teen-ager and unless you're built that way, his clothes are not for you. But they spell charm. He favors stripes all the way, from top to toe, and his socks repeat the stripes in the dress or suit.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Perhaps The Good Wife Always Has A Touch Of The Chameleon

DEAR HELEN:

I was married once before and now am on my second husband. The first marriage lasted five years and two kids. I loved this man dearly and never went against him. To sum it up, his wish was my command. No matter what he said and did, I acquiesced. He ended up leaving me for another woman.

Now with Husband No. 2, whom I've had two years and think the world of, I play a happier game. He treats me like a queen. I don't do everything he says. When he mentions he'd like to go out alone, I say, "Good, then I'll make plans to be away too." That stops him cold.

I discovered that if you give a man everything, he isn't satisfied, but if you stand up for your rights, he thinks you're a typical, human lovable woman, and he stays close because you keep him interested — and perhaps because he isn't all that sure of you. Am I right? — WISER

DEAR WISER:

Right: Provided your first husband is a spoiled weakling and your second a basic nice guy. Has it occurred to you that you were — and are — with both, just what they expect a woman to be? And you finally got lucky! In other words, a good wife almost always has a bit of chameleon in her, yes? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I read the perfect answer to the woman whose husband never takes her any place. Said this wife, "I have a wonderful recipe for goulash. Never fails. I make it, and we go out to dinner." — READER

DEAR READER:

Yes, but — will it get him on a dance floor? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Our 13-year-old daughter says you don't agree with me about not letting her date and hang around with boys. Her biggest interest is hanging around at the drugstore where the boys are. I say dates can wait till she's near 15. She says you'll be on her side. — WHICH?

DEAR WHICH:

If you don't know I'm on your side, you haven't been reading very carefully! Age-13 is a time to have friends who are boys (but not down at the drugstore) and most definitely not boyfriends! Dates should wait until around age 15; and then, no steadying, please! — H.

DEAR MRS. BOTTEL:

One of your correspondents, in referring to a "shyster real estate man," later called him a "realtor." I believe she used the latter word improperly, as realtors are "real estate agents who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards." As such they are sworn to a code of ethics which would not permit the kind of conduct this letter reports. Not all real estate salesmen are Realtors!

If the man is, in fact, a "realtor" he should be reported immediately to the NAREB for disciplinary action. —Vernon W. Beardsley, Public Relations Director, California Real Estate Assn.

New Golf Captain Is An Avid Skier

As an avid skier, mother of two sons and director of the Clarke Home Nursing Service, Mrs. Richard T. Clarke of Mill Valley keeps herself busy indeed, but this year she will also lead the women golfers at Peacock Gap Golf Club.

The new captain of the women's golf section of the club, Mrs. Clarke will play a leading part in the section's invitational tournament in August and the club tournament in the spring.

June Clarke is also a member of the Outdoor Art Club, the Mill Valley Tennis Club and Sugar Bowl Ski Club, and has received bronze and silver eagles in the downhill Eagle races at Sugar Bowl. She has been chairman of the Well Baby Clinic for the Outdoor Art Club for six years, and is past women's chairman of the tennis club.

A registered nurse who attended University of Redlands and received her nursing degree from Mercy College of Nursing in San Diego, Mrs. Clarke followed up "something I have always wanted to do" when she set up the Clarke Home Nursing Service in 1961 — providing nursing by registered nurses only to do visiting nursing under doctors' orders. It is the only visiting nurse group in the county.

Serving with her on the Women's Section of Peacock Golf Club will be Mesdames George Tripps, co-captain; Roland Hellman, treasurer; John Cushman, corresponding secretary; Don Faber, recording secretary; Murry Powers, publicity; Alvin Cole and Earl O'Grady, tournament chairmen; Joseph Messina and Joe Bregante, handicap chairmen; Nathan Pinkus, hospitality; William Cardinal, parliamentarian; Victor Verdellet, trophies; James Bitner and George Fraser, decorations chairmen; Jordan Dell 'Era, North Bay Assn. representative; and Richard DeKay, Pacific Women's Assn. representative.

Midwest Storm Leaves Six Dead

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Savage twisters and windstorms snuffed off the soft breezes of spring-like weather in the Midwest late yesterday, killing at least six presons, injuring hundreds and wrecking communities in three states.

St. Louis, Mo., was apparently the hardest hit by the rare midwinter twisters. St. Louis county supervisor Lawrence Roos said two persons were killed, at least 209 injured and an estimated 200 homes destroyed when a twister cut an eight-mile swath through the county.

The St. Louis storm victims were identified as Diane Schlegel, 8, Glenwood, and Jeri Cannaday, 6, Creve Coeur.

Walter Sarff, 50, who was bed-ridden, was killed southwest of Bath, Ill., when a tornado demolished the house.

A tornado that roared "out of nowhere" smashed the small northwest Missouri farm community of Orrick, killing Gene Barber, 18.

Three-year-old Byron Swyter of Fort Madison, was killed by one of several tornadoes that ripped eastern and southeastern Iowa.

High winds brought death to an off-duty policeman, Roger Johnson, who was killed when wind knocked over the wall of a building under construction on the south side of Chicago.

Supervisors May Retract College Gift

Marin County supervisors may not authorize $2,000 in county funds for Sonoma State College dedication ceremonies this May. Supervisors budgeted $2,900 for special events in the economic development budget and in September informally agreed to put up $2,000 toward the Sonoma College affair. But the board's attitude has changed since then. Also Supervisors John F. McInnis has joined the board.

"I can't see allocating this money," McInnis said yesterday, pointing out that it was Marin money to be spent outside the county.

John M. Douglas, county director of economic development, said other demands on the special event funds are anticipated. He listed pending requests from the Marin Civic Ballet, Marin Museum Assn., and Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce, needing fireworks for its Fourth of July celebration.

Supervisors voted to table the Sonoma request for two weeks.

Junior Miss Contest

Pamela Bugge, Novato's "Junior Miss," left today for Garden Grove to take part in the California Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the junior chambers of commerce. Miss Bugge will compete with 20 other regional winners for the state junior miss title.

His resignation was the second in as many months from the hospital district board. Haddon W. Roth resigned last month to take a Marin Municipal Court judgeship.

Eighteen persons have applied to serve out Roth's two-year term and Board President Marion C. Ibach told them last night they will now be considered for both board slots.

Marin Hospital District Board Also:

1. Postponed election of board officers until board vacancies are filled.

2. Presented a plaque to Roth for his two years of service on the board.

3. Agreed to placement of a temporary archive building outside the south end of the Marin General Hospital Babcock Wing, where it will take six parking spaces, but asked that the staff first see if it could be placed on the building's roof.

4. Agreed to spend $4,500 to give 24 hours of training to the hospital's supervisory staff.

5. Voted to change Admission Day holiday to a holiday for each employee on the anniversary of his employment.

MRS. OSCAR OLSEN

Volunteer For Red Cross Named Woman Of Year

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin presented Mrs. Oscar (Esther) Olsen of San Rafael its "Woman of the Year" award at a dinner meeting last night at Lin Fa Restaurant in Terra Linda.

Chairman for the evening was Mrs. J. E. Mazzini, who also presented the award for service.

Mrs. Olsen was given the award for her service to the Marin County Chapter of the Red Cross and other volunteer work in the county. She has been a teacher, has worked for the YWCA, and was a volunteer for 10 years with the Red Cross in New Jersey before moving to Marin in 1963. Mrs. Olsen received her 15 year Red Cross service pin at the last Marin County Chapter meeting.

She was selected as the "Volunteer Woman of the Year" in 1964 at the Red Cross meeting and was named to the board of directors of the Marin County Chapter in September 1964. She also serves as a member at large of the executive committee.

Mrs. Olsen also serves as treasurer of the United Presbyterian Women in the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael and is executive editor of the Kirk Journal, their monthly newspaper.

Class Saturday

Dr. Richard Hahn Wins Award For Mexican Health Program

The 14th District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, has awarded an honorary life membership to Dr. Richard S. Hahn of Belvedere.

Dr. Hahn was chosen by the district committee for his work in the Alliance for Health, which began in 1963 as a personal effort by the doctor and his family to cut down the high incidence of tuberculosis in an area in Michoacan state in Mexico.

In 1964, Dr. Hahn; his wife, Gloria; son, Richard, and daughters Kim, Melanie and Genevieve, outfitted a small bus with tuberculin testing supplies and movie equipment and spent their vacation in Zacapu, Mexico, doing tuberculin testing. The response was so great that they ran out of supplies, and tests showed high incidence of tuberculosis among both adults and children.

The following year, several other doctors assisted and the program was broadened. Last summer the project was expanded, with two teams of about 20 trained persons. They gave 15,000 children tuberculin skin tests, about 14,000 BCG immunization against TB, and more than 3,000 chest x-rays. Two physicians remained in Zacapu to help set up a clinical laboratory, train local technicians, establish a well baby clinic, and start a mass immunization program against childhood diseases.

The clinic has expanded from three to 15 beds, half of a 10-acres site for a future 50-bed hospital has been donated by a Mexican physician, and plans are being made for a continuing health care program for rural Mexicans.

The project has been carried on without funds from either government and without backing by any large foundation. Rather, the people of Marin and of Zacapu have made it possible — with much of the financial load borne by Dr. Hahn.

Doctor Contradicts Eye Strain Theories

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The best thing for your eyes is to use them, not save them, an expert says.

And, contrary to some belief, reading in poor light doesn't harm the eyes.

Dr. Albert E. Sloan, who said this yesterday, is an eye surgeon at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary and chairman of the School Vision Problems Committee of the National Association for the Prevention of Blindness.

Sloan told a news conference that the belief still exists that reading in bed makes eyes weak.

The truth is that use improves the ability of the eye to use its potential fullest, he said.

The U.S. government plans to spend $172.4 billion in fiscal 1968. During 1789, the same government took in $5,717 and spent $5,776, according to the U.S. Treasury Department.

Reagan Redwood Reprieve Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Gov. Ronald Reagan was urged today to withdraw his request for postponement of congressional action on a proposed redwood national park in Northern California.

The request was made by David Brower, executive director of the San Francisco-based Sierra Club, during a news conference here.

Brower also called attention to full - page advertisements which the conservationist organization sponsored today in three newspapers (New York Times, Washington Post and San Francisco Chronicle) to urge creation of a 90,000-acre park.

On The Farm, Giggle Gas May Be Replacing LSD

PALO ALTO (AP)—Laughing gas is the newest thing for students seeking kicks, the Stanford Daily reports.

"It's the latest way to travel, or so say a growing group of devotees on the campus," the university student paper said yesterday. They sniff it.

"It can produce much the same effects as psychedelic drugs, they claim, and it's cheaper to obtain."

James Briscoe, the Daily staff man who wrote the article, said 20 or 30 men and women students were in the original group of sniffers. Briscoe said he had the impression other groups are forming.

One student told of buying the gas, nitrous oxide, wholesale from a medical supply house. "They think I am anesthetizing rats," he explained.

"When you inhale it you reach a high and then after a minute it goes away," a tall blonde sniffer reported. "But after several shots the high becomes sort of stabilized and lasts for awhile."

Campus medical authorities were somewhat skeptical about the reported similarity between nitrous oxide and psychedelic drugs.

"Like all anesthetics, it acts as a depressant," said Dr. Maurice Osborne, director of the Stanford health center. "One of the first areas of the brain to be numbed is the cortex, which provides the so-called civilizing influences for man.

"And, administered in sufficient amounts, the gas could produce all the states of anesthesia, including the final stage —death."

Car Breaks Window

Eric M. Mathias, owner of the Swiss Watchmaker shop in the Corte Madera shopping center, backed his car through the plate glass window of Luana's dress shop, next door to his shop, at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, police reported.

UCLA Student Magazine Hit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Allegedly obscene material printed in a UCLA student publication has led to its "indefinite" suspension by the University's Communications Board.

The suspension yesterday involves a drawing of George Grosz from his book "Ecce Homo" which depicts a man and a woman in an amorous pose. The drawing was published last Wednesday in "Intro."

The board, which voted unanimously in favor of the suspension is made up of nine students, one faculty member and one administrator.

Sen. McGee Thinks Teeners Should Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teenagers could lift the level of political debate in this country and should be permitted to vote, Sen. Gale McGee, D-Wyo., said today.

Addressing 100 high school delegates to the William Randolph Hearst Foundation's Senate Youth program, McGee urged students to talk politics.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Perhaps The Good Wife Always Has A Touch Of The Chameleon

DEAR HELEN:

I was married once before and now am on my second husband. The first marriage lasted five years and two kids. I loved this man dearly and never went against him. To sum it up, his wish was my command. No matter what he said and did, I acquiesced. He ended up leaving me for another woman.

Now with Husband No. 2, whom I've had two years and think the world of, I play a happier game. He treats me like a queen. I don't do everything he says. When he mentions he'd like to go out alone, I say, "Good, then I'll make plans to be away too." That stops him cold.

I discovered that if you give a man everything, he isn't satisfied, but if you stand up for your rights, he thinks you're a typical, human lovable woman, and he stays close because you keep him interested — and perhaps because he isn't all that sure of you. Am I right? — WISER

DEAR WISER:

Right: Provided your first husband is a spoiled weakling and your second a basic nice guy. Has it occurred to you that you were — and are — with both, just what they expect a woman to be? And you finally got lucky! In other words, a good wife almost always has a bit of chameleon in her, yes? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

I read the perfect answer to the woman whose husband never takes her any place. Said this wife, "I have a wonderful recipe for goulash. Never fails. I make it, and we go out to dinner." — READER

DEAR READER:

Yes, but — will it get him on a dance floor? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Our 13-year-old daughter says you don't agree with me about not letting her date and hang around with boys. Her biggest interest is hanging around at the drugstore where the boys are. I say dates can wait till she's near 15. She says you'll be on her side. — WHICH?

DEAR WHICH:

If you don't know I'm on your side, you haven't been reading very carefully! Age-13 is a time to have friends who are boys (but not down at the drugstore) and most definitely not boyfriends! Dates should wait until around age 15; and then, no steadying, please! — H.

DEAR MRS. BOTTEL:

One of your correspondents, in referring to a "shyster real estate man," later called him a "realtor." I believe she used the latter word improperly, as realtors are "real estate agents who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards." As such they are sworn to a code of ethics which would not permit the kind of conduct this letter reports. Not all real estate salesmen are Realtors!

If the man is, in fact, a "realtor" he should be reported immediately to the NAREB for disciplinary action. —Vernon W. Beardsley, Public Relations Director, California Real Estate Assn.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

THE SUPERINTENDENT SETS AN EXAMPLE

When Howard F. Brose, superintendent of West Marin School District, appeared before Judge David R. Baty in Northwest Marin Justice Court on a charge of driving on the wrong side of the street, he pleaded guilty and elected to serve a sentence to pick up roadside litter rather than pay an $18 fine. "I want to show my school children that anyone who violates the law must pay the price, even if he's the principal," said Brose. The "keeper" with the rope is Jack Mason, Point Reyes Station cafe owner deputized by Judge Baty to see that Brose did the job. (Independent-Journal photo)

MARIN ASKS ECONOMY IN STATE PUBLISHING

Marin County supervisors, swamped with publications sent out by agencies of the state government, agreed yesterday to see whether state publication costs might be cut.

They authorized a resolution to be sent Gov. Ronald Reagan and agreed during February to collect all publications sent them, have them crated and delivered to the Governor.

The protest was suggested by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

Planners Ease Restrictions On Courthouse Square Uses

The San Rafael Planning Commission last night adopted final zoning recommendations for Courthouse Square, making restrictions less stringent for "planned unit development" of the property as a whole.

Its recommedations must now go to the city council for approval.

The highly restrictive zone calls for a "front yard" of 30 per cent of the lot depth, maximum land coverage of 50 per cent, and maximum floor area of double the lot area. It also restricts use to retail commercial on the ground floor.

To those previously favored conditions, the commission last night added provisions for residential use including condominiums, above ground level.

To make matters less restrictive under "planned unit development," the ordinance permits "other uses consistent with the stated purposes of this zone."

The effect of that would be to allow the planning commission freedom to weigh the virtues of a plan as a whole, allowing such deviations, for example, as first floor offices if deemed appropriate.

In separate, but not entirely unrelated action, the commission rezoned from heavy manufacturing to commercial a large area on both sides of San Rafael Canal from San Rafael Yacht Harbor to Irwin Street and from Francisco Boulevard to Third Street.

Excepted from this change were properties fronting on Bay Street and now in industrial use.

Included was the city's corporation yard, which the city hopes to sell in order to purchase Courthouse Square from the county. The change in zoning has been aimed at making the nearly eight-acre yard more saleable.

The Bay Street frontage properties were left zoned for manufacturing after M. R. Lamperti, president of North Bay Electric Co., spoke on behalf of several firms there and said rezoning would work a hardship on them. Lamperti said these firms now pay up to a total of $36,000 in taxes a year and have a combined payroll of about $500,000 a year.

Tougher Brown Act Being Sought

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Bills to strengthen the open meeting law for local agencies and provide a comprehensive open meeting statute for state agencies were introduced in the Legislature today by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and Sen. Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando.

The first bill makes several changes in the Ralph M. Brown Act. It specifies that all matters not specifically recognized in the Brown Act as subjects which may be discussed in closed session must be considered at a public meeting, whether or not final action is either intended or taken.

The bill also provides that when a public agency meets to discuss charges or possible firing of an employee, the agency must give 24 hours written notice to the employee, pointing out that he has a right to a public hearing if he so desires.

It will also tighten up on the widespread practice of holding closed meetings because "possible litigation" is involved. The recommended amendment permits an executive session to consult with counsel only when the agency is already a party to litigation or any public discussion would benefit a particular adversary so that the public interest would suffer.

Meetings of committees and subcommittees of local agencies would be required to be open and public.

The second bill, in effect, enacts a "Brown Act" for state agencies, since the existing act does not apply to such agencies. It provides similar standards for requiring meetings to be open to the public.

Both Senator Carrell and Assemblyman Bagley were members of the Assembly Interim Committee on Government Organization last year. They acted at the request of former committee chairman, Judge Milton Marks, who was appointed to the San Francisco Municipal Court bench.

Marks' long standing interest in legislation ensuring public access to meetings of government agencies was climaxed by the near-enactment of similar measures during the 1965 session.

Two-Car Collision Injures Motorist

Treated at Marin General Hospital for chest bruises was Walter M. Lack, 19, of 35 Wolf Avenue, San Rafael. Jerry J. Black of 277 Union Street, San Rafael, was driving the other car, police said.

Montessori School Plan Is Approved

The way was cleared last night for demolition of the old Coleman School and its replacement by a non-profit private school.

The San Rafael Planning Commission granted a use permit to C. John Bernt, owner of the property at 1711 Grand Avenue, to permit establishment of a Montessori School.

Many neighboring residents attend the hearing but there was no objection to the school, a far different reaction than to past proposals for an office building or a nursery school on the site.

Plans call for destruction of the old, dilapidated and vandalized Coleman School and construction of a one-story 7,800-square-foot building of residential appearance to accommodate 150 pupils, aged 2.5 to 8 years, in four classrooms. Operating hours would be 9 a.m. to noon.

Board Gives Aide Time To Get Insurance Data

Marin County supervisors yesterday granted John L. Gibb, administrative analyst, a month to gather more information on proposals by two companies to extend insurance to county employees.

Gibb said he needed the time to study costs to the county under plans submitted by Travelers Insurance Co. and West Coast Life Insurance Co., and to seek the advise of county counsel.

The county switched from Travelers to West Coast in November, advised by a consultant that $13,000 would be saved in annual premiums.

However, County Administrator Alan Bruce told the board in December that his office had been misled. Travelers complained that the consultant, Harry C. Duncan, had failed to reflect the reciprocal payments Travelers had been making after claims in prior years. The saving, after figuring net costs, was minimal, Travelers said.

Under the group coverage, the county pays 80 per cent of the annual premiums, with the rest coming from an employee's pay.

Peace Officers Plan Installation Dinner

Marin County Peace Officers Assn. will install officers for 1967 at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Non-Commissioned Officers' Club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

New president is Ernest Zunino, deputy district attorney. Undersheriff Sidney Stinson is first vice president; Mel L. Morse, executive director of Marin County Humane Society, second vice president; Novato Police Chief Robert DiGrazia, secretary-treasurer and San Rafael Police Lt. Ray Bleasdale, sergeant-at-arms.

Bowling Gear Gone

Clearing Red Hill Slide Area Delayed

The San Anselmo City Council, warned last night that any clearing of the debris from the slide that destroyed four apartment buildings on Red Hill could cause more sliding, agreed to allow more study before the work is done.

John E. Corette III, a representative of the Severson, Werson, Berke and Larson legal firm in San Francisco, second mortgage holders on the apartments, asked for delay. Soil engineers hired by the firm asked for two weeks to study the slide area before any debris is cleared.

The council agreed to let the firm's engineers meet with city engineers and public works director Charles R. Leitzell to decide what can be done on the slide.

Leitzell had asked that a path be cleared at the toe of the slide, but Corette felt this could unbalance the whole slide. He said the debris is forming a dam holding back the mud.

Alfred Kaeppel, city controller, told the council that in addition to aid available if the state and federal governments declare Marin a disaster area—as Marin County supervisors did yesterday—further aid may be available from the U.S. Small Business Administration.

He said the San Francisco office of the agency has already applied to Washington, to declare Marin a disaster area, and if the request is granted the agency will be able to make long-term loans to property owners at 3 per cent interest.

The council agreed to close Luna Lane, just below the slide area, at request of Karl H. Baeck, owner of an apartment building at 20 Luna Lane.

Mill Valley architect Norman Gilroy today confirmed that he designed the master plan for Red Hill, including the apartments, and cleared the plan through the planning commission and council before selling it to Meadowbrook Developers of Novato.

"There were full and thorough soil tests taken on the whole area, and they indicated no possibility of a catastrophy of this kind," he said.

The council last night introduced an ordinance giving each councilman a salary of $150 a month, for which they had voted 3-2 at a previous meeting.

The council also approved a map showing San Anselmo's ultimate boundaries including Sleepy Hollow and following San Rafael's boundary along the ridge beyond Sorich Ranch.

The San Anselmo City Council Also:

1. Accepted donation of a $600 resuscitator to the fire department from the San Anselmo Firemen's Assn.
2. Awarded a contract for a street sweeper to Nixon-Eagle Equipment Co. at $12,976.
3. Asked that the San Anselmo Co-operative Nursery and petitioners complaining of parking violations at the nursery get together to work out differences.
4. Asked Stanley Seiderman to hire a tree surgeon to repair a tree on his property at 18 Park Drive and to be sure the tree will not endanger the creek.
5. Asked that possibilities for preventing garbage dumping in the creek and policing the creek be put on the next council agenda.
6. Learned that property owners at 151 and 153 Los Angeles Boulevard have agreed to install curbs and gutters in front of their property.
7. Approved duplex use of property at 1405 San Anselmo Avenue.
8. Agreed to consider a request by residents of Rosemont Avenue for a larger fire hydram in the next budget.
9. Denied claims of Eugene R. Hammond for $28.90 and William Theile for $63.12, both for damage to their cars from a hole in front of the Red Hill Shopping Center.
10. Accepted improvementst o parking lot A.
11. Declared a retaining wall in the creek at 114 Meadowcroft Drive a nuisance.
12. Agreed to allow up to 13 trees to be cut in widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.
13. Approved expenditure of $575 for surfacing and installing curb and gutter on part of Sonoma Avenue.
14. Banned parking at all times on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from Arbor Road to Sonoma Avenue in front of the Red Hill Shopping Center.
15. Passed on second reading an ordinance repealing the R-4, high density apartment zone.

Bagley Amends Inheritance Tax Overhaul

By WAT TAKESHITA

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman William T. Bagley today introduced 35 amendments to his bill (AB-2), designed to overhaul the inheritance tax appraisal system.

At a press conference this morning, he and Controller Houston I. Flournoy said the new system can save as much as $4 million to heirs of estates and eliminate political appointments by the state controller.

Flournoy said the 154 inheritance tax appraisers will be abolished, possibly by the end of the year.

The new controller said his "Flournoy Plan" is a combination of self-appraisal, administrative action, and appraisal by professional state appraisers.

SELF APPRAISAL

Cash and cash-like assets can be self-appraised. Assets that are more difficult to appraise will be assessed through contract with other public agencies or through staff appraisals.

"We expect," Flournoy concluded "that this plan would in no way decrease the quality of the administration of the system, and it is estimated that savings to the heirs of estates of $3.5 to $4 million annually will result due to elimination of the inheritance tax appraisers' fees."

Pending approval of the new system, the state controller said he will make selective replacements of inheritance tax appraisers in each county.

MUM ON APPOINTEES

Flournoy and Bagley declined to comment on specific replacements, such as Marin's two appraisers appointed by former Controller Alan Cranston.

"Replacements will be based on qualification," said Bagley. "But let's also be frank here. If one or more of the appraisers was obnoxiously partisan, the controller of course would have the prerogative of not having that person on the staff."

Pupils Learning Of Trade Marks

Sixth graders from Sun Valley School, San Rafael, visited Hiller Highlands in Oakland today for a lesson on the use of graphic art by communications media.

Sun Valley students were taught what a trade mark is, and will try to design a trade mark, or visual symbol for their own school.

The project is to expose the children to the creative aspects of graphics used in television, and explain how cartoons and commercials are made.

Midwest Storm Leaves Six Dead

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Savage twisters and windstorms snuffed off the soft breezes of spring-like weather in the Midwest late yesterday, killing at least six presons, injuring hundreds and wrecking communities in three states.

St. Louis, Mo., was apparently the hardest hit by the rare midwinter twisters. St. Louis county supervisor Lawrence Roos said two persons were killed, at least 209 injured and an estimated 200 homes destroyed when a twister cut an eight-mile swath through the county.

The St. Louis storm victims were identified as Diane Schlegel, 8, Glenwood, and Jeri Cannaday, 6, Creve Coeur.

Walter Sarff, 50, who was bed-ridden, was killed southwest of Bath, Ill., when a tornado demolished the house.

A tornado that roared "out of nowhere" smashed the small northwest Missouri farm community of Orrick, killing Gene Barber, 18.

Three-year-old Byron Swyter of Fort Madison, was killed by one of several tornadoes that ripped eastern and southeastern Iowa.

High winds brought death to an off-duty policeman, Roger Johnson, who was killed when wind knocked over the wall of a building under construction on the south side of Chicago.

Supervisors May Retract College Gift

Marin County supervisors may not authorize $2,000 in county funds for Sonoma State College dedication ceremonies this May. Supervisors budgeted $2,900 for special events in the economic development budget and in September informally agreed to put up $2,000 toward the Sonoma College affair. But the board's attitude has changed since then. Also Supervisors John F. McInnis has joined the board.

"I can't see allocating this money," McInnis said yesterday, pointing out that it was Marin money to be spent outside the county.

John M. Douglas, county director of economic development, said other demands on the special event funds are anticipated. He listed pending requests from the Marin Civic Ballet, Marin Museum Assn., and Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce, needing fireworks for its Fourth of July celebration.

Supervisors voted to table the Sonoma request for two weeks.

North Must Protect Its Share Of Highway Funds

Two bills introduced in the state Assembly seek to divert a share of the Northern California highway construction funds to Southern California.

The traditional split of highway gas tax funds (45 per cent for Northern California and 55 per cent for Southern California), which was a formula worked out about 40 years ago, is threatened by the reapportioned Legislature.

Northern California, the area north of the Tehachapis, has about 56 per cent of the state highway mileage but only about 40 per cent of the population and vehicle registration.

Bills authored by Southern Legislators seek a 60-40 split of the gas tax funds.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, has assured the Redwood Empire that a 60-40 split is not likely because Southern California legislators will recognize both north and south are parts of an integrated whole, and that the highways of the north are just as important as highways of the south.

We wish we could share the Assemblyman's confidence in the outcome of the 60-40 proposal, but we are frankly concerned.

Powerful voices are being raised in Southern California to divert the gas tax funds to help solve metropolitan Los Angeles' impossible transit muddle. If the amount taken from gas tax funds to support the Los Angeles rapid transit projects happens to equal the amount of gas tax funds taken away from Northern California and handed over to Southern California, the north in effect would be paying for Los Angeles' metropolitan rapid transit.

In his speech before the Redwood Empire Assn. last Friday in Tiburon, Assemblyman Bagley expressed optimism over the 60-40 proposal, predicting that such a proposal would not get out of the Assembly and "might be swept under the rug."

At the same time, he issued a warning that should be heeded:

All groups like the Redwood Empire Assn. which are interested in Northern California's economic progress and well-being must let their thoughts on these matters known to the new Administration in Sacramento and to their legislators.

It will take concerted actiton and effective expression to protect the interests of Northern California.

Children Deserve A Chance For Life

The steady March of Dimes, which successfully overcame polio, continues its march this month against birth defects which cripple or kill a quarter million babies each year.

Heading the Marin campaign as co-chairmen this year are two faithfuls—Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Melvin Hammond, who have worked selflessly and with complete dedication year after year for as long as we can remember.

Theirs is a year-round job that receives scant recognition. Their only reward is the satisfaction of knowing that children in the county and throughout the country can breathe more easily, walk more freely and have a chance at reaching maturity where formerly they were doomed to inactivity or death.

More than 52,000 March of Dimes mailers have been sent to Marin homes asking for financial help. The door-to-door Mothers' March is set for Jan. 28.

The March of Dimes effort by volunteers like Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hammond deserve full public support. Do your share by contributing to the March of Dimes.

Senate Gets Bills To Tighten States' Anti-Obscenity Laws

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Two bills strengthening the anti-obscenity laws of California have been introduced in the Senate on behalf of the Reagan administration by Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ventura.

The measures, drafted by Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch's advisory committee on obscenity, and Lt. Gov. Robert Finch, are designed to carry out the purpose of the Reagan administration in cutting down the flow of pornographic material, and at the same time protect the rights of the people, avoid censorship, and meet other objections to the constitutional matter on obscene literature, which was defeated last November.

LAGOMARSINO SAID one bill adds a new section to the sale of 'harmful' matter to persons under the age of 18.

The next bill rewrites California's anti-obscenity law to include stricter rulings of the United States Supreme court in the Ginsburg and Mishkin cases.

This second bill, also prohibiting sale of 'harmful' matter to persons under 18, describes such matters as appealing to the prurient interest which "goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters, and is a matter the redeeming social importance of which is substantially less than its prurient appeal."

THE BILL STATES the predominant appeal to prurient interest of the matter is judged with reference to average children of the same general age of the child to whom it was distributed.

Lagomarsino quotes the Supreme Court as saying:

"WE RECOGNIZE the legitimate and indeed exigent interests of state and localities throughout the nation in preventing the dissemination of material deemed harmful to children. But that interest does not justify a total suppression of such material, the effect of which would be to reduce the adult population to reading only what is fit for children.

"State and local authorities might well consider whether their objectives in this area would be better served by laws aimed specifically at preventing distribution of objectionable material to children."

The senator said the bill seeks to prevent obscene material which is harmful to children, and he believes the measure will help the situation a great deal.

THE MEASURE provides that reliance on specified documents as proof of age is a defense. It exempts public libraries, acting in aid of a legitimate scientific or educational purpose, and parents from its effect.

In carrying out the Mishkin case decision, the bills incorporate the supreme court ruling by providing that the predominant appeal to prurient interest is judged with reference to average adults unless it appears, it is designed for specially susceptible groups.

The Ginsburg ruling is incorporated by providing that where the circumstances of production, sale, etc., indicate that the matter is being commercially exploited for its prurient appeal, in which case such evidence can be used to justify a conclusion that the matter is obscene.

In the Ginsburg case, the court found that even though the material by itself was not obscene, it was found to be obscene when all circumstances of sale, etc., were taken into consideration.

Eliminate The Racket Jobs

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Now that we have a fine new governor who wants to balance the budget and do away with non-essential jobs, why not do away with the luxury of the agricultural stations on the highways entering California. As a matter of fact I would call them nuisance depots.

One can carry plants by train or plane into California along with the bugs that may be on them.

Why pick on the motorists? Eliminate the racket jobs.

Social Club For Ex-Mental Patients

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re editorial Jan. 17, "Why Not a Therapy Group for Disturbed Persons?" Much of the program of Marin Association for Mental Health is based on the premise thajt "sympathetic understanding from people of Marin may provide new hope."

It received new impetus from a request by Napa State Hospital in 1965 asking our help in providing Marin volunteers to serve at Napa. We are associated with other interested agencies in a Coordinating Council, whose purpose is to bring more nonprofessionals into an understanding relationship with the mentally ill.

For two and one-half years we sponsored an evening recreation program for mental patients at Ross Hospital. Our volunteers include a group of girls from Katharine Branson School.

This afternoon, through the Council, a social club opened for the first time, to serve exmental patients. Guided by Miss Elinor Wolfe, a professional loaned to the project by YWCA, club members will meet weekly from 2 to 4 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. The program will be developed entirely by members to meet their own needs and interests and help them again regain self-confidence and skill in making friendships. Men and women volunteers will help Miss Wolfe.

This, the first such aftercare program in Marin, will serve as a pilot project. In the future we envison other social clubs (possibly a halfway house) to help others regain a meaningful place in society, so essential to mental health.

Volunteers are being assigned to help the elderly in local convalescent homes.

They are essential in the work of Marin Institute on Alcoholism, supplementing professional staff. Dr. Juhan Liikane, director of the new Community Mental Health Services alcoholism program, also expresses the need for volunteers.

Psychiatrist William L. Bewley, past president of MAMH, explains that the best efforts of professionals are often ineffective unless the persons leaving a mental hospital have, "to a reasonable degree, these crucial factors: (1) family environment, (2) social environment, (3) employment." Only the nonprofessional can provide these.

Fluoridation On Our Rights

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The question of fluoridation of our water supply is again being brought up. May I say that the real issue is the right of the individual to determine what shall be done to and with his body, dead or alive, as long as in the exercise of that right, he does not infringe on the equal rights of his fellowmen.

Fluoridation of our drinking water may impose an extraordinary risk on certain individuals, who by reason of occupation or environmental circumstances, state of health and dietary habits, are already exposed to a relatively high intake of fluoride.

One oral surgeon and authority on dentistry for children stated that the TV programs which fascinate 3 and 4-year-olds and tempt their taste for tooth-damaging candies, soft drinks, ice cream, chewing gum and sugar-coated cereal, and the school cafeterias selling these "tooth destroyers" in many forms, must share the blame for the nation's mounting rate of dental caries. He urged dentists to preach moderation in the consumption of sugar containing food and drink as "the most effective way" to solve this tremendous problem of dental decay.

From the Nutritional Biochemistry Lab. of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, quote: "There is plenty of evidence that one part per million of fluorine or a little more in the drinking water, interferes with enzyme systems which are involved in the growth of bones and in the functioning of nerve tissue."

Fluoridation is compulsory medication of such a nature as to be contrary to human rights and no government has the right to order it.

We who are opposed to fluoridation do not wish to deprive those who want to drink fluoridated water. Fluorine tablets may be secured at the druggist and placed in a glass of water. It is unnecessary and expensive to fluoridate the public water and use it for filling up pools, washing clothes, fighting fires, etc. etc.

Keep our water supply pure, safe for everybody, and not use it as a vehicle for drugs.

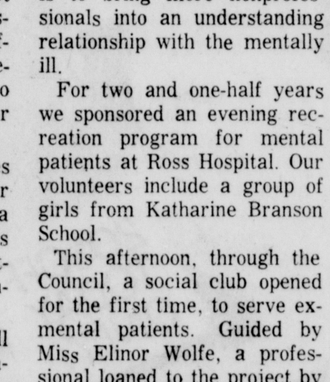
TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

The popular clergyman of a small-town congregation was obviously suffering from some undetermined ailment and finally was persuaded to consult a leading doctor. The doctor soon became aware that one of the clergyman's overriding worries was making both ends meet, and that he feared the doctor's fee would be far beyond his means. The doctor therefore put a reassuring hand on the clergyman's shoulder and proposed, "I'll tell you what I'll do, Pastor. I hear you are a very fine preacher and you obviously respect my ability as a doctor. I'll make a bargain with you. I'll do my darndest to keep you out of heaven and you'll do your best to keep me out of hell — and it won't cost either of us a cent!"



A SELF-MADE tycoon in the garment district freely admits that he owes the greater part of his success to his wife of 40 years. "I keep a big picture of her on my desk," he explains, "and every time I look at it, I work overtime."

More Americans Now Favor Some Kind Of Revenue Sharing

WASHINGTON — You need to read only one Gallup Poll to see why the Republicans have such a powerful issue in the matter of sharing Federal tax revenue with the states that in the end the Johnson administration won't be able to resist it.

Just add up these findings and you can measure very quickly the political force behind the idea of helping state and local governments with Federal funds but without trying to run everything from Washington:

Today 70 per cent of all adult Americans — Republicans, Democrats, independents alike — favor a revenue-sharing plan.

Today 49 per cent of the people consider "big government" the "biggest threat to the country," while eight years ago most Americans viewed "big labor" as most dangerous.

TODAY 49 per cent of adults believe that state government spends taxpayers' money more wisely than the Federal government; only 18 per cent credit Washington with more wisdom in spending our money.

There you have it:

Americans want to see big government pared down somewhat in size and power.

Aericans distrust Washington's ability to spend wisely and trust state government to spend more wisely.

Americans want something done about it and they overwhelmingly favor returning a percentage of Federal tax revenue to enable the states to use the money to deal with problems without Federal strings.

NO WONDER the Republican State of the Union message centered on revenue-sharing as one of the major GOP alternatives to the way the Federal government is not trying to deal with state and local problems — education, urban living, transportation — by providing Federal money with Federal plans and Federal supervision.

Governors, mayors, and city councilmen find it almost impossible to cut their way through the maze of Federal bureaucracy. House Minority Leader Gerald Ford described it this way: "There are 400 Federal aid appropriations for now over 170 separate aid programs, administered by a total of 21 Federal departments and agencies, 150 Washington bureaus, and 400 regional offices, each with its own way of passing out Federal tax dollars."

AND TO THOSE who look with dismay at the evergrowing, pervasive thrust of the Federal arm into state and local affairs, these grant-in-aid programs are mounting almost by the hour. From 1946 to today the vloume of Federal aid to state and cities has grown from $1 billion to $15 billion a year.

Does Rep. Ford overstate it when he describes the 21 layers of Federal bureaucracy running these grant programs as a nearly impenetrable "tangled thicket"?

I give you the careful and detached judgment of investigative reporter Richard Harwood of the Washington Post who has been appraising the gap in the Great Society between promise and fulfillment. He writes:

"FROM THE CITY hall in St. Louis it is 719 miles to the Federal treasury in Washington where the money for the Great Society is stored.

"But to get that money, St. Louis officials may have to detour by way of Billings, Mont., Denver, Fort Worth, Tulsa, Omaha, Chicago, Ann Arbor, Detroit, or Kansas City.

"Those are the regional outposts of the Federal bureaucracy and many of them — like Gimbels and Macy's — offer competing brands of the same Great Society programs, wrapped in different packages, sold on different terms.

"For the local official, dealing with this governmental maze is like running an obstacle course with no certainty of ever reaching the destination."

Maybe the American people are right in believing the states can spend money more wisely than Washington. Wouldn't it be a good idea to find out?

Some Questioning Aid To Indonesia

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has given the go-ahead to resume large-scale economic and military aid to Indonesia.

While the exact amount of the new commitments is still under negotiation, the U.S. is offering an approximate total of $100 million in 1967.

Both the economic and military programs will be aimed at restoring Indonesia's sagging economy and deteriorated internal security system. That's what Secretary Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during his lengthy private briefing.

UNDER QUESTIONING about relations with Indonesia, Rusk revealed that the administration had decided to resume large-scale aid for the purpose of "restoring roads, harbors, bridges and irrigation system that fell into serious disrepair during the country's internal disorder."

"At the outset," Rusk added, "most of the aid will go for heavy construction and transportation equipment, and the training of Indonesians to operate it."

In this program he also disclosed that "several hundred Indonesian military officers will be brought to the U.S. during the next three months to train with Army engineer units in the use of the heavy equipment."

WHEN SEVERAL senators questioned the wisdom of extending aid to Indonesia while pro-Communist President Sukarno continues in office, Rusk held that presents no real problem.

"Sukarno is only a figurehead," said Rusk, "and will soon either resign or be kicked out. The most authoritative information we have is that his resignation will be forthcoming in a matter of weeks. If it isn't, he will be forced out of office."

Rusk contended that, "What is important now is that help be given the ruling military junta so the vital transportation and communications systems of the country are restored."

"If this isn't done immediately," he warned, "economic conditions could easily become so bad that the government would lose effective control of the country. That would lead to new violence and possibly civil strife.

IN STRESSING the importance of giving military aid to the government of General Suharto, Rusk maintained that previous assistance was "one of the best investments this country ever made."

In addition to military aid, the U. S. provided $800 million in economic aid to Indonesia since 1952. Both economic and military aid was terminated in 1965 after Sukarno declared war on Malaysia and increased his ties with Red China.

Asked about Soviet aid to Indonesia, Secretary Rusk reported the Kremlin is supplying "a limited amount of both military and economic aid."

"EXCEPT FOR RED CHINA," he declared, "it is U. S. policy to welcome any aid other countries are willing to extend to Indonesia. She needs all the help that can be obtained."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Assemblyman Richard McCollister of San Rafael prepared a bill to add a third judge to the Marin County Municipal Court.

Corte Madera Town Council approved plans for a 25-year civic center development including a new town hall, public safety building, post office, public library, and art center.

20 YEARS AGO

More than $2,000 was cleared for the March of Dimes drive at a ball sponsored by the Fire Wardens at the Fairfax Park Pavilion.

Parents petitioned the San Rafael City Council to route vehicles away from the E Street School because heavy bus and truck traffic created a hazard and interfered with class work.

Doctor Contradicts Eye Strain Theories

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The best thing for your eyes is to use them, not save them, an expert says.

And, contrary to some belief, reading in poor light doesn't harm the eyes.

Dr. Albert E. Sloan, who said this yesterday, is an eye surgeon at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary and chairman of the School Vision Problems Committee of the National Association for the Prevention of Blindness.

Sloan told a news conference that the belief still exists that reading in bed makes eyes weak.

The truth is that use improves the ability of the eye to use its potential fullest, he said.

The U.S. government plans to spend $172.4 billion in fiscal 1968. During 1789, the same government took in $5,717 and spent $5,776, according to the U.S. Treasury Department.

Reagan Redwood Reprieve Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Gov. Ronald Reagan was urged today to withdraw his request for postponement of congressional action on a proposed redwood national park in Northern California.

The request was made by David Brower, executive director of the San Francisco-based Sierra Club, during a news conference here.

Brower also called attention to full - page advertisements which the conservationist organization sponsored today in three newspapers (New York Times, Washington Post and San Francisco Chronicle) to urge creation of a 90,000-acre park.

On The Farm, Giggle Gas May Be Replacing LSD

PALO ALTO (AP)—Laughing gas is the newest thing for students seeking kicks, the Stanford Daily reports.

"It's the latest way to travel, or so say a growing group of devotees on the campus," the university student paper said yesterday. They sniff it.

"It can produce much the same effects as psychedelic drugs, they claim, and it's cheaper to obtain."

James Briscoe, the Daily staff man who wrote the article, said 20 or 30 men and women students were in the original group of sniffers. Briscoe said he had the impression other groups are forming.

One student told of buying the gas, nitrous oxide, wholesale from a medical supply house. "They think I am anesthetizing rats," he explained.

"When you inhale it you reach a high and then after a minute it goes away," a tall blonde sniffer reported. "But after several shots the high becomes sort of stabilized and lasts for awhile."

Campus medical authorities were somewhat skeptical about the reported similarity between nitrous oxide and psychedelic drugs.

"Like all anesthetics, it acts as a depressant," said Dr. Maurice Osborne, director of the Stanford health center. "One of the first areas of the brain to be numbed is the cortex, which provides the so-called civilizing influences for man.

"And, administered in sufficient amounts, the gas could produce all the states of anesthesia, including the final stage —death."

Car Breaks Window

Eric M. Mathias, owner of the Swiss Watchmaker shop in the Corte Madera shopping center, backed his car through the plate glass window of Luana's dress shop, next door to his shop, at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, police reported.

UCLA Student Magazine Hit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Allegedly obscene material printed in a UCLA student publication has led to its "indefinite" suspension by the University's Communications Board.

The suspension yesterday involves a drawing of George Grosz from his book "Ecce Homo" which depicts a man and a woman in an amorous pose. The drawing was published last Wednesday in "Intro."

The board, which voted unanimously in favor of the suspension is made up of nine students, one faculty member and one administrator.

Sen. McGee Thinks Teeners Should Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teenagers could lift the level of political debate in this country and should be permitted to vote, Sen. Gale McGee, D-Wyo., said today.

Addressing 100 high school delegates to the William Randolph Hearst Foundation's Senate Youth program, McGee urged students to talk politics.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By M. ELIZABETH JOHNSTON

The Case Of An Aroused Citizen Against The Federal Tax Boys

Never underestimate the power of . . . an aroused citizen.

Francois Leydet of Belvedere, who decided several years ago to devote his career to writing about conservation, thought it was "high-handed, autocratic and unjust" when the U.S. Internal Revenue Service handed down a recent decision that, since the Sierra Club members had been contributing money to lobbying against dams in the Grand Canyon, which the Bureau of Reclamation wants to build, large donations to the club were no longer tax-deductible, retroactive to last July.

Leydet, who has written two books on conservation for the Sierra Club and is working on his third — which deals with wildlife and predators — had an idea.

ONE WAY TO get around the ruling, he decided, was to launch a one-man membership drive. Starting with friends and acquaintances after New Year's Day, he made a list and began calling. Without much "selling" work, he enlisted more than 50 new memberships (at $14 a head) by the middle of January.

"A large number of these people were just as outraged as I was," he said, "and were aching to join the club. Others had been meaning to join anyway and just hadn't got around to it." Leydet said he only had to mention the club and the IRS ruling and "they were in the bag."

With his own campaign going successfully, Leydet wrote to David Brower, director of the Sierra Club office in San Francisco, suggesting that other members start their own membership drives. He figures that what the club has lost in large contributions can be recovered in new members' fees. This would have the advantage of doubling or tripling the club's membership, which would, in turn serve to make it a more effective organization to work its wiles on the National Park Service and on Congress.

Leydet has more than a casual interest in the Grand Canyon, since he researched and wrote "Time and the River Flowing: Grand Canyon" which was published by the Sierra Club in the fall of 1964.

TIBURON IS getting to be television territory. Several companies have come in to film commercials for television here, or have used the city as a base of operations. TV cameras have been seen working on Main Street, occasionally, doing spot interviews with residents for commercial sponsors, also.

Most recently a cigarette commercial was filmed here during a two-day period.

It was allowed by the city council providing Main Street was not closed off and that the company paid for extra work incurred by sheriff's deputies and public works men.

Interested spectators came down to view the action but didn't interfere with the filming. The parking lot area near Tiburon Playhouse was a lively scene when I stopped by on the second and final evening. Strong floodlights lit up the lot like small suns. A truck that looked like a tall gravel-mixer was blowing water through an airplane engine to create "rain" falling over the actors.

AN IRONIC touch was that, while actors were carrying umbrellas for the filming in fake rain, onlookers were carrying umbrellas because it was lightly raining (for real).

On hand was Tiburon Fire Chief Frank Buscher, who eyed the rain-machine wistfully. "It can also be used for fire fighting," said Frank, and admited he wouldn't mind having one for Tiburon.

Fire Captain Charlie Pruett was assigned to stay on the lot while the filming was in progress. The first evening progressed into 3 a.m. before the movie-makers were done, Charlie said.

In a determined effort to "wrap it up" the next evening, they worked until 7:30 a.m.

Residents enjoyed the old screen posters put up temporarily over the real ones at the playhouse. Posters read, "Why Girls Go Wrong" and "See Enrico Caruso in his latest film."

I ASKED ONE of the men why Tiburon was becoming a habit with commercial filming outfits. He answered, "Because it's so real. You know, this whole Northern California — San Francisco Bay Area — spells glamor all over the world right now. We especially love this litle town of Tiburon." I didn't know whether to glow all over because I was in such a glamorous spot of the world or to quiz him about why he added "right now," but he dashed off with some light bulbs, anyway.

Supt. of public works, Lou Brunini, said after they left he had to sweep up "an awful lot of cigareetes" where actors had been "lighting up" for the film over and over.

Bank Offers Annual Awards To Students

Outstanding senior students from 10 Marin County schools will compete for cash prizes of $1,000 in the 1967 Bank of America Achievement Awards program, now getting under way.

Co-ordinator for the local competition is Leroy Rudolph, San Rafael branch manager, who said yesterday the cash awards will go to 16 of Northern California's best all-around high school seniors.

Plaque award winners from each school will have an opportunity to advance to zone competition in San Rafael April 13, he said.

Schools taking part include: Marin Catholic High School, Novato High School, Redwood High School, San Domenico School for Girls, Sir Francis Drake High School, San Rafael High School, San Rafael Military Academy, Terra Linda High School, Tamalpais High School, and Tomales High School.

Students will be judged on the basis of scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, and interviews before a panel of civic leaders. The top students in each of four fields — science and mathematics, liberal arts, fine art and vocational arts — will advance to the final event May 11 at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. There, they will compete for cash awards of $150, $500 and $1,000 in each study field.

Rudolph said that, in all, the Bank of America will award 7,400 certificates, 2,300 plaques and $99,000 in cash to seniors throughout the state.

Tour Of Colleges

A tour of Stanford University, San Jose State College and Foothill College will be made Saturday by the Chalkdusters, Novato High School chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

Short-Circuits Are Most Common Cause Of Blazes

In his annual report for 1966, Marinwood Fire Chief James Cameron found that the commonest cause of home fires in the community was electrical short-circuits.

There were 16 such fires. The next highest cause was overheated electrical motors, with six such fires.

Cameron said there were 119 fire calls in 1966, compared with 122 the year before and 126 in 1964. Loss for last year was $8,044.

Most critical hours for fire were from 9 a.m. to noon and between 4 and 8 p.m.

Cameron said the department, governed by the Marinwood Community Services District board, adopted a work-study program for College of Marin students, pursued weed abatement and fire code enforcement and added a hose drier and portable radio to the equipment. A new 1,000-gallon pumper will be added soon.

New York's East River is about 15 miles long.

ART BUCHWALD

What Is The Real Meaning Of Keep The Faith, Baby?

WASHINGTON — The thing that impressed me most after watching Congressman Adam Clayton Powell on television was when he said, "Keep the faith and spread it gently." I'm sure he was trying to tell me something, but for the life of me I couldn't figure out what it was.

One of the problems of the House investigating Powell's affairs is that some congressmen are guilty of similar indiscretions and it's pretty hard for a representative to cast the first stone.

Let us suppose the Ad Hoc Committee to Unseat and Defrock Congressman Adam Clayton Powell is meeting in executive session.

"GENTLEMEN, it is our solemn obligation and duty to investigate all the facts and charges in the Adam Clayton Powell case and recommend to the Congress whether he should be censured, expelled or, if the punishment warrants, be brought back from Bimini and made to serve his full term in office."

"Hear, hear!" the other members of the committee shout.

"Now let us begin with the first charge. Powell not only put his wife, Yvette, on his payroll, but raised her salary to $20,578 a year although she lived in Puerto Rico and never cashed her checks."

"GEE, WAIT until my wife hears about this. I only pay her $16,900 a year, and I make her work in the Bronx."

"If my wife hears what Adam paid his wife, I'm going to be in real trouble, particularly since I've got her down as miscellaneous office expenses!"

"Then we better forget about that charge. Now let's get on to the next one. It is charged that Congressman Powell junketed to Europe in the company of two secretaries, ostensibly to study the Common Market, but really to visit the night clubs and live it up at the public's expense."

"WELL, WHAT'S wrong with that?"

"I didn't say anything was wrong with it. I'm just reading the charge."

"Two secretaries? I was stuck on my junket with my mother, father, brother-in-law, sister and a waiter from the Plaza Hotel."

"When I went to Hong Kong to study the refugee problem I took my niece and nephew, my aunt and uncle and the golf pro from my country club."

"Adam always traveled light."

"WE'D BETTER rule out that charge. Let's take up the business of Congressman Powell using his committee's air credit travel card to go back and forth between Miami and New York under the guise of congressional business."

"He should be called on that."

"By the way, where are your receipts for your last six trips to Las Vegas?"

"What about the three trips you made to Honolulu?"

"How about the week you spent in Acapulco?"

"GENTLEMEN, let not fight. It is obvious Adam had a good reason for going to Miami which he felt was in the best interests of the country not to disclose."

"Hear, hear!" the committee shouts.

"All right, gentlemen, that seems to take care of the charges. Now what do we do?"

"Let's ask Adam how he did it and got away with it."

"That's a great idea. We'll all go to Bimini this weekend and hold the rest of our committee meetings there."

"I'll call my secretary and ask her to pack her bathing suit."

"If I know Adam, he'll have bathing suits for all of us."

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

THE SUPERINTENDENT SETS AN EXAMPLE

When Howard F. Brose, superintendent of West Marin School District, appeared before Judge David R. Baty in Northwest Marin Justice Court on a charge of driving on the wrong side of the street, he pleaded guilty and elected to serve a sentence to pick up roadside litter rather than pay an $18 fine. "I want to show my school children that anyone who violates the law must pay the price, even if he's the principal," said Brose. The "keeper" with the rope is Jack Mason, Point Reyes Station cafe owner deputized by Judge Baty to see that Brose did the job. (Independent-Journal photo)

MARIN ASKS ECONOMY IN STATE PUBLISHING

Marin County supervisors, swamped with publications sent out by agencies of the state government, agreed yesterday to see whether state publication costs might be cut.

They authorized a resolution to be sent Gov. Ronald Reagan and agreed during February to collect all publications sent them, have them crated and delivered to the Governor.

The protest was suggested by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

Tougher Brown Act Being Sought

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Bills to strengthen the open meeting law for local agencies and provide a comprehensive open meeting statute for state agencies were introduced in the Legislature today by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and Sen. Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando.

The first bill makes several changes in the Ralph M. Brown Act. It specifies that all matters not specifically recognized in the Brown Act as subjects which may be discussed in closed session must be considered at a public meeting, whether or not final action is either intended or taken.

The bill also provides that when a public agency meets to discuss charges or possible firing of an employee, the agency must give 24 hours written notice to the employee, pointing out that he has a right to a public hearing if he so desires.

It will also tighten up on the widespread practice of holding closed meetings because "possible litigation" is involved. The recommended amendment permits an executive session to consult with counsel only when the agency is already a party to litigation or any public discussion would benefit a particular adversary so that the public interest would suffer.

Meetings of committees and subcommittees of local agencies would be required to be open and public.

The second bill, in effect, enacts a "Brown Act" for state agencies, since the existing act does not apply to such agencies. It provides similar standards for requiring meetings to be open to the public.

Both Senator Carrell and Assemblyman Bagley were members of the Assembly Interim Committee on Government Organization last year. They acted at the request of former committee chairman, Judge Milton Marks, who was appointed to the San Francisco Municipal Court bench.

Marks' long standing interest in legislation ensuring public access to meetings of government agencies was climaxed by the near-enactment of similar measures during the 1965 session.

Planners Ease Restrictions On Courthouse Square Uses

The San Rafael Planning Commission last night adopted final zoning recommendations for Courthouse Square, making restrictions less stringent for "planned unit development" of the property as a whole.

Its recommedations must now go to the city council for approval.

The highly restrictive zone calls for a "front yard" of 30 per cent of the lot depth, maximum land coverage of 50 per cent, and maximum floor area of double the lot area. It also restricts use to retail commercial on the ground floor.

To those previously favored conditions, the commission last night added provisions for residential use including condominiums, above ground level.

To make matters less restrictive under "planned unit development," the ordinance permits "other uses consistent with the stated purposes of this zone."

The effect of that would be to allow the planning commission freedom to weigh the virtues of a plan as a whole, allowing such deviations, for example, as first floor offices if deemed appropriate.

In separate, but not entirely unrelated action, the commission rezoned from heavy manufacturing to commercial a large area on both sides of San Rafael Canal from San Rafael Yacht Harbor to Irwin Street and from Francisco Boulevard to Third Street.

Excepted from this change were properties fronting on Bay Street and now in industrial use.

Included was the city's corporation yard, which the city hopes to sell in order to purchase Courthouse Square from the county. The change in zoning has been aimed at making the nearly eight-acre yard more saleable.

The Bay Street frontage properties were left zoned for manufacturing after M. R. Lamperti, president of North Bay Electric Co., spoke on behalf of several firms there and said rezoning would work a hardship on them. Lamperti said these firms now pay up to a total of $36,000 in taxes a year and have a combined payroll of about $500,000 a year.

Clearing Red Hill Slide Area Delayed

The San Anselmo City Council, warned last night that any clearing of the debris from the slide that destroyed four apartment buildings on Red Hill could cause more sliding, agreed to allow more study before the work is done.

John E. Corette III, a representative of the Severson, Werson, Berke and Larson legal firm in San Francisco, second mortgage holders on the apartments, asked for delay. Soil engineers hired by the firm asked for two weeks to study the slide area before any debris is cleared.

The council agreed to let the firm's engineers meet with city engineers and public works director Charles R. Leitzell to decide what can be done on the slide.

Leitzell had asked that a path be cleared at the toe of the slide, but Corette felt this could unbalance the whole slide. He said the debris is forming a dam holding back the mud.

Alfred Kaeppel, city controller, told the council that in addition to aid available if the state and federal governments declare Marin a disaster area—as Marin County supervisors did yesterday—further aid may be available from the U.S. Small Business Administration.

He said the San Francisco office of the agency has already applied to Washington, to declare Marin a disaster area, and if the request is granted the agency will be able to make long-term loans to property owners at 3 per cent interest.

The council agreed to close Luna Lane, just below the slide area, at request of Karl H. Baeck, owner of an apartment building at 20 Luna Lane.

Mill Valley architect Norman Gilroy today confirmed that he designed the master plan for Red Hill, including the apartments, and cleared the plan through the planning commission and council before selling it to Meadowbrook Developers of Novato.

"There were full and thorough soil tests taken on the whole area, and they indicated no possibility of a catastrophy of this kind," he said.

The council last night introduced an ordinance giving each councilman a salary of $150 a month, for which they had voted 3-2 at a previous meeting.

The council also approved a map showing San Anselmo's ultimate boundaries including Sleepy Hollow and following San Rafael's boundary along the ridge beyond Sorich Ranch.

The San Anselmo City Council Also:

1. Accepted donation of a $600 resuscitator to the fire department from the San Anselmo Firemen's Assn.
2. Awarded a contract for a street sweeper to Nixon-Eagle Equipment Co. at $12,976.
3. Asked that the San Anselmo Co-operative Nursery and petitioners complaining of parking violations at the nursery get together to work out differences.
4. Asked Stanley Seiderman to hire a tree surgeon to repair a tree on his property at 18 Park Drive and to be sure the tree will not endanger the creek.
5. Asked that possibilities for preventing garbage dumping in the creek and policing the creek be put on the next council agenda.
6. Learned that property owners at 151 and 153 Los Angeles Boulevard have agreed to install curbs and gutters in front of their property.
7. Approved duplex use of property at 1405 San Anselmo Avenue.
8. Agreed to consider a request by residents of Rosemont Avenue for a larger fire hydram in the next budget.
9. Denied claims of Eugene R. Hammond for $28.90 and William Theile for $63.12, both for damage to their cars from a hole in front of the Red Hill Shopping Center.
10. Accepted improvementst o parking lot A.
11. Declared a retaining wall in the creek at 114 Meadowcroft Drive a nuisance.
12. Agreed to allow up to 13 trees to be cut in widening of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.
13. Approved expenditure of $575 for surfacing and installing curb and gutter on part of Sonoma Avenue.
14. Banned parking at all times on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from Arbor Road to Sonoma Avenue in front of the Red Hill Shopping Center.
15. Passed on second reading an ordinance repealing the R-4, high density apartment zone.

Bagley Amends Inheritance Tax Overhaul

By WAT TAKESHITA

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman William T. Bagley today introduced 35 amendments to his bill (AB-2), designed to overhaul the inheritance tax appraisal system.

At a press conference this morning, he and Controller Houston I. Flournoy said the new system can save as much as $4 million to heirs of estates and eliminate political appointments by the state controller.

Flournoy said the 154 inheritance tax appraisers will be abolished, possibly by the end of the year.

The new controller said his "Flournoy Plan" is a combination of self-appraisal, administrative action, and appraisal by professional state appraisers.

SELF APPRAISAL

Cash and cash-like assets can be self-appraised. Assets that are more difficult to appraise will be assessed through contract with other public agencies or through staff appraisals.

"We expect," Flournoy concluded "that this plan would in no way decrease the quality of the administration of the system, and it is estimated that savings to the heirs of estates of $3.5 to $4 million annually will result due to elimination of the inheritance tax appraisers' fees."

Pending approval of the new system, the state controller said he will make selective replacements of inheritance tax appraisers in each county.

MUM ON APPOINTEES

Flournoy and Bagley declined to comment on specific replacements, such as Marin's two appraisers appointed by former Controller Alan Cranston.

"Replacements will be based on qualification," said Bagley. "But let's also be frank here. If one or more of the appraisers was obnoxiously partisan, the controller of course would have the prerogative of not having that person on the staff."

Two-Car Collision Injures Motorist

Treated at Marin General Hospital for chest bruises was Walter M. Lack, 19, of 35 Wolf Avenue, San Rafael. Jerry J. Black of 277 Union Street, San Rafael, was driving the other car, police said.

Montessori School Plan Is Approved

The way was cleared last night for demolition of the old Coleman School and its replacement by a non-profit private school.

The San Rafael Planning Commission granted a use permit to C. John Bernt, owner of the property at 1711 Grand Avenue, to permit establishment of a Montessori School.

Many neighboring residents attend the hearing but there was no objection to the school, a far different reaction than to past proposals for an office building or a nursery school on the site.

Plans call for destruction of the old, dilapidated and vandalized Coleman School and construction of a one-story 7,800-square-foot building of residential appearance to accommodate 150 pupils, aged 2.5 to 8 years, in four classrooms. Operating hours would be 9 a.m. to noon.

Nicholas Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his first symphony while an officer aboard a Russian warship.

Board Gives Aide Time To Get Insurance Data

Marin County supervisors yesterday granted John L. Gibb, administrative analyst, a month to gather more information on proposals by two companies to extend insurance to county employees.

Gibb said he needed the time to study costs to the county under plans submitted by Travelers Insurance Co. and West Coast Life Insurance Co., and to seek the advise of county counsel.

The county switched from Travelers to West Coast in November, advised by a consultant that $13,000 would be saved in annual premiums.

However, County Administrator Alan Bruce told the board in December that his office had been misled. Travelers complained that the consultant, Harry C. Duncan, had failed to reflect the reciprocal payments Travelers had been making after claims in prior years. The saving, after figuring net costs, was minimal, Travelers said.

Under the group coverage, the county pays 80 per cent of the annual premiums, with the rest coming from an employee's pay.

Peace Officers Plan Installation Dinner

Marin County Peace Officers Assn. will install officers for 1967 at a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the Non-Commissioned Officers' Club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

New president is Ernest Zunino, deputy district attorney. Undersheriff Sidney Stinson is first vice president; Mel L. Morse, executive director of Marin County Humane Society, second vice president; Novato Police Chief Robert DiGrazia, secretary-treasurer and San Rafael Police Lt. Ray Bleasdale, sergeant-at-arms.

Bowling Gear Gone

Pupils Learning Of Trade Marks

Sixth graders from Sun Valley School, San Rafael, visited Hiller Highlands in Oakland today for a lesson on the use of graphic art by communications media.

Sun Valley students were taught what a trade mark is, and will try to design a trade mark, or visual symbol for their own school.

The project is to expose the children to the creative aspects of graphics used in television, and explain how cartoons and commercials are made.

Teen-Age Dance Hall Permit Turned Down

A proposal to turn a vacant warehouse at 20 Front Street into a ballroom for teen-agers died last night, largely the victim of its own vagueness, at a hearing before the San Rafael Planning Commission.

Donald A. Batchelder of Mill Valley, applying for a use permit, told the commission there was need for such an establishment in Marin County, but was unable to specify the exact nature of the enterprise.

POLICE OBJECT

In answer to commissioners' questions, he said as many as a thousand might attend the proposed Friday and Saturday night dances, but then again, maybe not so many. "What it would all lead to," he said, "is hard to say at this point."

Strongest objections to the proposal came from Police Lt. Lincoln M. Borba, representing Chief Charles J. Chiesa.

Borba said large numbers of juveniles would creat crowd control problems and be disturbing to residents of a nearby apartment house. He also found the location unsuitable because of its proximity to Bermuda Palms Motel, where, he noted, liquor is sold and "adult shows" are put on.

Barbo also said there were several car sale lots nearby and that "the temptation would be too much for them not to take cars . . . possibly damaging thousands of dollars in property."

POLICE CRITICIZED

Batchelder rejoined sharply that one of the big failures of the police "is in not working with people, but in trying to control them." Batchelder said he had never encountered any instance of drunkenness or any fighting at such dance halls, as he proposed in San Francisco.

Commissioner John A. Miskimen said to Borba: "We've heard these police objections on several occasions. Just where would be a suitable place for a thing like this, as far as the police are concerned?"

Borba replied that "any isolated place" where teen-agers could "make all the noise they wanted" would be all right.

Commissioner Jorgen V. Lunding said that if there were to be such a place in San Rafael, he favored a smaller operation drawing "people from our community rather than from outside." He also said he found Batchelder's proposal insufficiently planned.

The commissioners denied the permit on Planning Director Herbert C. Hotchner's finding that inadequate parking was provided, but left the door open to future proposals for a dance hall.

The commission then gave swift approval to a use permit and architectural plans for a Standard Oil gas station at 69 Mitchell Boulevard, after receiving a letter from Standard Oil Co. of California assuring that it would install a sidewalk in front of its station at Third Street and Grand Avenue.

The permit and architectural approval had been held up at the previous meeting over the sidewalk issue, when Commissioner Thomas R. O'Toole asserted the sidewalk installation was eight years overdue. Standard Oil said it had been unaware of the obligation and moved swiftly to comply.

The San Rafael Planning Commission also:

1. Approved erection of a "Phillips 66" sign at the entrance from the bay to Loch Lomond Marina, limiting illumination to the seaward side.

2. Approved two directional signs for First Methodist Church, one on either side of Miracle Mile near Ross Valley Road, but denied a third near intersection of Fourth and Second streets.

3. Approved final map of Terra Linda Unit 1, submitted by Alameda Homes Corp.

Cong Contact Mine Is Found

NHA BE, South Vietnam (AP) — The U.S. Navy today displayed a New Year's Eve present from the Viet Cong — the first contact mine found in the main shipping channel to Saigon. The Navy said the Russians made it.

The 1,000-pounder, covered with barnacles, was one of a number of enemy mines the Navy has fished out of the Long Tau River and put on exhibit on a barge at this installation 10 miles south of Saigon.

Contact mines are exploded when a ship hits one of several horns projecting from the mine's casing.

North Must Protect Its Share Of Highway Funds

Two bills introduced in the state Assembly seek to divert a share of the Northern California highway construction funds to Southern California.

The traditional split of highway gas tax funds (45 per cent for Northern California and 55 per cent for Southern California), which was a formula worked out about 40 years ago, is threatened by the reapportioned Legislature.

Northern California, the area north of the Tehachapis, has about 56 per cent of the state highway mileage but only about 40 per cent of the population and vehicle registration.

Bills authored by Southern Legislators seek a 60-40 split of the gas tax funds.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, has assured the Redwood Empire that a 60-40 split is not likely because Southern California legislators will recognize both north and south are parts of an integrated whole, and that the highways of the north are just as important as highways of the south.

We wish we could share the Assemblyman's confidence in the outcome of the 60-40 proposal, but we are frankly concerned.

Powerful voices are being raised in Southern California to divert the gas tax funds to help solve metropolitan Los Angeles' impossible transit muddle. If the amount taken from gas tax funds to support the Los Angeles rapid transit projects happens to equal the amount of gas tax funds taken away from Northern California and handed over to Southern California, the north in effect would be paying for Los Angeles' metropolitan rapid transit.

In his speech before the Redwood Empire Assn. last Friday in Tiburon, Assemblyman Bagley expressed optimism over the 60-40 proposal, predicting that such a proposal would not get out of the Assembly and "might be swept under the rug."

At the same time, he issued a warning that should be heeded:

All groups like the Redwood Empire Assn. which are interested in Northern California's economic progress and well-being must let their thoughts on these matters known to the new Administration in Sacramento and to their legislators.

It will take concerted actiton and effective expression to protect the interests of Northern California.

Children Deserve A Chance For Life

The steady March of Dimes, which successfully overcame polio, continues its march this month against birth defects which cripple or kill a quarter million babies each year.

Heading the Marin campaign as co-chairmen this year are two faithfuls—Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Melvin Hammond, who have worked selflessly and with complete dedication year after year for as long as we can remember.

Theirs is a year-round job that receives scant recognition. Their only reward is the satisfaction of knowing that children in the county and throughout the country can breathe more easily, walk more freely and have a chance at reaching maturity where formerly they were doomed to inactivity or death.

More than 52,000 March of Dimes mailers have been sent to Marin homes asking for financial help. The door-to-door Mothers' March is set for Jan. 28.

The March of Dimes effort by volunteers like Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hammond deserve full public support. Do your share by contributing to the March of Dimes.

Senate Gets Bills To Tighten States' Anti-Obscenity Laws

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Two bills strengthening the anti-obscenity laws of California have been introduced in the Senate on behalf of the Reagan administration by Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ventura.

The measures, drafted by Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch's advisory committee on obscenity, and Lt. Gov. Robert Finch, are designed to carry out the purpose of the Reagan administration in cutting down the flow of pornographic material, and at the same time protect the rights of the people, avoid censorship, and meet other objections to the constitutional matter on obscene literature, which was defeated last November.

LAGOMARSINO SAID one bill adds a new section to the sale of 'harmful' matter to persons under the age of 18.

The next bill rewrites California's anti-obscenity law to include stricter rulings of the United States Supreme court in the Ginsburg and Mishkin cases.

This second bill, also prohibiting sale of 'harmful' matter to persons under 18, describes such matters as appealing to the prurient interest which "goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters, and is a matter the redeeming social importance of which is substantially less than its prurient appeal."

THE BILL STATES the predominant appeal to prurient interest of the matter is judged with reference to average children of the same general age of the child to whom it was distributed.

Lagomarsino quotes the Supreme Court as saying:

"WE RECOGNIZE the legitimate and indeed exigent interests of state and localities throughout the nation in preventing the dissemination of material deemed harmful to children. But that interest does not justify a total suppression of such material, the effect of which would be to reduce the adult population to reading only what is fit for children.

"State and local authorities might well consider whether their objectives in this area would be better served by laws aimed specifically at preventing distribution of objectionable material to children."

The senator said the bill seeks to prevent obscene material which is harmful to children, and he believes the measure will help the situation a great deal.

THE MEASURE provides that reliance on specified documents as proof of age is a defense. It exempts public libraries, acting in aid of a legitimate scientific or educational purpose, and parents from its effect.

In carrying out the Mishkin case decision, the bills incorporate the supreme court ruling by providing that the predominant appeal to prurient interest is judged with reference to average adults unless it appears, it is designed for specially susceptible groups.

The Ginsburg ruling is incorporated by providing that where the circumstances of production, sale, etc., indicate that the matter is being commercially exploited for its prurient appeal, in which case such evidence can be used to justify a conclusion that the matter is obscene.

In the Ginsburg case, the court found that even though the material by itself was not obscene, it was found to be obscene when all circumstances of sale, etc., were taken into consideration.

Eliminate The Racket Jobs

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Now that we have a fine new governor who wants to balance the budget and do away with non-essential jobs, why not do away with the luxury of the agricultural stations on the highways entering California. As a matter of fact I would call them nuisance depots.

One can carry plants by train or plane into California along with the bugs that may be on them.

Why pick on the motorists? Eliminate the racket jobs.

Social Club For Ex-Mental Patients

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Re editorial Jan. 17, "Why Not a Therapy Group for Disturbed Persons?" Much of the program of Marin Association for Mental Health is based on the premise thajt "sympathetic understanding from people of Marin may provide new hope."

It received new impetus from a request by Napa State Hospital in 1965 asking our help in providing Marin volunteers to serve at Napa. We are associated with other interested agencies in a Coordinating Council, whose purpose is to bring more nonprofessionals into an understanding relationship with the mentally ill.

For two and one-half years we sponsored an evening recreation program for mental patients at Ross Hospital. Our volunteers include a group of girls from Katharine Branson School.

This afternoon, through the Council, a social club opened for the first time, to serve exmental patients. Guided by Miss Elinor Wolfe, a professional loaned to the project by YWCA, club members will meet weekly from 2 to 4 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael. The program will be developed entirely by members to meet their own needs and interests and help them again regain self-confidence and skill in making friendships. Men and women volunteers will help Miss Wolfe.

This, the first such aftercare program in Marin, will serve as a pilot project. In the future we envison other social clubs (possibly a halfway house) to help others regain a meaningful place in society, so essential to mental health.

Volunteers are being assigned to help the elderly in local convalescent homes.

They are essential in the work of Marin Institute on Alcoholism, supplementing professional staff. Dr. Juhan Liikane, director of the new Community Mental Health Services alcoholism program, also expresses the need for volunteers.

Psychiatrist William L. Bewley, past president of MAMH, explains that the best efforts of professionals are often ineffective unless the persons leaving a mental hospital have, "to a reasonable degree, these crucial factors: (1) family environment, (2) social environment, (3) employment." Only the nonprofessional can provide these.

Fluoridation On Our Rights

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The question of fluoridation of our water supply is again being brought up. May I say that the real issue is the right of the individual to determine what shall be done to and with his body, dead or alive, as long as in the exercise of that right, he does not infringe on the equal rights of his fellowmen.

Fluoridation of our drinking water may impose an extraordinary risk on certain individuals, who by reason of occupation or environmental circumstances, state of health and dietary habits, are already exposed to a relatively high intake of fluoride.

One oral surgeon and authority on dentistry for children stated that the TV programs which fascinate 3 and 4-year-olds and tempt their taste for tooth-damaging candies, soft drinks, ice cream, chewing gum and sugar-coated cereal, and the school cafeterias selling these "tooth destroyers" in many forms, must share the blame for the nation's mounting rate of dental caries. He urged dentists to preach moderation in the consumption of sugar containing food and drink as "the most effective way" to solve this tremendous problem of dental decay.

From the Nutritional Biochemistry Lab. of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, quote: "There is plenty of evidence that one part per million of fluorine or a little more in the drinking water, interferes with enzyme systems which are involved in the growth of bones and in the functioning of nerve tissue."

Fluoridation is compulsory medication of such a nature as to be contrary to human rights and no government has the right to order it.

We who are opposed to fluoridation do not wish to deprive those who want to drink fluoridated water. Fluorine tablets may be secured at the druggist and placed in a glass of water. It is unnecessary and expensive to fluoridate the public water and use it for filling up pools, washing clothes, fighting fires, etc. etc.

Keep our water supply pure, safe for everybody, and not use it as a vehicle for drugs.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

The popular clergyman of a small-town congregation was obviously suffering from some undetermined ailment and finally was persuaded to consult a leading doctor. The doctor soon became aware that one of the clergyman's overriding worries was making both ends meet, and that he feared the doctor's fee would be far beyond his means. The doctor therefore put a reassuring hand on the clergyman's shoulder and proposed, "I'll tell you what I'll do, Pastor. I hear you are a very fine preacher and you obviously respect my ability as a doctor. I'll make a bargain with you. I'll do my darndest to keep you out of heaven and you'll do your best to keep me out of hell — and it won't cost either of us a cent!"

A SELF-MADE tycoon in the garment district freely admits that he owes the greater part of his success to his wife of 40 years. "I keep a big picture of her on my desk," he explains, "and every time I look at it, I work overtime."

More Americans Now Favor Some Kind Of Revenue Sharing

WASHINGTON — You need to read only one Gallup Poll to see why the Republicans have such a powerful issue in the matter of sharing Federal tax revenue with the states that in the end the Johnson administration won't be able to resist it.

Just add up these findings and you can measure very quickly the political force behind the idea of helping state and local governments with Federal funds but without trying to run everything from Washington:

Today 70 per cent of all adult Americans — Republicans, Democrats, independents alike — favor a revenue-sharing plan.

Today 49 per cent of the people consider "big government" the "biggest threat to the country," while eight years ago most Americans viewed "big labor" as most dangerous.

TODAY 49 per cent of adults believe that state government spends taxpayers' money more wisely than the Federal government; only 18 per cent credit Washington with more wisdom in spending our money.

There you have it:

Americans want to see big government pared down somewhat in size and power.

Aericans distrust Washington's ability to spend wisely and trust state government to spend more wisely.

Americans want something done about it and they overwhelmingly favor returning a percentage of Federal tax revenue to enable the states to use the money to deal with problems without Federal strings.

NO WONDER the Republican State of the Union message centered on revenue-sharing as one of the major GOP alternatives to the way the Federal government is not trying to deal with state and local problems — education, urban living, transportation — by providing Federal money with Federal plans and Federal supervision.

Governors, mayors, and city councilmen find it almost impossible to cut their way through the maze of Federal bureaucracy. House Minority Leader Gerald Ford described it this way: "There are 400 Federal aid appropriations for now over 170 separate aid programs, administered by a total of 21 Federal departments and agencies, 150 Washington bureaus, and 400 regional offices, each with its own way of passing out Federal tax dollars."

AND TO THOSE who look with dismay at the evergrowing, pervasive thrust of the Federal arm into state and local affairs, these grant-in-aid programs are mounting almost by the hour. From 1946 to today the vloume of Federal aid to state and cities has grown from $1 billion to $15 billion a year.

Does Rep. Ford overstate it when he describes the 21 layers of Federal bureaucracy running these grant programs as a nearly impenetrable "tangled thicket"?

I give you the careful and detached judgment of investigative reporter Richard Harwood of the Washington Post who has been appraising the gap in the Great Society between promise and fulfillment. He writes:

"FROM THE CITY hall in St. Louis it is 719 miles to the Federal treasury in Washington where the money for the Great Society is stored.

"But to get that money, St. Louis officials may have to detour by way of Billings, Mont., Denver, Fort Worth, Tulsa, Omaha, Chicago, Ann Arbor, Detroit, or Kansas City.

"Those are the regional outposts of the Federal bureaucracy and many of them — like Gimbels and Macy's — offer competing brands of the same Great Society programs, wrapped in different packages, sold on different terms.

"For the local official, dealing with this governmental maze is like running an obstacle course with no certainty of ever reaching the destination."

Maybe the American people are right in believing the states can spend money more wisely than Washington. Wouldn't it be a good idea to find out?

Some Questioning Aid To Indonesia

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has given the go-ahead to resume large-scale economic and military aid to Indonesia.

While the exact amount of the new commitments is still under negotiation, the U.S. is offering an approximate total of $100 million in 1967.

Both the economic and military programs will be aimed at restoring Indonesia's sagging economy and deteriorated internal security system. That's what Secretary Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee during his lengthy private briefing.

UNDER QUESTIONING about relations with Indonesia, Rusk revealed that the administration had decided to resume large-scale aid for the purpose of "restoring roads, harbors, bridges and irrigation system that fell into serious disrepair during the country's internal disorder."

"At the outset," Rusk added, "most of the aid will go for heavy construction and transportation equipment, and the training of Indonesians to operate it."

In this program he also disclosed that "several hundred Indonesian military officers will be brought to the U.S. during the next three months to train with Army engineer units in the use of the heavy equipment."

WHEN SEVERAL senators questioned the wisdom of extending aid to Indonesia while pro-Communist President Sukarno continues in office, Rusk held that presents no real problem.

"Sukarno is only a figurehead," said Rusk, "and will soon either resign or be kicked out. The most authoritative information we have is that his resignation will be forthcoming in a matter of weeks. If it isn't, he will be forced out of office."

Rusk contended that, "What is important now is that help be given the ruling military junta so the vital transportation and communications systems of the country are restored."

"If this isn't done immediately," he warned, "economic conditions could easily become so bad that the government would lose effective control of the country. That would lead to new violence and possibly civil strife.

IN STRESSING the importance of giving military aid to the government of General Suharto, Rusk maintained that previous assistance was "one of the best investments this country ever made."

In addition to military aid, the U. S. provided $800 million in economic aid to Indonesia since 1952. Both economic and military aid was terminated in 1965 after Sukarno declared war on Malaysia and increased his ties with Red China.

Asked about Soviet aid to Indonesia, Secretary Rusk reported the Kremlin is supplying "a limited amount of both military and economic aid."

"EXCEPT FOR RED CHINA," he declared, "it is U. S. policy to welcome any aid other countries are willing to extend to Indonesia. She needs all the help that can be obtained."

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Assemblyman Richard McCollister of San Rafael prepared a bill to add a third judge to the Marin County Municipal Court.

Corte Madera Town Council approved plans for a 25-year civic center development including a new town hall, public safety building, post office, public library, and art center.

20 YEARS AGO

More than $2,000 was cleared for the March of Dimes drive at a ball sponsored by the Fire Wardens at the Fairfax Park Pavilion.

Parents petitioned the San Rafael City Council to route vehicles away from the E Street School because heavy bus and truck traffic created a hazard and interfered with class work.

Tim Falvey was elected president of the San Rafael Volunteer Fireman's Assn., succeeding Walter Castro Jr.

The Case Of An Aroused Citizen Against The Federal Tax Boys

Never underestimate the power of . . . an aroused citizen.

Francois Leydet of Belvedere, who decided several years ago to devote his career to writing about conservation, thought it was "high-handed, autocratic and unjust" when the U.S. Internal Revenue Service handed down a recent decision that, since the Sierra Club members had been contributing money to lobbying against dams in the Grand Canyon, which the Bureau of Reclamation wants to build, large donations to the club were no longer tax-deductible, retroactive to last July.

Leydet, who has written two books on conservation for the Sierra Club and is working on his third — which deals with wildlife and predators — had an idea.

ONE WAY TO get around the ruling, he decided, was to launch a one-man membership drive. Starting with friends and acquaintances after New Year's Day, he made a list and began calling. Without much "selling" work, he enlisted more than 50 new memberships (at $14 a head) by the middle of January.

"A large number of these people were just as outraged as I was," he said, "and were aching to join the club. Others had been meaning to join anyway and just hadn't got around to it." Leydet said he only had to mention the club and the IRS ruling and "they were in the bag."

With his own campaign going successfully, Leydet wrote to David Brower, director of the Sierra Club office in San Francisco, suggesting that other members start their own membership drives. He figures that what the club has lost in large contributions can be recovered in new members' fees. This would have the advantage of doubling or tripling the club's membership, which would, in turn serve to make it a more effective organization to work its wiles on the National Park Service and on Congress.

Leydet has more than a casual interest in the Grand Canyon, since he researched and wrote "Time and the River Flowing: Grand Canyon" which was published by the Sierra Club in the fall of 1964.

TIBURON IS getting to be television territory. Several companies have come in to film commercials for television here, or have used the city as a base of operations. TV cameras have been seen working on Main Street, occasionally, doing spot interviews with residents for commercial sponsors, also.

Most recently a cigarette commercial was filmed here during a two-day period.

It was allowed by the city council providing Main Street was not closed off and that the company paid for extra work incurred by sheriff's deputies and public works men.

Interested spectators came down to view the action but didn't interfere with the filming. The parking lot area near Tiburon Playhouse was a lively scene when I stopped by on the second and final evening. Strong floodlights lit up the lot like small suns. A truck that looked like a tall gravel-mixer was blowing water through an airplane engine to create "rain" falling over the actors.

AN IRONIC touch was that, while actors were carrying umbrellas for the filming in fake rain, onlookers were carrying umbrellas because it was lightly raining (for real).

On hand was Tiburon Fire Chief Frank Buscher, who eyed the rain-machine wistfully. "It can also be used for fire fighting," said Frank, and admited he wouldn't mind having one for Tiburon.

Fire Captain Charlie Pruett was assigned to stay on the lot while the filming was in progress. The first evening progressed into 3 a.m. before the movie-makers were done, Charlie said.

In a determined effort to "wrap it up" the next evening, they worked until 7:30 a.m.

Residents enjoyed the old screen posters put up temporarily over the real ones at the playhouse. Posters read, "Why Girls Go Wrong" and "See Enrico Caruso in his latest film."

I ASKED ONE of the men why Tiburon was becoming a habit with commercial filming outfits. He answered, "Because it's so real. You know, this whole Northern California — San Francisco Bay Area — spells glamor all over the world right now. We especially love this litle town of Tiburon." I didn't know whether to glow all over because I was in such a glamorous spot of the world or to quiz him about why he added "right now," but he dashed off with some light bulbs, anyway.

Supt. of public works, Lou Brunini, said after they left he had to sweep up "an awful lot of cigareetes" where actors had been "lighting up" for the film over and over.

Bank Offers Annual Awards To Students

Outstanding senior students from 10 Marin County schools will compete for cash prizes of $1,000 in the 1967 Bank of America Achievement Awards program, now getting under way.

Co-ordinator for the local competition is Leroy Rudolph, San Rafael branch manager, who said yesterday the cash awards will go to 16 of Northern California's best all-around high school seniors.

Plaque award winners from each school will have an opportunity to advance to zone competition in San Rafael April 13, he said.

Schools taking part include: Marin Catholic High School, Novato High School, Redwood High School, San Domenico School for Girls, Sir Francis Drake High School, San Rafael High School, San Rafael Military Academy, Terra Linda High School, Tamalpais High School, and Tomales High School.

Students will be judged on the basis of scholastic achievement, extra-curricular activities, and interviews before a panel of civic leaders. The top students in each of four fields — science and mathematics, liberal arts, fine art and vocational arts — will advance to the final event May 11 at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. There, they will compete for cash awards of $150, $500 and $1,000 in each study field.

Rudolph said that, in all, the Bank of America will award 7,400 certificates, 2,300 plaques and $99,000 in cash to seniors throughout the state.

Tour Of Colleges

A tour of Stanford University, San Jose State College and Foothill College will be made Saturday by the Chalkdusters, Novato High School chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

Short-Circuits Are Most Common Cause Of Blazes

In his annual report for 1966, Marinwood Fire Chief James Cameron found that the commonest cause of home fires in the community was electrical short-circuits.

There were 16 such fires. The next highest cause was overheated electrical motors, with six such fires.

Cameron said there were 119 fire calls in 1966, compared with 122 the year before and 126 in 1964. Loss for last year was $8,044.

Most critical hours for fire were from 9 a.m. to noon and between 4 and 8 p.m.

Cameron said the department, governed by the Marinwood Community Services District board, adopted a work-study program for College of Marin students, pursued weed abatement and fire code enforcement and added a hose drier and portable radio to the equipment. A new 1,000-gallon pumper will be added soon.

New York's East River is about 15 miles long.

ART BUCHWALD

What Is The Real Meaning Of Keep The Faith, Baby?

WASHINGTON — The thing that impressed me most after watching Congressman Adam Clayton Powell on television was when he said, "Keep the faith and spread it gently." I'm sure he was trying to tell me something, but for the life of me I couldn't figure out what it was.

One of the problems of the House investigating Powell's affairs is that some congressmen are guilty of similar indiscretions and it's pretty hard for a representative to cast the first stone.

Let us suppose the Ad Hoc Committee to Unseat and Defrock Congressman Adam Clayton Powell is meeting in executive session.

"GENTLEMEN, it is our solemn obligation and duty to investigate all the facts and charges in the Adam Clayton Powell case and recommend to the Congress whether he should be censured, expelled or, if the punishment warrants, be brought back from Bimini and made to serve his full term in office."

"Hear, hear!" the other members of the committee shout.

"Now let us begin with the first charge. Powell not only put his wife, Yvette, on his payroll, but raised her salary to $20,578 a year although she lived in Puerto Rico and never cashed her checks."

"GEE, WAIT until my wife hears about this. I only pay her $16,900 a year, and I make her work in the Bronx."

"If my wife hears what Adam paid his wife, I'm going to be in real trouble, particularly since I've got her down as miscellaneous office expenses!"

"Then we better forget about that charge. Now let's get on to the next one. It is charged that Congressman Powell junketed to Europe in the company of two secretaries, ostensibly to study the Common Market, but really to visit the night clubs and live it up at the public's expense."

"WELL, WHAT'S wrong with that?"

"I didn't say anything was wrong with it. I'm just reading the charge."

"Two secretaries? I was stuck on my junket with my mother, father, brother-in-law, sister and a waiter from the Plaza Hotel."

"When I went to Hong Kong to study the refugee problem I took my niece and nephew, my aunt and uncle and the golf pro from my country club."

"Adam always traveled light."

"WE'D BETTER rule out that charge. Let's take up the business of Congressman Powell using his committee's air credit travel card to go back and forth between Miami and New York under the guise of congressional business."

"He should be called on that."

"By the way, where are your receipts for your last six trips to Las Vegas?"

"What about the three trips you made to Honolulu?"

"How about the week you spent in Acapulco?"

"GENTLEMEN, let not fight. It is obvious Adam had a good reason for going to Miami which he felt was in the best interests of the country not to disclose."

"Hear, hear!" the committee shouts.

"All right, gentlemen, that seems to take care of the charges. Now what do we do?"

"Let's ask Adam how he did it and got away with it."

"That's a great idea. We'll all go to Bimini this weekend and hold the rest of our committee meetings there."

"I'll call my secretary and ask her to pack her bathing suit."

"If I know Adam, he'll have bathing suits for all of us."

Teen-Age Dance Hall Permit Turned Down

A proposal to turn a vacant warehouse at 20 Front Street into a ballroom for teen-agers died last night, largely the victim of its own vagueness, at a hearing before the San Rafael Planning Commission.

Donald A. Batchelder of Mill Valley, applying for a use permit, told the commission there was need for such an establishment in Marin County, but was unable to specify the exact nature of the enterprise.

POLICE OBJECT

In answer to commissioners' questions, he said as many as a thousand might attend the proposed Friday and Saturday night dances, but then again, maybe not so many. "What it would all lead to," he said, "is hard to say at this point."

Strongest objections to the proposal came from Police Lt. Lincoln M. Borba, representing Chief Charles J. Chiesa.

Borba said large numbers of juveniles would creat crowd control problems and be disturbing to residents of a nearby apartment house. He also found the location unsuitable because of its proximity to Bermuda Palms Motel, where, he noted, liquor is sold and "adult shows" are put on.

Barbo also said there were several car sale lots nearby and that "the temptation would be too much for them not to take cars . . . possibly damaging thousands of dollars in property."

POLICE CRITICIZED

Batchelder rejoined sharply that one of the big failures of the police "is in not working with people, but in trying to control them." Batchelder said he had never encountered any instance of drunkenness or any fighting at such dance halls, as he proposed in San Francisco.

Commissioner John A. Miskimen said to Borba: "We've heard these police objections on several occasions. Just where would be a suitable place for a thing like this, as far as the police are concerned?"

Borba replied that "any isolated place" where teen-agers could "make all the noise they wanted" would be all right.

Commissioner Jorgen V. Lunding said that if there were to be such a place in San Rafael, he favored a smaller operation drawing "people from our community rather than from outside." He also said he found Batchelder's proposal insufficiently planned.

The commissioners denied the permit on Planning Director Herbert C. Hotchner's finding that inadequate parking was provided, but left the door open to future proposals for a dance hall.

The commission then gave swift approval to a use permit and architectural plans for a Standard Oil gas station at 69 Mitchell Boulevard, after receiving a letter from Standard Oil Co. of California assuring that it would install a sidewalk in front of its station at Third Street and Grand Avenue.

The permit and architectural approval had been held up at the previous meeting over the sidewalk issue, when Commissioner Thomas R. O'Toole asserted the sidewalk installation was eight years overdue. Standard Oil said it had been unaware of the obligation and moved swiftly to comply.

The San Rafael Planning Commission also:

1. Approved erection of a "Phillips 66" sign at the entrance from the bay to Loch Lomond Marina, limiting illumination to the seaward side.

2. Approved two directional signs for First Methodist Church, one on either side of Miracle Mile near Ross Valley Road, but denied a third near intersection of Fourth and Second streets.

3. Approved final map of Terra Linda Unit 1, submitted by Alameda Homes Corp.

Cong Contact Mine Is Found

NHA BE, South Vietnam (AP) — The U.S. Navy today displayed a New Year's Eve present from the Viet Cong — the first contact mine found in the main shipping channel to Saigon. The Navy said the Russians made it.

The 1,000-pounder, covered with barnacles, was one of a number of enemy mines the Navy has fished out of the Long Tau River and put on exhibit on a barge at this installation 10 miles south of Saigon.

Contact mines are exploded when a ship hits one of several horns projecting from the mine's casing.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Movie Monsters' Makeup Has Problems With Clear Speaking

VAN DELLEN

According to Peter Ward Thomas of London, constructing teeth for movie monsters creates certain problems. It means dreaming up an appliance that could not possibly be produced by nature. The device is worn over the natural teeth and must leave tongue room to allow for normal diction.

One of the actors in "Carry On Screaming," used teeth with canine fangs. When the fangs extended more than ¼-inch longer than the existing canines, the performer could not speak clearly. On the other hand, when monster dentition calls for longer fangs, the sound can be dubbed in afterwards.

ANOTHER possibility is to raise the bite by inserting a padded denture over the lower teeth. By making the upper four center teeth shorter, the fangs look much longer. The speech is clear despite the additional bulk behind the lips.

True white does not reproduce well in color film so the teeth were made of plastic colored with 50 per cent dark yellow and 50 per cent basic shade 5.

D. V. writes: "My 3-year-old knocked out a tooth and we want to know if it should be replaced. She was standing on the front seat of the car when I put on the brakes suddenly to avoid hitting another vehicle. Her head struck the top of the dash. Now she sits with the safety belt fastened securely."

MOST DENTISTS recommend a space retainer to prevent the other teeth from filling up the gap previously occupied by the missing tooth.

A Portsmouth, Va., dentist was successful in replanting a tooth that was knocked out of a 13-year-old boy who was hit in the mouth while playing. The teacher salvaged the tooth and rushed the child to the dentist's office. The tooth was replaced and 11 days later an X-ray showed that it was tight in the socket.

Similar experiences with replantation have been reported. Save the tooth and bring it to the dentist.

The unexpected happens once in a while.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.

SLEEPING SICKNESS

P. T. O. writes: What is epidemic encephalitis?

REPLY

This condition, properly called encephalitis lethargica, is inflammation of the brain resulting from a virus infection. It was formerly known as sleeping sickness because drowsiness is the most prominent symptom. Other manifestations vary widely, but headache and irritability usually are present.

ANCIENT LORE

M. C. writes: Could a girl die if she went in swimming during her period?

REPLY

Not because of her period. Menstruation is a normal process and should not slow up any activities unless indulgence in sports makes her uncomfortable. From the esthetic point of view, however, swimming is contraindicated at this time unless some protective is used.

BENIGN TUMOR

K. Z. writes: If a breast tumor proves to be benign, what is the operative procedure? I would also like to know how long it takes to recover from this operation.

REPLY

We do not know the cause of rectal cancer, but I doubt that alcoholism would have anything to do with it. Besides, cancer of the rectum is not partial to drinkers.

Today's Health Hint—Don't attempt all the holiday cleaning at one time.

Wallace Battles Federal Cash Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama told senators today "there is no discrimination practiced" in the federally assisted welfare programs administered by his state.

Wallace urged the Finance Committee to take action to void a decision of Secretary of Welfare John Gardner directing that an estimated $105 million in federal welfare funds to Alabama be terminated Feb. 28.

Gardner said Alabama is the only state which has refused to give adequate assurances it will administer the public assistance and child welfare programs without racial discrimination, and thus is in violation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

Projector Stolen

David A. Ward of 99 Spruce Road, Fairfax, reported to police Monday his home was broken into and a film projector worth $130 and a $25 ring were stolen.

Tam Service District Is Being Fought

A campaign to collect signatures on petitions opposing formation of a Tamalpais Community Services District was launched yesterday by a resident of the proposed district.

Rex S. Williams of 787 Marin Drive, Tamalpais Woods, said he and five friends in the proposed district would circulate petitions house to house. The petitions are directed to the Local Agency Formation Commission, which will re-hear the proposal March 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the supervisors' chambers.

Proposed to finance a parks and recreation program in the Tamalpais Valley area, the district would also absorb Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and provide sewage and garbage collection service. The board of supervisors last week sent the proposal back to the commission for deletion of the portion of the Dias Ranch development which lies within the Homestead Valley Sanitary District.

Williams, a real estate salesman, said 70 of his neighbors had tried to have Tamalpais Woods excluded from the district, but found that exclusion would mean they would lose sewage service. "Now we're trying to get the whole thing squelched," he said.

He suggested, that residents interested in a parks and recreation program should form a club and finance it with membership dues.

TELEVISION REVIEW

CBS-TV's Reason For Quick Switch

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—After considerable fuss, CBS-TV last night presented a light-hearted half-hour special entitled "An Essay on Women" instead of a news broadcast called "Inside North Vietnam."

Actually, the Vietnam program had been a late-scheduled substitution for the show about women, but then suddenly was withdrawn as the network explained its unique problem.

THE PROBLEM

It all started last week when CBS-TV announced that two American newsmen recently returned from North Vietnam would "narrate exclusive film of bomb-damaged civilian areas, busy Haiphong Harbor and other glimpses of life north of the 17th parallel" in the quickly scheduled news special. The network added:

"The exclusive film in black and white was taken by a Polish camera crew in November 1966. Scenes showing the impact of air raids on daily life in Hanoi and other cities, the general evacuation to the country of industrial plants, schools and hospitals, the repairing of bombed roads and bridges are included on the broadcast."

VALUE DROPS

Then on Friday CBS-TV announced that "An Essay on Women" would be reinstated for last night's showing. Of "Inside North Vietnam," it explained:

"Polish film which had been purchased with the understanding that it was for CBS News' exlusive use, was found to have been aired in the United States on at least one occasion. Its news value, CBS News feels, is therefore considerably diminished to the point where a special broadcast is not warranted."

Well, that's how it came to pass yesterday that writer-producer Andrew Rooney and narrator Harry Reasoner—who previously collaborated on essays about such inanimate objects as doors, bridges and hotels—came to pick on women for a half-hour. Their general theme was that women are fairly dissatisfied with themselves and are somewhat uncomfortable because of their theory that man's goals are better worth achieving.

POET'S HEART

Naturally, if women didn't think such things the ladies' magazines would go out of businsss, but that's beside the point—or is it? well, anyway, as the program noted concerning the many women who attend symposiums in which male lecturers tell them what's wrong with them—when did you ever hear of a few hundred men sitting and listening to a woman tell them about their problems?

As usual, the Rooney script proved that a thousand choice words are often better than a picture. He has a skeptic's eye and a poet's heart, and the skeptic dominates, which is a proper sort of balance in the long run. He did not, however, find it timely to recall H. L. Mencken's observation that the female body, viewed from the side, "inevitably suggests a drunken dollar-mark."

CHANNEL SWIM

The channel swim: A two-hour television adaptation of "Damn Yankees," the onetime Broadway musical, will be presented by NBC-TV April 8 in the time slot normally reserved for its Saturday night movies...The same network's upcoming series of specials, "Experiment in Television," will offer a production of the Off-Broadway play, "Good Day," by 26-year-old Emanuel Peluso, and starring Jo Van Fleet and Frank Langella in a story of "a young man who visits an old woman in her home in response to a job ad in the newspapers."

BIRTH CONTROL

NBC-TV's "Today" program has a two-hour broadcast about birth control Feb. 3...other "Today" highlights next week: Monday—John Gunther discusses his latest book, "Inside South America," and producer Sam Spiegel talks about his new movie, "The Night of the Generals"...Tuesday—Will Durant has a chat with Chet Huntley, and actor Robert Shaw is interviewed about his role of Henry VIII in the acclaimed movie "A Man for All Seasons"...Next Thursday, Feb. 2—actor Gary Merrill reads from the works of Carl Sandburg and Robert Frost.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court continued the armed robbery jury trial of Thurman Levi Thompson and Paul E. Bradley, scheduled yesterday, because Thompson failed to appear.

An arrest warrant for Thompson was issued. A new trial date is to be set at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Thompson, 36, of 88 Rocca Road, and Bradley, 34, of 103 Redwood Road, both of Fairfax, allegedly used a knife on Jan. 8, 1966, to rob Harold E. Pennington at the Standard Service Station, 7417 Redwood Highway, of about $75.

Last Sept. 12, Bradley failed to appear for jury trial. His $2,500 bail was forfeited. He was rearrested in Illinois and returned to Marin County jail, where he is held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Thompson's $5,500 bail has also been forfeited. New bail is $10,000.

Teacher March Goals Are Told

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A spokesman says the California Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, does not expect its Feb. 11 march on Sacramento to sway Gov. Ronald Reagan's stand on college financing.

But, said Dr. John Sperling, "It should serve notice that we will fight every step of the way in the legislature."

Sperling, president of the federation's college division, said yesterday at a news conference:

"This budget crisis is something made up of Reagan ideology in a time this state is more affluent than ever in history."

PUC Denies Extension On Tunnel

The California Public Utilities Commission yesterday denied a petition by the City of San Rafael and County of Marin to reopen its extension of time to Northwestern Pacific Railroad for restoring the Puerto Suello Tunnel.

The city and county had asked the proceedings be reopened when the railroad applied for an extension beyond the Dec. 31 deadline for reopening the tunnel. That deadline resulted from an earlier extension from last July.

The railroad asked a further extension to at least next June 30. However, the PUC on Dec. 29 granted an extension only until Feb. 28.

In denying reopening of that decision, the PUC yesterday said: "The commission's staff has made regular inspections of the work. The commission concludes no purpose would be served by reopening proceedings at this time."

Owner Ordered To Rent Unit To Negro Pair

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The State Fair Employment Practice Commission ruled yesterday that the owner of a San Jose apartment complex was guilty of racial discrimination.

The ruling ordered Howard Ruth, owner of the 354-unit Royal Lanai Apartments, to rent an apartment to a Negro, Lee Glover.

The decision was only the second such ruling since the Rumford Fair Housing Act was passed nearly four years ago.

Ruth's attorney, Roger L. Mosher of Palo Alto, said he would appeal the decision to the Santa Clara Superior Court.

Ruth told a hearing early this month that he had "nothing against Negroes or anyone else as long as they don't disrupt my economic investment."

He could not be reached for comment.

Minuteman ICBM Probe Is Success

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The launching of a Minuteman ICBM missile down the Air Force western test range yesterday was regarded as successful, the Air Force reported.

A crew from Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D., handled the launching in a routine operational test, officers said.

Strep Cases Climb To 103 Last Week

It's really the sickly season—103 cases of streptococcus infection were reported in the county last week.

Novato led the enormous list with 69 cases, with San Rafael reporting 18. San Anselmo and Belvedere-Tiburon had three each; Sausalito, Mill Valley, Corte Madera and unincorporated areas two each, and single cases in Larkspur and Fairfax.

Why so many in Novato? County Health Officer Carolyn B. Albrecht said: "There's an awful lot of kids out there, and the pediatricians may be more conscientious about reporting strep cases."

One case of the epidemic-type meningococcal meningitis was reported. Dr. Albrecht said the victim, an adult male from San Rafael, is hospitalized in San Francisco, and the isolated case is not considered potentially epidemic.

Other communicable diseases reported last week include 14 of gonorrhea; two each of mumps, syphilis and tuberculosis, and one each of salmonella, infectious hepatitis and shigella (a type of dysentery).

Witness Says Baker Due For Tax Refund

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert G. (Bobby) Baker's lawyers today introduced evidence which they said showed the former Senate kingpin was due a $686.76 tax refund for the two years during which the Government claims he evaded more than $21,000 in taxes.

The testimony came in the 13th day of Baker's trial in U.S. District Court for income tax evasion, larceny and fraud. The testimony concerned 1961 and 1962 when Baker reported $178,143.68 in income.

According to New York City accountant Milton J. Hoffman Baker failed to take advantage of legitimate deductions for losses in those years and could claim a $461.76 refund for 1961, and a $225 rebate for 1962.

The key to Hoffman's presentation was his citing a $50,000 loan to Baker in 1962 from the late millionaire Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla.

The government has charged that Baker pocketed $100,000 in political contributions during 1962, and failed to pay income taxes on them.

Baker has testified he delivered the $100,000 to Kerr and that the $50,000 was a loan from Kerr. He said Kerr wiped out the debt shortly before the senator's death on Jan. 1, 1963.

Hoffman's testimony moved the defense close to the end of its presentation and heightened the possibility that the case would go to the jury late tomorrow or Friday.

Defense witnesses Tuesdy testified that $49,950 in cash was found in Kerr's safety deposit box shortly after his death.

They also disclosed that the only times Kerr had gone to the bank for the box in 1962 were Oct. 22 and Nov. 5 —the two days Baker has said he delivered to Kerr envelopes containing cash contributions given him by California savings and loan officials.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

Movie Monsters' Makeup Has Problems With Clear Speaking

VAN DELLEN

According to Peter Ward Thomas of London, constructing teeth for movie monsters creates certain problems. It means dreaming up an appliance that could not possibly be produced by nature. The device is worn over the natural teeth and must leave tongue room to allow for normal diction.

One of the actors in "Carry On Screaming," used teeth with canine fangs. When the fangs extended more than ¼-inch longer than the existing canines, the performer could not speak clearly. On the other hand, when monster dentition calls for longer fangs, the sound can be dubbed in afterwards.

ANOTHER possibility is to raise the bite by inserting a padded denture over the lower teeth. By making the upper four center teeth shorter, the fangs look much longer. The speech is clear despite the additional bulk behind the lips.

True white does not reproduce well in color film so the teeth were made of plastic colored with 50 per cent dark yellow and 50 per cent basic shade 5.

D. V. writes: "My 3-year-old knocked out a tooth and we want to know if it should be replaced. She was standing on the front seat of the car when I put on the brakes suddenly to avoid hitting another vehicle. Her head struck the top of the dash. Now she sits with the safety belt fastened securely."

MOST DENTISTS recommend a space retainer to prevent the other teeth from filling up the gap previously occupied by the missing tooth.

A Portsmouth, Va., dentist was successful in replanting a tooth that was knocked out of a 13-year-old boy who was hit in the mouth while playing. The teacher salvaged the tooth and rushed the child to the dentist's office. The tooth was replaced and 11 days later an X-ray showed that it was tight in the socket.

Similar experiences with replantation have been reported. Save the tooth and bring it to the dentist.

The unexpected happens once in a while.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.

SLEEPING SICKNESS

P. T. O. writes: What is epidemic encephalitis?

REPLY

This condition, properly called encephalitis lethargica, is inflammation of the brain resulting from a virus infection. It was formerly known as sleeping sickness because drowsiness is the most prominent symptom. Other manifestations vary widely, but headache and irritability usually are present.

ANCIENT LORE

M. C. writes: Could a girl die if she went in swimming during her period?

REPLY

Not because of her period. Menstruation is a normal process and should not slow up any activities unless indulgence in sports makes her uncomfortable. From the esthetic point of view, however, swimming is contraindicated at this time unless some protective is used.

BENIGN TUMOR

K. Z. writes: If a breast tumor proves to be benign, what is the operative procedure? I would also like to know how long it takes to recover from this operation.

REPLY

We do not know the cause of rectal cancer, but I doubt that alcoholism would have anything to do with it. Besides, cancer of the rectum is not partial to drinkers.

Wallace Battles Federal Cash Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama told senators today "there is no discrimination practiced" in the federally assisted welfare programs administered by his state.

Wallace urged the Finance Committee to take action to void a decision of Secretary of Welfare John Gardner directing that an estimated $105 million in federal welfare funds to Alabama be terminated Feb. 28.

Gardner said Alabama is the only state which has refused to give adequate assurances it will administer the public assistance and child welfare programs without racial discrimination, and thus is in violation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

All Candidates Fail In Baseball Hall Of Fame Voting

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The baseball writers failed to elect any player to Baseball's Hall of Fame today with Joe (Ducky) Medwick, the slugging outfielder of St. Louis' Gashouse Gang, and pitcher Red Ruffing of the New York Yankees missing by just seven votes.

Medwick, Ruffing plus 29 other players will get another chance for election to the elite group this year in a run-off election with the announcement to be made in February. The run-off is not without precedent.

This year's election was a special election since some ineligible candidates had received votes last year.

But neither Medwick, who has openly campaigned for entry into the Hall, or Ruffing, who is getting his 18th and final chance to be voted in by the writers, were able to get the required 75 per cent of the 292 votes cast.

They each drew 212 votes, missing by seven of the 219 needed. Roy Campanella, the onetime catching great for the Brooklyn Dodgers who has been paralyzed from the waist down since 1958 after an auto accident, was third in the balloting with 204 votes.

Following Campanella were Lou Boudreau, longtime Cleveland shortstop, with 143 votes, Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh's slugging outfielder, 124; Enos Slaughter, St. Louis outfielder, 123; and Al Lopez, former catcher who most recently was the manager of the Chicago White Sox, 114.

Medwick, 55, has been campaigning for a spot in the Hall for years but, despite a lifetime batting average of .324 with 205 homers and 1,383 runs batted in during his 17-year major league career, always has fallen short.

Medwick had his best season during 1937 when he led the National League with 237 hits, 56 doubles, 154 runs batted in, a .374 batting average and a .988 fielding average while tying for the league lead with 31 homers.

Although he was named the league's Most Valuable Player for that performance, Medwick probably is best known for the cause celebre he precipitated during the 1934 World Series against the Detroit Tigers.

In the seventh game, won by the Cardinals 11-0, Medwick was ordered off the field in the sixth inning after he had been bombarded at his left field position by the Detroit fans with overripe fruit, vegetables, lunch boxes and newspapers.

The Tiger fans had become incensed when Medwick collided with Detroit third baseman Marv Owen. When he returned to his position in the bottom of the inning, the barrage began and Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis ordered Medwick off the field.

Medwick spent most of career with the Cardinals but finished out with Brooklyn, the New York Giants and the Boston Braves. The slugging right-handed hitter batted .300 or over for 11 consecutive seasons from 1932 to 1942.

Ruffing spent 22 seasons in the majors, struck out more batters than any other right-hander in Yankee history and had a won-lost record of 273-225 with the Yankees, Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox.

Ruffing, who won 20 games or more in four straight seasons from 1936 through 1939, pitched in seven World Series, posting a 7-2 record. During regular season action he struck out 1,987 batters.

Psychology And Salt Important Weapons For A Team Trainer

HANLEY

Psychology and salt are as important as bandages and pills to a team trainer ministering to the aches and pains of athletes. Take Leo Hughes' word for it.

"Psychology is one of the big weapons of a trainer," said Hughes who succeeded the late Frank Bowman as trainer of the Giants. "But you can never take a chance with a possible serious injury. If there is any doubt whatsoever, X-rays and an examination by a doctor are the only courses to follow.

"As for salt, I'm a great believer in it. A salt tablet a day creates better circulation for an athlete at work, keeps water in pores and prevents them from drying. Thus, muscles are kept supple and lubricated, not tense and in danger of pulls.

"A TRAINER can treat muscle spasms or pulls but a good one should teach players how to avoid them. Pulled hamstrings usually occur in spring training when players, not yet in shape, overextend themselves. And they occur during the season when players are tired."

Hughes, a native San Franciscan who was trainer for the old Seals, became trainer of the Giants' Coast League farm team at Phoenix when the club moved west in 1958. When Bowman suffered a heart attack in 1965 Hughes was appointed trainer of the big team.

WILLIE McCOVEY and most of the rest of present day Giants, excluding Willie Mays, Jim Davenport and Mike McCormick, were minor league patients of Hughes. All of them swear by Hughes as a trainer who knows his business. He should because he was a student under the famed Denny Carroll of the old Seals.

"Carroll had magic in his fingers," said Hughes. "He had moved up from the Seals to the Detroit Tigers as trainer by the time I began learning fundamentals under Bobby Johnson, Carroll's successor with the Seals.

"BUT HE STILL took care of Seals needing special treatment and I never missed an opportunity to accompany them to Boyes Springs just to watch Carroll work. He kept Tony Lazzeri in baseball even though Tony had a bad elbow. Carroll kept him going."

Hughes now keeps the Giants going. Last season when Juan Marichal sprained an ankle in Chicago the initial medical report gave Herman Franks a severe case of jitters. The word from a hospital was that the Dominican Dandy would be sidelined a month.

"I CAN'T HAVE our ace out that long," Franks told Hughes. "We just had him on the shelf for more than a week because one of his so-called pals slammed a car door on his finger."

Franks then enjoined his team trainer to "Do something!" Managers always are commanding or exhorting trainers to "Do something" whenever a player has an ache or pain.

HUGHES DEFTLY taped Marichal's ankle so that the Dominican Dandy missed only two turns.

Tam Cagers Rout Terra Linda 71-41

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Tamalpais High School's basketball team threw out an awesome display of firepower yesterday to rout the Terra Linda High School Trojans 71-41, on the Indian's court.

Leading riflemen for the Indians were Steve Woodward, Steve Johnson and Floyd Jackson, scoring 51 points between them, more than enough to do the job.

The game was close until midway in the second quarter when two technical fouls were called in the space of seconds, one against the Indians and the other against Terra Linda. The first technical went against Tam when Jackson tossed the ball in the air in disgust after a foul call. Terra Linda's Fred Smith missed the free shot.

But Smith, who was out of the game and went in to shoot the technical, hadn't checked in sufficiently with the official scorer and a technical was called against Terra Linda. Woodward shot the free throw on that one, and made it, putting the Indians in front for the first time since early in the game, 22-21. That started it.

Eight straight points by Tam and the half ended, the Injuns in front 30-21. Johnson scored two of the four buckets in that late spurt, with Jackson and center Pat Schafer hitting the other two. Terra Linda, after that technical call, seemed to fall apart at the seams. After leading 15-9 at the end of the first quarter and 20-13 during the second quarter, it looked like the Trojans were primed for an upset. But it was not to be.

Tam beat Terra Linda in the second half, 41-20.

When the smoke had cleared, Woodward came out of it as high scorer of the day, 20 points, although he hit only 7 of 26 shots from the floor. He had 6 of 8 from the free throw line. Johnson made 8 of 16 shots from the field and for 16 points and Jackson followed with 15 points, including a sizzling 7 of 9 from the field.

As a team, Tam hit 40 per cent of their floor shots to only 28 per cent for Terra Linda, a team that had hit for 58 per cent against San Rafael last Friday.

Schafer, Tam's junior center, was the team's leading rebounder with 9, and had the same number of points. Four of his points came from two very pretty hook shots back to back in the third quarter, the first with his right hand and the second with his left.

Mike Biber, Tam forward, did a good job guarding Terra Linda's Fred Smith, one of the top scorers in the league. Smith made only 4 of 18 floor shots and ended up with 12 points, with Biber guarding him closely. So close, in fact, Biber had three personals before the second period was even over. Bruce Kilby had 10 points for the Trojans and led the team in rebounds with 13.

The triumph gave the Indians a 5-0 record in Marin Athletic League play, and left the Trojans at 2-3.

By GARY TISCHLER

For almost four quarters of pure obstinacy, Marin Catholic's basketball team, which has been saved from the MCAL cellar only by the blessed presence of Novato, refused to act like a team that was too short, too young and too much of a loser to stay close with the defending champion Drake Pirates yesterday.

The Wildcats eventually did lose, 52-43, at Drake, but not before they had hounded the Pirates like a bad dream for a long, long time.

Jerry Sprout, the league's leading scorer going into the game, played out front most of the night on offense, and shot very little to wind up with just seven points, 12 points below his 19-point average. But the 6-6 Drake center made his presence on defense felt, blocking four shots and hauling in 13 rebounds.

Chet Carlisle, who had been in a prolonged slump, picked up the pace to dump in 20 points for Drake, the only Pirate in double figures. But Karl Stein had eight points, all in the last quarter, Don Alvarado nine and Stu Clemons eight points.

Paul Vickers, a six-point average carrier going into the game, sparked the Wildcats' in their patient weave offense, driving and foul-shooting for 16 points.

The Pirates had a chance to make a rout of it against the Wildcats, leading 13-7 at the end of the first quarter and 19-9 early in the second quarter. But Marin Catholic came back weave after weave and pecked away at the lead. Vickers completed a three point play to cut it back to seven then with the score 25-20 and 1:41 left in the half, Rick Rafael sank a free throw, John McCarthy tipped one in and Vickers sank two free throws after the half had ended to tie it at 25-25.

It went that way throughout the third quarter but Carlisle, who scored 9 of Drake's 11 points of the period, sank a bucket near the close of the period to make it 36-34, Drake.

The Pirates finally began to see daylight midway through the final period as Stein bombed in two straight 25-footers for a 41-37 lead. The Pirates steadily pulled away as the Wildcats failed to find the range. Marin Catholic was as close as 46-41 before the Pirates reeled off four straight points, the last two on a torrid drive by Stein to make it 50-41 with 20 seconds left. That was it.

The Pirates probably could have avoided most of their worries by being reasonably accurate on the free-throw line where they sank only 14 of 27, barely 50 per cent.

The win gave Drake a 4-1 league record, just one game behind undefeated Tam. Marin Catholic dropped to a 1-4 loop mark.

Willard Asks To Be Traded But 49ers Boss Says No

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) —San Francisco fullback Ken Willard said yesterday he has asked Lou Spadia, general manager of the National Football League 49ers, to trade him either to the Baltimore Colts or the Washington Redskins.

Willard, the NFL's fifth leading rusher last season, said he wanted to remain near his home here during the playing season and would retire rather than continue playing for the West Coast club.

"I'm not bluffing," the 230-pound fulblack told newsmen. "I'm not planning to return to the 49ers."

Willard said "I feel so strongly about this that I'm willing to stay here, to give up professional football, if necessary."

Willard, 23, said the playing conditions in San Francisco were "great" and he had enjoyed his two years with the 49ers. However, he said he was committed to his insurance business here and "it is a question of where your future is.

KEN WILLARD

"I feel I cannot contniue playing in San Francisco, give my best to the team and be happy," Willard said.

"Living and playing in this area would represent quite a financial help to me from a business standpoint. I feel that I must live in the area where I'm playing."

Willard, a star at the University of North Carolina, was the number one draft choice of the Prospectors after the 1964 football season. He was one of the league's outstanding rookies in 1965 and turned the long hurting San Francisco ground game into one of the NFL's best.

He entered the insurance business last winter.

In San Francisco, Spadia said only that he doubted such a trade could be made, especially because neither the Colts or Redskins have a running back of Willard's caliber.

Spadia said Willard had discussed the situation with him some time ago and indicated he was not convinced the big fullback was ready to retire.

Ellis Hot As Warriors Drub Bullets, 146-125

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Joe Ellis, a rookie with the San Francisco Warriors, is now a National Basketball Association guard instead of a forward.

Ellis, who has some ball handling problems, can rebound, play defense and shoot—especially shoot. The Baltimore Bullets found that out last night as Ellis canned his first eight shots from the floor in helping the Warriors win 146-125 at San Francisco Civic Auditorium.

Ellis, from the University of San Francisco and Oakland's McClymond's High School, got into the game because the regular Warrior guards are hurt. Jim King is out for two weeks with a severe charley horse and Al Attles couldn't play because of a pulled leg tendon.

Baltimore was even more hobbled in the backcourt, playing without their top scorer, Don Ohl. Coach Gene Shue kept Ohl on the bench with an injured right knee.

Rick Barry led scorers with 35 points for San Francisco, including 19 in the third quarter, a Civic Auditorium record. Nate Thurmond pulled down 28 rebounds and muffled any Bullets who came near him.

Ellis hit 10 of 13 shots from the field, most of them long jumpers, and finished with 20 points.

Gus Johnson scored 23 for Baltimore and Kevin Loughery 22.

The Warriors, who play Baltimore again on Friday, now lead the Western Division by 10½ games over St. Louis while Baltimore continues in last place in the East.

The Giants led throughout the contest but had to beat off a torrid fourth quarter Terra Nova surge, outscored in that stanza 13-18. It was 32-25 at the half.

Forwards Al Fritz and Jack Fitzhenry chipped in with 10 and 11 digits in order while Redwood was en route to a 45 per cent day from the field, (25x55). Fritz had 130 rebounds, Fritzhenry had 8 and Barry Stockwell had 8 assists.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Half back John David Crow of the San Francisco 49ers was to undergo surgery today for torn cartilege in his right knee.

San Rafael '5' Thumps Hapless Novato 77-53

By ROB HARVEY

San Rafael High School's cage team, paced by five staunch ballhawkers who were having one whale of a ball, went on a scoring binge yesterday to turn back Novato's hoopsters and even its Marin County Athletic League record at 3-3.

The Bulldogs humbled the inexperienced Hornets 77-53, rising one notch to fourth in the league standings, while Novato still is winless at 0-5.

Viewed by a small crowd estimated at 200, it was a fiercely fought battle to the final buzzer in spite of the final count.

And San Rafael's home court advantage proved to be a big one in some respects. Although the Bulldogs were called for more infractions than Novato, 20-12, it appeared the refs missed a few that would have possibly given the Hornets additional scoring momentum.

But the contest was never close and in fact at one point it looked like a vollyball game, with the Novato quint making one miscue after the other, finally yielding to 24 turnovers compared to San Rafael's 10.

Anyway, with a three-pronged offensive punch, the Bulldogs forged out to a 19-9 first quarter lead, scoring mostly on driving lay-ups. In the second quarter they did the same thing, picking off errant passes to rally to a 35-24 halftime bulge. And Roger Widmer, who topped all scores with 21, had 13 points in the first two periods, including three fastbreaking lay-ins.

That was the pattern of the game as the alert, quick and aggressive San Rafael cagers scored more than half of their points less than two feet from the bucket and gradually pulled further and further ahead.

It netted them a red-hot 50 per cent from the field (34x68) and 75 per cent from the line (9x12). Novato connected on 45 per cent of its fielders (18-44) and had 60 per cent from the free throw line (17-28).

Time was against the Hornets as the Bulldogs had built up an unsurmountable 61-45 margin early in the final stanza, but they rallied gamely and got fine

David A. Ward of 99 Spruce Road, Fairfax, reported to police Monday his home was broken into and a film projector worth $130 and a $25 ring were stolen.

Tam Service District Is Being Fought

A campaign to collect signatures on petitions opposing formation of a Tamalpais Community Services District was launched yesterday by a resident of the proposed district.

Rex S. Williams of 787 Marin Drive, Tamalpais Woods, said he and five friends in the proposed district would circulate petitions house to house. The petitions are directed to the Local Agency Formation Commission, which will re-hear the proposal March 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the supervisors' chambers.

Proposed to finance a parks and recreation program in the Tamalpais Valley area, the district would also absorb Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and provide sewage and garbage collection service. The board of supervisors last week sent the proposal back to the commission for deletion of the portion of the Dias Ranch development which lies within the Homestead Valley Sanitary District.

Williams, a real estate salesman, said 70 of his neighbors had tried to have Tamalpais Woods excluded from the district, but found that exclusion would mean they would lose sewage service. "Now we're trying to get the whole thing squelched," he said.

He suggested, that residents interested in a parks and recreation program should form a club and finance it with membership dues.

TELEVISION REVIEW

CBS-TV's Reason For Quick Switch

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—After considerable fuss, CBS-TV last night presented a light-hearted half-hour special entitled "An Essay on Women" instead of a news broadcast called "Inside North Vietnam."

Actually, the Vietnam program had been a late-scheduled substitution for the show about women, but then suddenly was withdrawn as the network explained its unique problem.

THE PROBLEM

It all started last week when CBS-TV announced that two American newsmen recently returned from North Vietnam would "narrate exclusive film of bomb-damaged civilian areas, busy Haiphong Harbor and other glimpses of life north of the 17th parallel" in the quickly scheduled news special. The network added:

"The exclusive film in black and white was taken by a Polish camera crew in November 1966. Scenes showing the impact of air raids on daily life in Hanoi and other cities, the general evacuation to the country of industrial plants, schools and hospitals, the repairing of bombed roads and bridges are included on the broadcast."

VALUE DROPS

Then on Friday CBS-TV announced that "An Essay on Women" would be reinstated for last night's showing. Of "Inside North Vietnam," it explained:

"Polish film which had been purchased with the understanding that it was for CBS News' exlusive use, was found to have been aired in the United States on at least one occasion. Its news value, CBS News feels, is therefore considerably diminished to the point where a special broadcast is not warranted."

Well, that's how it came to pass yesterday that writer-producer Andrew Rooney and narrator Harry Reasoner—who previously collaborated on essays about such inanimate objects as doors, bridges and hotels—came to pick on women for a half-hour. Their general theme was that women are fairly dissatisfied with themselves and are somewhat uncomfortable because of their theory that man's goals are better worth achieving.

POET'S HEART

Naturally, if women didn't think such things the ladies' magazines would go out of businsss, but that's beside the point—or is it? well, anyway, as the program noted concerning the many women who attend symposiums in which male lecturers tell them what's wrong with them—when did you ever hear of a few hundred men sitting and listening to a woman tell them about their problems?

As usual, the Rooney script proved that a thousand choice words are often better than a picture. He has a skeptic's eye and a poet's heart, and the skeptic dominates, which is a proper sort of balance in the long run. He did not, however, find it timely to recall H. L. Mencken's observation that the female body, viewed from the side, "inevitably suggests a drunken dollar-mark."

CHANNEL SWIM

The channel swim: A two-hour television adaptation of "Damn Yankees," the onetime Broadway musical, will be presented by NBC-TV April 8 in the time slot normally reserved for its Saturday night movies...The same network's upcoming series of specials, "Experiment in Television," will offer a production of the Off-Broadway play, "Good Day," by 26-year-old Emanuel Peluso, and starring Jo Van Fleet and Frank Langella in a story of "a young man who visits an old woman in her home in response to a job ad in the newspapers."

BIRTH CONTROL

NBC-TV's "Today" program has a two-hour broadcast about birth control Feb. 3...other "Today" highlights next week: Monday—John Gunther discusses his latest book, "Inside South America," and producer Sam Spiegel talks about his new movie, "The Night of the Generals"...Tuesday—Will Durant has a chat with Chet Huntley, and actor Robert Shaw is interviewed about his role of Henry VIII in the acclaimed movie "A Man for All Seasons"...Next Thursday, Feb. 2—actor Gary Merrill reads from the works of Carl Sandburg and Robert Frost.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court continued the armed robbery jury trial of Thurman Levi Thompson and Paul E. Bradley, scheduled yesterday, because Thompson failed to appear.

An arrest warrant for Thompson was issued. A new trial date is to be set at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Thompson, 36, of 88 Rocca Road, and Bradley, 34, of 103 Redwood Road, both of Fairfax, allegedly used a knife on Jan. 8, 1966, to rob Harold E. Pennington at the Standard Service Station, 7417 Redwood Highway, of about $75.

Last Sept. 12, Bradley failed to appear for jury trial. His $2,500 bail was forfeited. He was rearrested in Illinois and returned to Marin County jail, where he is held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Thompson's $5,500 bail has also been forfeited. New bail is $10,000.

Teacher March Goals Are Told

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A spokesman says the California Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, does not expect its Feb. 11 march on Sacramento to sway Gov. Ronald Reagan's stand on college financing.

But, said Dr. John Sperling, "It should serve notice that we will fight every step of the way in the legislature."

Sperling, president of the federation's college division, said yesterday at a news conference:

"This budget crisis is something made up of Reagan ideology in a time this state is more affluent than ever in history."

PUC Denies Extension On Tunnel

The California Public Utilities Commission yesterday denied a petition by the City of San Rafael and County of Marin to reopen its extension of time to Northwestern Pacific Railroad for restoring the Puerto Suello Tunnel.

The city and county had asked the proceedings be reopened when the railroad applied for an extension beyond the Dec. 31 deadline for reopening the tunnel. That deadline resulted from an earlier extension from last July.

The railroad asked a further extension to at least next June 30. However, the PUC on Dec. 29 granted an extension only until Feb. 28.

In denying reopening of that decision, the PUC yesterday said: "The commission's staff has made regular inspections of the work. The commission concludes no purpose would be served by reopening proceedings at this time."

Owner Ordered To Rent Unit To Negro Pair

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The State Fair Employment Practice Commission ruled yesterday that the owner of a San Jose apartment complex was guilty of racial discrimination.

The ruling ordered Howard Ruth, owner of the 354-unit Royal Lanai Apartments, to rent an apartment to a Negro, Lee Glover.

The decision was only the second such ruling since the Rumford Fair Housing Act was passed nearly four years ago.

Ruth's attorney, Roger L. Mosher of Palo Alto, said he would appeal the decision to the Santa Clara Superior Court.

Ruth told a hearing early this month that he had "nothing against Negroes or anyone else as long as they don't disrupt my economic investment."

He could not be reached for comment.

Minuteman ICBM Probe Is Success

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The launching of a Minuteman ICBM missile down the Air Force western test range yesterday was regarded as successful, the Air Force reported.

A crew from Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D., handled the launching in a routine operational test, officers said.

Celts Snap Philadelphia's Home Court Win Streak

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Red Auerbach apparently has given up the skirmish, but he still plans to win the war.

The outspoken general manager of the Boston Celtics came to Philadelphia a few hours before his team defeated the 76ers 118-106 last night and made a few pertinent observations about the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division race.

Noting that the Celtics are second in the East, nine games behind the leading 76ers, Auerbach said:

"When I coached the Washington Capitols we won the regular season title with a record of 49-11 during the 1946-47 season and got whipped in the playoffs.

"And one of my Boston teams won the Eastern Division by 14 or more games and got whipped in the playoffs."

Later, the Celtics, with Auerbach doing a little coaching from the row in back of the Boston bench, ended a nine-game Philadelphia winning streak as well as a 36-game regular season home court string of victories dating back to Jan. 7, 1966.

Sam Jones scored 38 points while the famed Boston defense held Philadelphia to 11 points in the all-important last 10 minutes. That's when Philadelphia watched a 95-94 lead melt into a 12-point loss.

Hal Greer was high for the 76ers with 23 points.

At New York, Oscar Robertson scored 37 points and handed out 11 assists in leading the Cincinnati Royals to 126-118 victory over the Knicks. Adrian Smith contributed 28 points, 21 in the second half when the Royals broke the game open. Willis Reed scored 21 for the Knicks.

The Detroit Pistons easily defeated the Bulls 108-95 at Chicago behind the 32-point effort of rookie Dave Bing. Guy Rodgers paced Chicago with 21.

On the West Coast, Rick Barry scored 35 points and Nate Thurmond pulled down 28 rebounds in sparking the San Francisco Warriors to a 146-125 victory over the Baltimore Bullets.

Auerbach admitted that Philadelphia's record of 46-5 was fantastic: "There is no taking away from their record. They've proven themselves a great ball club. They overpower you.

"We never had that kind of a team. We have to finesse to get by," he said.

He added, however, that the 76ers have been comparatively injury-free and that the last third of the season could be a lot tougher, including the playoffs.

"Come playoff time each game becomes different," Auerbach said. "You're in a different world. All the records you set during the regular season mean nothing unless you get all the marbles."

To Auerbach's warning of disaster for Philadelphia in the playoffs, 76ers' Coach Alex Hannum replied, "When I think of Boston I think of a little boy walking home through a cemetery all alone. It is dark and he hears noises. It sounds like that little boy is starting to whistle."

The NBA's two most powerful teams, the 76ers and the Celtics, now are even in their 1966-67 season play with three victories each and three still remaining — one in Philadelphia and two at Boston.

Hannum refuses to attach importance to the game against the Celtics from a won and lost standpoint. He says the main thing for the 76ers is to learn all they can about the Celtics to prove to themselves that they can beat Boston home or away.

Last night's game did nothing for the 76er's confidence and Auerbach, who used to smoke a cigar after each victory, appeared to be whistling as he left the Convention Hall.

Just like the three-three current tie, the argument both on and off the court is a stalemate.

LEAGUE PRESIDENT DISCUSSES EXPANSION

New NHL Teams May Have 3-Year Draught

NEW YORK (AP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, believes it will take three years for the NHL's six new expansion teams to reach the level of the existing clubs.

But after that, warns Campbell happily, watch out.

Campbell presided over the NHL's Board of Governors meeting which hammered out a stocking plan for the new teams in Montreal last week and, although satisfied, he was not overjoyed with it.

"I never met a generous general manager," Campbell had said after the GMs of the six current NHL teams — New York, Chicago, Toronto, Montreal, Boston and Detroit — had demanded and gotten changes in a liberal plan upon which the governors had agreed.

The general managers and governors finally worked out an expansion draft which will allow the existing clubs to protect one goalie and 11 other players before the new teams make a selection.

But Campbell, acting as "the NHL's conscience," insisted that the stocking plan provide reinforcement measures to improve the new teams after their first seasons. As a result, clubs will be allowed to protect one goalie and 14 other players in intra-league drafts in 1968 and 1969. Previously, the top four clubs were allowed to protect 18, the fifth place team 19 and the sixth place finisher 20.

That, Campbell believes, is the key for the new teams — Los Angeles, San Francisco-Oakland, Minneapolis-St. Paul, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

"The new teams won't have trouble picking out which 14 to protect but the older teams. . .they're going to have problems," Campbell told the New York Hockey Writers Association yesterday.

"I visualize definite improvement in the new teams by 1968-69 because of the backup plan," he said. "By 1970, they should have a glorious field day and I hope so."

Campbell said he believed that after three years the two divisions will be on a playing par with each other.

"And I believe," he added, "that we'll be able to have a genuinely and thoroughly competitive Stanley Cup Playoff series between the two divisions."

Campbell gave no indication that plans had been formalized for a playoff system for next season when the NHL's new teams play their first games.

State Pistol Shoot Slated In San Rafael

Policemen from throughout the state will be shooting it up in San Rafael Feb. 10. 11 and 12.

It will be the H. O. Peters Memorial Winter Championships at the San Rafael Police Pistol Range on Francisco Boulevard, expecting to draw more than 350 lawmen from throughout California.

All competition will involve pistol shooting in the state event, named in memory of the man who trained Marin officers in handling firearms for many years and the man responsible for the construction of the San Rafael pistol range.

San Rafael policemen John Riordan and Barxdal Stinson, in charge of the shoot, said the match is open to all law enforcement officers in California. Various other state agencies, including the Border Patrol and Fish and Game Department, have also been invited.

The match will include both team and individual competition among the officers. A perpetual trophy is awarded each year to the team with the highest score. Last year's winner was the Solano County Sheriff's office.

Extensive work and improvements have been made to the San Rafael range by San Rafael Police during the past year.

A separate match for Marin County officers will be held in conjunction with the state event, with separate trophies and awards. A perpetual trophy will be given by the City of San Rafael for the top shooter in Marin. The Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce award goes to the top Marin County team.

The match will be on a police combat course and will be held "rain or shine," said Riordan and Stinson. The shooting will be open to the public and held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day.

Hal Lanier Signs His Giant Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Second baseman Hal Lanier, signed yesterday by the San Francisco Giants, hit only .231 last season but hopes to have something more going for himself this year.

Lanier, 24, is the son of former St. Louis pitcher Max Lanier. He went to the Arizona Instructional League this winter and learned how to switch hit. A natural right-handed batter, Lanier batted .337 from both sides of the plate in the Arizona training.

Lanier was moved to shortstop for a while last season, benched on occasion and almost always left for a pinch-hitter in close games. He was part of a double play combination that placed ninth in the National League.

Also signed were two other second basemen, Don Mason, 22, a seldom-used rookie who had to stay on the Giant roster last year after being drafted from the Washington farm system, and Bruce Hix, 20, who batted .316 for Fresno of the California League and drove in 100 runs.

Ashe, Richey, Casals Win In Aussie Net Tournament

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — Americans fared well in third-round singles play of the Australian Tennis Championships today with Arthur Ashe and Cliff Richey advancing in men's singles and Nancy Richey and Rosemary Casals, winning their women's singles matches.

Ashe, of Richmond, Va., overpowered Will Coghlan of Australia 6-1, 6-4, 6-0 and Cliff Richey, of San Angelo, Tex., outlasted Australian Ray Ruffels 3-6, 6-3, 4-6, 9-7, 6-3.

Miss Richey, Cliff's sister, eliminated Betty Jenkins of Australia 6-3, 6-2 and Miss Casals ousted Elizabeth Fenton of Australia 6-1, 6-1.

One Emerican casualty in singles play was Jim McManus of Berkeley, who lost his third-round match to Aussie Owen Davidson. The scores were 6-4, 6-2, 6-3.

The doubles pick-up team of Dave Power of Bloomington, Ind., and Coghlan bowed in their semifinal match to Bill Bowrey of Australia and Davidson 6-1, 7-5, 6-3. The unheralded Power-Coghlan tandem had upset Ashe and Richey, America's top doubles combination yesterday.

Ashe gave a polished display of power tennis in whipping Coghlan today. The former Australian junior champion forfeited the last set.

Busy Night In San Rafael Rec Basketball Play

Indian Valley and the San Rafael Teachers had it easy without lifting a finger while Mcgraw Hill, J. Barth, Redmond Raiders and Brandon Tire all swept to one-sided victories in last night's action of the San Rafael Recreation Department Adult Basketball League.

Indian Valley and San Rafael Teachers won forfeit decisions in Class B, and A games, respectively.

In another A game, Brandon Tire thumped San Francisco Theological Seminary, 50-40, behind Roy Tallher's 13 points, although the Seminary's Jack Lee was high with 22 points.

In the only B game, McGraw Hill ran away from Stop N Go Market, 60-29 as John Silver had 15 and Terry Thomas 14.

In a pair of C games, J. Barth nicked Green Mill Inn in the closest game of the night, 48-44, behind Tom Corbett's 14 points, and Redmond Raiders downed Golden Gate, 50-36. Joe McGrath had 17 points for Green Mill Inn.

Center Mel Hein played 15 years with the New York Giants football team from 1931-1945 to set a club record for longest service.

Torrid Sub Helps Dons Top Gators

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sophomore Mike Doherty, making only his second appearance this basketball season for the University of San Francisco, started the second half last night and scored nine of 11 field goal attempts in taking the Dons from a two-point halftime lead to a 75-64 non-conference victory over San Francisco State.

Doherty added a free throw for 19 points as USF steadily pulled away in the second half after leading 28-26 at the intermission. Don Snyder led USF with 20 points while the Gators' Joe Galbo was high-point man with 24.

The Gators were much more aggressive, which led them to commit 22 personal fouls. They outscored the Dons 29-26 in field goals but were overwhelmed at the free throw line 23-6.

Marcetta's Two Goals Help Leafs Tie Seals

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Seals came up against the Marcetta vendetta again last night.

Milan Marcetta of the Victoria Maple Leafs, who scored five points against the Seals Saturday night, added two more as the teams skated to a 3-3 tie.

The game, played in Victoria, was the evening's only action in the Western Hockey League.

Marcetta, who leads the league in goal-scoring, made his first tally in the second period with Seals leading 2-0 and one of their players, John Gravel, in the penalty box.

Lou Jankowski scored for the Leafs two minutes later, intercepting a pass at center ice, to tie the score.

The Seals went ahead again in the third period but Marcetta tied it for good on a deflection of Sandy Hucul's power play point shot with Charlie Burns of the Seals out for a hooking penalty.

Ali's Day Off . . . The Silent One Has New Poetry

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay took today off from training for his Feb. 6 fight with Ernie Terrell in the Astrodome.

"My condition is just too good," he told fans.

Terrell scheduled a public workout this afternoon after holding one yesterday in secrecy.

"Terrell just ain't fast enough." Clay said yesterday, and recited a new bit of verse:

"Terrell will catch hell
"At the sound of the bell."

Strep Cases Climb To 103 Last Week

It's really the sickly season—103 cases of streptococcus infection were reported in the county last week.

Novato led the enormous list with 69 cases, with San Rafael reporting 18, San Anselmo and Belvedere-Tiburon had three each; Sausalito, Mill Valley, Corte Madera and unincorporated areas two each, and single cases in Larkspur and Fairfax.

Why so many in Novato? County Health Officer Carolyn B. Albrecht said: "There's an awful lot of kids out there, and the pediatricians may be more conscientious about reporting strep cases."

One case of the epidemic-type meningococcal meningitis was reported. Dr. Albrecht said the victim, an adult male from San Rafael, is hospitalized in San Francisco, and the isolated case is not considered potentially epidemic.

Other communicable diseases reported last week include 14 of gonorrhea; two each of mumps, syphilis and tuberculosis, and one each of salmonella, infectious hepatitis and shigella (a type of dysentery).

Witness Says Baker Due For Tax Refund

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert G. (Bobby) Baker's lawyers today introduced evidence which they said showed the former Senate kingpin was due a $686.76 tax refund for the two years during which the Government claims he evaded more than $21,000 in taxes.

The testimony came in the 13th day of Baker's trial in U.S. District Court for income tax evasion, larceny and fraud. The testimony concerned 1961 and 1962 when Baker reported $178,143.66 in income.

According to New York City accountant Milton J. Hoffman Baker failed to take advantage of legitimate deductions for losses in those years and could claim a $461.76 refund for 1961, and a $225 rebate for 1962.

The key to Hoffman's presentation was his citing a $50,000 loan to Baker in 1962 from the late millionaire Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla.

The government has charged that Baker pocketed $100,000 in political contributions during 1962, and failed to pay income taxes on them.

Baker has testified he delivered the $100,000 to Kerr and that the $50,000 was a loan from Kerr. He said Kerr wiped out the debt shortly before the senator's death on Jan. 1, 1963.

Hoffman's testimony moved the defense close to the end of its presentation and heightened the possibility that the case would go to the jury late tomorrow or Friday.

Defense witnesses Tuesdy testified that $49,950 in cash was found in Kerr's safety deposit box shortly after his death.

They also disclosed that the only times Kerr had gone to the bank for the box in 1962 were Oct. 22 and Nov. 5 —the two days Baker has said he delivered to Kerr envelopes containing cash contributions given him by California savings and loan officials.

Donaldson Twins Quite A Mighty Mite Wrestling Duo

By GARY TISCHLER

Ninety-eight or one hundred and six pounds are nice weights for growing boys. If you're eight years old.

But if you're sophomore in high school, it's something else again. Just looking at you makes a 145-pound weakling feel strong. You don't dare step out of the house on a windy day. The cooks keep feeding you quarter portions in the lunchline. If they tied a balloon string around your finger, you'd be an astronaut. The welfare people want to know what orphanage you were in last. And somebody is always asking you for the direction to Snow White's house.

WATCH OUT

But if you happened to ask either Kirt or Ken Donaldson, choose your words carefully. You may find yourself in a knotty tangle that only a top-flight high school wrestler knows how to tie.

Kirt (98 pounds) and Ken (106 pounds) combine with 114-pounder Steve Collins to give Novato wrestling coach Ralph Cutler the most devastating opening act since Gypsy Rose Lee dropped a glove on a vaudeville ramp.

Kirt, the least experienced of the Fantastic Three, has won 16 matches, Kent has won 13 and Collins 10, this year, None of them has lost.

Kirt and Ken Donaldson can catch their opponents coming and going. By the time Kirt has polished off his unfortunate victim, the next man up will think he's getting a double dose. The two, sons of Maj. and Mrs. Jack Donaldson of Hamilton Air Force Base, are twins. They have been double trouble ever since they appeared on the Novato wrestling horizon.

UNBEATEN

They, and Collins, are in no small way responsible for Novato's unblemished 10-0 dual meet and 410 Marin County Athletic League record this year.

There are very few differences between them. Both have left permanent shoulder imprints of their pin victims all over Bay Area mats. Kirt has pinned 12 of 16, Ken 12 of 13.

Kirt, who started late in wrestling, is still not so sure of his considerable talents.

" I have to work on my takedowns," he said. "At the start of the season, I still didn't have enough confidence."

After 16 straight, he may be getting his confidence.

WEIGHT

Perhaps the biggest problem both boys have is the bane of all weight level wrestlers. Wrestlers fret about weight more than ballet dancers, faded movie queens or wind-thin Vogue cover girls. A 98-pounder who weighs in at 100 pounds is not only fat but disqualified from the match. It would be like Liz Taylor losing the Cleopatra part to Phyllis Diller because of a two-pound headpiece.

Keeping weight is part of a torturous path to excellence.

"We have a glass of water and something light before matches," Ken said. "We try not to go past hamburger stands. Sometimes we watch food commercials and suffer."

After a match, like a wine taster who hasn't been in a cellar for years, the boys make up for lost crumbs by eating, only to have to do it all over again.

FROM COLORADO

The twins hail most recently from Colorado, where the weather is cold and the wrestling programs are well developed, starting from the junior high school levels.

It was in Colorado that Ken first started wrestling on the junior high level. Kirt did not start until last year, when he and Ken made the Novato varsity.

Both boys credit Cutler, who is generally considered the dean of high school wrestling in Marin, with a large part of their success.

"Mr. Cutler has done a lot for us," both boys echoed. "He constantly teaches us new holds, different variations and new things in practice."

SAME WEIGHT

When the MCAL and North Coast tournaments roll around this year, a unique situation may develop. There will be two competitors from the same school and family at 98 pounds.

Ken is going to drop down to 98 pounds. He and Kirt will be vying for the same title in both tournaments. But since the top two finishers in each weight class advance to the state tournament from the North Coast tourney, Marin could have two competitors from the same weight class at the state finals.

Rain May Help L.A. Open

Independent-Journal Sports

Wed., Jan. 25, 1967 43

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rain may help the usually dry Los Angeles Open golf tournament—providing the downpour doesn't continue tomorrow, opening day.

Last week, observers said the Rancho Park municipal course fairways seemed too hard and would have been easy marks for the long-hitting pros. Since then, Los Angeles has had a good drenching. So good that several fairways were under water yesterday, but the forecast was for clearing skies.

Favorites in the 142-man Open field are, of course, Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper. Nicklaus just picked up $16,000 by winning the Bing Crosby tournament on the Monterey Peninsula, and Palmer and Casper were not far behind.

Palmer, in particular, should be looking forward to the $100,000 Los Angeles Open. It was in the third round of the Open last year at Rancho Park that he shot 29 on nine holes, totalling 62 for 18 holes, both records for the 1966 pro tour.

Palmer has won the Open twice, with 273 last year and 274 in 1963.

Nicklaus will be on hand for the first time in five years. He turned pro at this tournament in 1962 but hasn't been back since.

Casper, the 1966 golfer of the year, is seeking his first Los Angeles Open victory.

All top 10 money winners and 45 of the top 50 from 1966 will attack the 6,821 - yard layout, which has par of 36-35—71.

All but 18 spots in the field have been filled by players exempt from qualifying. The rain washed out qualifying yesterday so it was rescheduled with the pro-amateur tourney today.

This will be the third stop on the 1967 tour. The San Diego Open kicked things off, and the Crosby event wound up Sunday.

All Candidates Fail In Baseball Hall Of Fame Voting

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The baseball writers failed to elect any player to Baseball's Hall of Fame today with Joe (Ducky) Medwick, the slugging outfielder of St. Louis' Gashouse Gang, and pitcher Red Ruffing of the New York Yankees missing by just seven votes.

Medwick, Ruffing plus 29 other players will get another chance for election to the elite group this year in a run-off election with the announcement to be made in February. The run-off is not without precedent.

This year's election was a special election since some ineligible candidates had received votes last year.

But neither Medwick, who has openly campaigned for entry into the Hall, or Ruffing, who is getting his 18th and final chance to be voted in by the writers, were able to get the required 75 per cent of the 292 votes cast.

They each drew 212 votes, missing by seven of the 219 needed. Roy Campanella, the onetime catching great for the Brooklyn Dodgers who has been paralyzed from the waist down since 1958 after an auto accident, was third in the balloting with 204 votes.

Following Campanella were Lou Boudreau, longtime Cleveland shortstop, with 143 votes, Ralph Kiner, Pittsburgh's slugging outfielder, 124; Enos Slaughter, St. Louis outfielder, 123; and Al Lopez, former catcher who most recently was the manager of the Chicago White Sox, 114.

Medwick, 55, has been campaigning for a spot in the Hall for years but, despite a lifetime batting average of .324 with 205 homers and 1,383 runs batted in during his 17-year major league career, always has fallen short.

Medwick had his best season during 1937 when he led the National League with 237 hits, 56 doubles, 154 runs batted in, a .374 batting average and a .988 fielding average while tying for the league lead with 31 homers.

Although he was named the league's Most Valuable Player for that performance, Medwick probably is best known for the cause celebre he precipitated during the 1934 World Series against the Detroit Tigers.

In the seventh game, won by the Cardinals 11-0, Medwick was ordered off the field in the sixth inning after he had been bombarded at his left field position by the Detroit fans with overripe fruit, vegetables, lunch boxes and newspapers.

The Tiger fans had become incensed when Medwick collided with Detroit third baseman Marv Owen. When he returned to his position in the bottom of the inning, the barrage began and Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis ordered Medwick off the field.

Medwick spent most of career with the Cardinals but finished out with Brooklyn, the New York Giants and the Boston Braves. The slugging right-handed hitter batted .300 or over for 11 consecutive seasons from 1932 to 1942.

Ruffing spent 22 seasons in the majors, struck out more batters than any other right-hander in Yankee history and had a won-lost record of 273-225 with the Yankees, Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox.

Ruffing, who won 20 games or more in four straight seasons from 1936 through 1939, pitched in seven World Series, posting a 7-2 record. During regular season action he struck out 1,987 batters.

Psychology And Salt Important Weapons For A Team Trainer

HANLEY

Psychology and salt are as important as bandages and pills to a team trainer ministering to the aches and pains of athletes. Take Leo Hughes' word for it.

"Psychology is one of the big weapons of a trainer," said Hughes who succeeded the late Frank Bowman as trainer of the Giants. "But you can never take a chance with a possible serious injury. If there is any doubt whatsoever, X-rays and an examination by a doctor are the only courses to follow.

"As for salt, I'm a great believer in it. A salt tablet a day creates better circulation for an athlete at work, keeps water in pores and prevents them from drying. Thus, muscles are kept supple and lubricated, not tense and in danger of pulls.

"A TRAINER can treat muscle spasms or pulls but a good one should teach players how to avoid them. Pulled hamstrings usually occur in spring training when players, not yet in shape, overextend themselves. And they occur during the season when players are tired."

Hughes, a native San Franciscan who was trainer for the old Seals, became trainer of the Giants' Coast League farm team at Phoenix when the club moved west in 1958. When Bowman suffered a heart attack in 1965 Hughes was appointed trainer of the big team.

WILLIE McCOVEY and most of the rest of present day Giants, excluding Willie Mays, Jim Davenport and Mike McCormick, were minor league patients of Hughes. All of them swear by Hughes as a trainer who knows his business. He should because he was a student under the famed Denny Carroll of the old Seals.

"Carroll had magic in his fingers," said Hughes. "He had moved up from the Seals to the Detroit Tigers as trainer by the time I began learning fundamentals under Bobby Johnson, Carroll's successor with the Seals.

"BUT HE STILL took care of Seals needing special treatment and I never missed an opportunity to accompany them to Boyes Springs just to watch Carroll work. He kept Tony Lazzeri in baseball even though Tony had a bad elbow. Carroll kept him going."

Hughes now keeps the Giants going. Last season when Juan Marichal sprained an ankle in Chicago the initial medical report gave Herman Franks a severe case of jitters. The word from a hospital was that the Dominican Dandy would be sidelined a month.

"I CAN'T HAVE our ace out that long," Franks told Hughes. "We just had him on the shelf for more than a week because one of his so-called pals slammed a car door on his finger."

Franks then enjoined his team trainer to "Do something!" Managers always are commanding or exhorting trainers to "Do something" whenever a player has an ache or pain.

HUGHES DEFTLY taped Marichal's ankle so that the Dominican Dandy missed only two turns.

Tam Cagers Rout Terra Linda 71-41

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Tamalpais High School's basketball team threw out an awesome display of firepower yesterday to rout the Terra Linda High School Trojans 71-41, on the Indian's court.

Leading riflemen for the Indians were Steve Woodward, Steve Johnson and Floyd Jackson, scoring 51 points between them, more than enough to do the job.

The game was close until midway in the second quarter when two technical fouls were called in the space of seconds, one against the Indians and the other against Terra Linda. The first technical went against Tam when Jackson tossed the ball in the air in disgust after a foul call. Terra Linda's Fred Smith missed the free shot.

But Smith, who was out of the game and went in to shoot the technical, hadn't checked in sufficiently with the official scorer and a technical was called against Terra Linda. Woodward shot the free throw on that one, and made it, putting the Indians in front for the first time since early in the game, 22-21. That started it.

Eight straight points by Tam and the half ended, the Injuns in front 30-21. Johnson scored two of the four buckets in that late spurt, with Jackson and center Pat Schafer hitting the other two. Terra Linda, after that technical call, seemed to fall apart at the seams. After leading 15-9 at the end of the first quarter and 20-13 during the second quarter, it looked like the Trojans were primed for an upset. But it was not to be.

Tam beat Terra Linda in the second half, 41-20.

When the smoke had cleared, Woodward came out of it as high scorer of the day, 20 points, although he hit only 7 of 26 shots from the floor. He had 6 of 8 from the free throw line. Johnson made 8 of 16 shots from the field and for 16 points and Jackson followed with 15 points, including a sizzling 7 of 9 from the field.

As a team, Tam hit 40 per cent of their floor shots to only 28 per cent for Terra Linda, a team that had hit for 58 per cent against San Rafael last Friday.

Schafer, Tam's junior center, was the team's leading rebounder with 9, and had the same number of points. Four of his points came from two very pretty hook shots back to back in the third quarter, the first with his right hand and the second with his left.

Mike Biber, Tam forward, did a good job guarding Terra Linda's Fred Smith, one of the top scorers in the league. Smith made only 4 of 18 floor shots and ended up with 12 points, with Biber guarding him closely. So close, in fact, Biber had three personals before the second period was even over. Bruce Kilby had 10 points for the Trojans and led the team in rebounds with 13.

The triumph gave the Indians a 5-0 record in Marin Athletic League play, and left the Trojans at 2-3.

By GARY TISCHLER

For almost four quarters of pure obstinacy, Marin Catholic's basketball team, which has been saved from the MCAL cellar only by the blessed presence of Novato, refused to act like a team that was too short, too young and too much of a loser to stay close with the defending champion Drake Pirates yesterday.

The Wildcats eventually did lose, 52-43, at Drake, but not before they had hounded the Pirates like a bad dream for a long, long time.

Jerry Sprout, the league's leading scorer going into the game, played out front most of the night on offense, and shot very little to wind up with just seven points, 12 points below his 19-point average. But the 6-6 Drake center made his presence on defense felt, blocking four shots and hauling in 13 rebounds.

Chet Carlisle, who had been in a prolonged slump, picked up the pace to dump in 20 points for Drake, the only Pirate in double figures. But Karl Stein had eight points, all in the last quarter, Don Alvarado nine and Stu Clemons eight points.

Paul Vickers, a six-point average carrier going into the game, sparked the Wildcats' in their patient weave offense, driving and foul-shooting for 16 points.

The Pirates had a chance to make a rout of it against the Wildcats, leading 13-7 at the end of the first quarter and 19-9 early in the second quarter. But Marin Catholic came back weave after weave and pecked away at the lead. Vickers completed a three point play to cut it back to seven then with the score 25-20 and 1:41 left in the half, Rick Rafael sank a free throw, John McCarthy tipped one in and Vickers sank two free throws after the half had ended to tie it at 25-25.

It went that way throughout the third quarter but Carlisle, who scored 9 of Drake's 11 points of the period, sank a bucket near the close of the period to make it 36-34, Drake.

The Pirates finally began to see daylight midway through the final period as Stein bombed in two straight 25-footers for a 41-37 lead. The Pirates steadily pulled away as the Wildcats failed to find the range. Marin Catholic was as close as 46-41 before the Pirates reeled off four straight points, the last two on a torrid drive by Stein to make it 50-41 with 20 seconds left. That was it.

The Pirates probably could have avoided most of their worries by being reasonably accurate on the free-throw line where they sank only 14 of 27, barely 50 per cent.

The win gave Drake a 4-1 league record, just one game behind undefeated Tam. Marin Catholic dropped to a 1-4 loop mark.

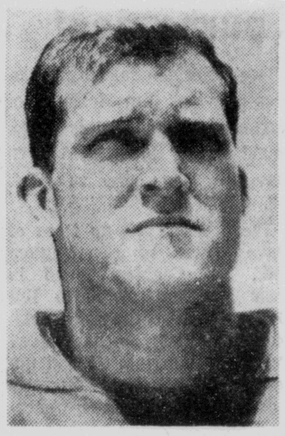
Willard Asks To Be Traded But 49ers Boss Says No



KEN WILLARD

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) —San Francisco fullback Ken Willard said yesterday he has asked Lou Spadia, general manager of the National Football League 49ers, to trade him either to the Baltimore Colts or the Washington Redskins.

Willard, the NFL's fifth leading rusher last season, said he wanted to remain near his home here during the playing season and would retire rather than continue playing for the West Coast club.

"I'm not bluffing," the 230-pound fullback told newsmen. "I'm not planning to return to the 49ers."

Willard said "I feel so strongly about this that I'm willing to stay here, to give up professional football, if necessary."

Willard, 23, said the playing conditions in San Francisco were "great" and he had enjoyed his two years with the 49ers. However, he said he was committed to his insurance business here and "it is a question of where your future is.

"I feel I cannot contniue playing in San Francisco, give my best to the team and be happy," Willard said.

"Living and playing in this area would represent quite a financial help to me from a business standpoint. I feel that I must live in the area where I'm playing."

Willard, a star at the University of North Carolina, was the number one draft choice of the Prospectors after the 1964 football season. He was one of the league's outstanding rookies in 1965 and turned the long hurting San Francisco ground game into one of the NFL's best.

He entered the insurance business last winter.

In San Francisco, Spadia said only that he doubted such a trade could be made, especially because neither the Colts or Redskins have a running back of Willard's caliber.

Spadia said Willard had discussed the situation with him some time ago and indicated he was not convinced the big fullback was ready to retire.

Ellis Hot As Warriors Drub Bullets, 146-125

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Joe Ellis, a rookie with the San Francisco Warriors, is now a National Basketball Association guard instead of a forward.

Ellis, who has some ball handling problems, can rebound, play defense and shoot—especially shoot. The Baltimore Bullets found that out last night as Ellis canned his first eight shots from the floor in helping the Warriors win 146-125 at San Francisco Civic Auditorium.

Ellis, from the University of San Francisco and Oakland's McClymond's High School, got into the game because the regular Warrior guards are hurt. Jim King is out for two weeks with a severe charley horse and Al Attles couldn't play because of a pulled leg tendon.

Baltimore was even more hobbled in the backcourt, playing without their top scorer, Don Ohl. Coach Gene Shue kept Ohl on the bench with an injured right knee.

Rick Barry led scorers with 35 points for San Francisco, including 19 in the third quarter, a Civic Auditorium record. Nate Thurmond pulled down 28 rebounds and muffled any Bullets who came near him.

Ellis hit 10 of 13 shots from the field, most of them long jumpers, and finished with 20 points.

Gus Johnson scored 23 for Baltimore and Kevin Loughery 22.

The Warriors, who play Baltimore again on Friday, now lead the Western Division by 10½ games over St. Louis while Baltimore continues in last place in the East.

Horn's Free Throw Gives Redwood 58-57 Squeaker

Redwood High's Giants nudged past Terra Nova 58-57 yesterday afternoon as guard Andre Horn poured in 24 points to spark the non-league basketball triumph, including the clincher from the free throw line with one second remaining, at Pacifica.

The Giants led throughout the contest but had to beat off a torrid fourth quarter Terra Nova surge, outscored in that stanza 13-18. It was 32-25 at the half.

Forwards Al Fritz and Jack Fitzhenry chipped in with 10 and 11 digits in order while Redwood was en route to a 45 per cent day from the field, (25x55). Fritz had 130 rebounds, Fritzhenry had 8 and Barry Stockwell had 8 assists.

San Rafael '5' Thumps Hapless Novato 77-53

By ROB HARVEY

San Rafael High School's cage team, paced by five staunch ballhawkers who were having one whale of a ball, went on a scoring binge yesterday to turn back Novato's hoopsters and even its Marin County Athletic League record at 3-3.

The Bulldogs humbled the inexperienced Hornets 77-53, rising one notch to fourth in the league standings, while Novato still is winless at 0-5.

Viewed by a small crowd estimated at 200, it was a fiercely fought battle to the final buzzer in spite of the final count.

And San Rafael's home court advantage proved to be a big one in some respects. Although the Bulldogs were called for more infractions than Novato, 20-12, it appeared the refs missed a few that would have possibly given the Hornets additional scoring momentum.

But the contest was never close and in fact at one point it looked like a vollyball game, with the Novato quint making one miscue after the other, finally yielding to 24 turnovers compared to San Rafael's 10.

Anyway, with a three-pronged offensive punch, the Bulldogs forged out to a 19-9 first quarter lead, scoring mostly on driving lay-ups. In the second quarter they did the same thing, picking off errant passes to rally to a 35-24 halftime bulge. And Roger Widmer, who topped all scores with 21, had 13 points in the first two periods, including three fastbreaking lay-ins.

That was the pattern of the game as the alert, quick and aggressive San Rafael cagers scored more than half of their points less than two feet from the bucket and gradually pulled further and further ahead.

It netted them a red-hot 50 per cent from the field (34x68) and 75 per cent from the line (9x12). Novato connected on 45 per cent of its fielders (18-44) and had 60 per cent from the free throw line (17-28).

Time was against the Hornets as the Bulldogs had built up an unsurmountable 61-45 margin early in the final stanza, but they rallied gamely and got fine

Celts Snap Philadelphia's Home Court Win Streak

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Red Auerbach apparently has given up the skirmish, but he still plans to win the war.

The outspoken general manager of the Boston Celtics came to Philadelphia a few hours before his team defeated the 76ers 118-106 last night and made a few pertinent observations about the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division race.

Noting that the Celtics are second in the East, nine games behind the leading 76ers, Auerbach said:

"When I coached the Washington Capitols we won the regular season title with a record of 49-11 during the 1946-47 season and got whipped in the playoffs.

"And one of my Boston teams won the Eastern Division by 14 or more games and got whipped in the playoffs."

Later, the Celtics, with Auerbach doing a little coaching from the row in back of the Boston bench, ended a nine-game Philadelphia winning streak as well as a 36-game regular season home court string of victories dating back to Jan. 7, 1966.

Sam Jones scored 38 points while the famed Boston defense held Philadelphia to 11 points in the all-important last 10 minutes. That's when Philadelphia watched a 95-94 lead melt into a 12-point loss.

Hal Greer was high for the 76ers with 23 points.

At New York, Oscar Robertson scored 37 points and handed out 11 assists in leading the Cincinnati Royals to 126-118 victory over the Knicks. Adrian Smith contributed 28 points, 21 in the second half when the Royals broke the game open. Willis Reed scored 21 for the Knicks.

The Detroit Pistons easily defeated the Bulls 108-95 at Chicago behind the 32-point effort of rookie Dave Bing. Guy Rodgers paced Chicago with 21.

On the West Coast, Rick Barry scored 35 points and Nate Thurmond pulled down 28 rebounds in sparking the San Francisco Warriors to a 146-125 victory over the Baltimore Bullets.

Auerbach admitted that Philadelphia's record of 46-5 was fantastic: "There is no taking away from their record. They've proven themselves a great ball club. They overpower you.

"We never had that kind of a team. We have to finesse to get by," he said.

He added, however, that the 76ers have been comparatively injury-free and that the last third of the season could be a lot tougher, including the playoffs.

"Come playoff time each game becomes different," Auerbach said. "You're in a different world. All the records you set during the regular season mean nothing unless you get all the marbles."

To Auerbach's warning of disaster for Philadelphia in the playoffs, 76ers' Coach Alex Hannum replied, "When I think of Boston I think of a little boy walking home through a cemetery all alone. It is dark and he hears noises. It sounds like that little boy is starting to whistle."

The NBA's two most powerful teams, the 76ers and the Celtics, now are even in their 1966-67 season play with three victories each and three still remaining — one in Philadelphia and two at Boston.

Hannum refuses to attach importance to the game against the Celtics from a won and lost standpoint. He says the main thing for the 76ers is to learn all they can about the Celtics to prove to themselves that they can beat Boston home or away.

Last night's game did nothing for the 76er's confidence and Auerbach, who used to smoke a cigar after each victory, appeared to be whistling as he left the Convention Hall.

Just like the three-three current tie, the argument both on and off the court is a stalemate.

LEAGUE PRESIDENT DISCUSSES EXPANSION

New NHL Teams May Have 3-Year Draught

NEW YORK (AP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, believes it will take three years for the NHL's six new expansion teams to reach the level of the existing clubs.

But after that, warns Campbell happily, watch out.

Campbell presided over the NHL's Board of Governors meeting which hammered out a stocking plan for the new teams in Montreal last week and, although satisfied, he was not overjoyed with it.

"I never met a generous general manager," Campbell had said after the GMs of the six current NHL teams — New York, Chicago, Toronto, Montreal, Boston and Detroit — had demanded and gotten changes in a liberal plan upon which the governors had agreed.

The general managers and governors finally worked out an expansion draft which will allow the existing clubs to protect one goalie and 11 other players before the new teams make a selection.

But Campbell, acting as "the NHL's conscience," insisted that the stocking plan provide reinforcement measures to improve the new teams after their first seasons. As a result, clubs will be allowed to protect one goalie and 14 other players in intra-league drafts in 1968 and 1969. Previously, the top four clubs were allowed to protect 18, the fifth place team 19 and the sixth place finisher 20.

That, Campbell believes, is the key for the new teams — Los Angeles, San Francisco-Oakland, Minneapolis-St. Paul, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

"The new teams won't have trouble picking out which 14 to protect but the older teams...they're going to have problems," Campbell told the New York Hockey Writers Association yesterday.

"I visualize definite improvement in the new teams by 1968-69 because of the backup plan," he said. "By 1970, they should have a glorious field day and I hope so."

Campbell said he believed that after three years the two divisions will be on a playing par with each other.

"And I believe," he added, "that we'll be able to have a genuinely and thoroughly competitive Stanley Cup Playoff series between the two divisions."

Campbell gave no indication that plans had been formalized for a playoff system for next season when the NHL's new teams play their first games.

State Pistol Shoot Slated In San Rafael

Policemen from throughout the state will be shooting it up in San Rafael Feb. 10, 11 and 12.

It will be the H. O. Peters Memorial Winter Championships at the San Rafael Police Pistol Range on Francisco Boulevard, expecting to draw more than 350 lawmen from throughout California.

All competition will involve pistol shooting in the state event, named in memory of the man who trained Marin officers in handling firearms for many years and the man responsible for the construction of the San Rafael pistol range.

San Rafael policemen John Riordan and Barxdal Stinson, in charge of the shoot, said the match is open to all law enforcement officers in California. Various other state agencies, including the Border Patrol and Fish and Game Department, have also been invited.

The match will include both team and individual competition among the officers. A perpetual trophy is awarded each year to the team with the highest score. Last year's winner was the Solano County Sheriff's office.

Extensive work and improvements have been made to the San Rafael range by San Rafael Police during the past year.

A separate match for Marin County officers will be held in conjunction with the state event, with separate trophies and awards. A perpetual trophy will be given by the City of San Rafael for the top shooter in Marin. The Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce award goes to the top Marin County team.

The match will be on a police combat course and will be held "rain or shine," said Riordan and Stinson. The shooting will be open to the public and held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day.

Torrid Sub Helps Dons Top Gators

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Sophomore Mike Doherty, making only his second appearance this basketball season for the University of San Francisco, started the second half last night and scored nine of 11 field goal attempts in taking the Dons from a two-point halftime lead to a 75-64 non-conference victory over San Francisco State.

Doherty added a free throw for 19 points as USF steadily pulled away in the second half after leading 28-26 at the intermission. Don Snyder led USF with 20 points while the Gators' Joe Galbo was high-point man with 24.

The Gators were much more aggressive, which led them to commit 22 personal fouls. They outscored the Dons 29-26 in field goals but were overwhelmed at the free throw line 23-6.

Hal Lanier Signs His Giant Pact

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Second baseman Hal Lanier, signed yesterday by the San Francisco Giants, hit only .231 last season but hopes to have something more going for himself this year.

Lanier, 24, is the son of former St. Louis pitcher Max Lanier. He went to the Arizona Instructional League this winter and learned how to switch hit. A natural right-handed batter, Lanier batted .337 from both sides of the plate in the Arizona training.

Lanier was moved to shortstop for a while last season, benched on occasion and almost always left for a pinch-hitter in close games. He was part of a double play combination that placed ninth in the National League.

Also signed were two other second basemen, Don Mason, 22, a seldom-used rookie who had to stay on the Giant roster last year after being drafted from the Washington farm system, and Bruce Hix, 20, who batted .316 for Fresno of the California League and drove in 100 runs.

Marcetta's Two Goals Help Leafs Tie Seals

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Seals came up against the Marcetta vendetta again last night.

Milan Marcetta of the Victoria Maple Leafs, who scored five points against the Seals Saturday night, added two more as the teams skated to a 3-3 tie.

The game, played in Victoria, was the evening's only action in the Western Hockey League.

Marcetta, who leads the league in goal-scoring, made his first tally in the second period with Seals leading 2-0 and one of their players, John Gravel, in the penalty box.

Lou Jankowski scored for the Leafs two minutes later, intercepting a pass at center ice, to tie the score.

The Seals went ahead again in the third period but Marcetta tied it for good on a deflection of Sandy Hucul's power play point shot with Charlie Burns of the Seals out for a hooking penalty.

"My condition is just too good," he told fans.

Terrell scheduled a public workout this afternoon after holding one yesterday in secrecy.

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 25, the 25th day of 1967 with 340 to follow.

The moon is approaching the full stage. The morning stars are Mars and Jupiter. The evening stars are Venus, Saturn and Jupiter.

British author Somerset Maugham was born on this day in 1874.

On this day in history:

In 1787, a revolutionary war Army captain, Daniel Shay, led 2,000 debt-ridden men against the federal arsenal in Springfield, Mass., hoping to overthrow the government. It was broken up.

In 1890, the United Mine Workers Union was formed and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

In 1915, Alexander Graham Bell opened the first cross-country telephone service.

In 1966, President Johnson named the first Negro women to a federal district judgeship in New York-Mrs. Constance Baker Motley.

A thought for the day — English statesman Benjamin Disraeli said: "Man is not the creature of circumstance. Circumstances are the creatures of men.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

More Than One Good Maneuver Necessary To Win This Hand

In the average bridge hand one good play is decisive.

You make the key play, and the rest of the hand is just a matter of following suit.

No. 3147 .....Jan. 25, 1967

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	All Pass

Opening lead — ♣ 2

This is the easiest of a series of fine defensive plays needed to defeat four spades.

SOUTH'S MOVE

WEST WINS

South leads his low diamond, and West wins with the jack, thanks to East's careful unblock.

West can get out safely by leading his last diamond, forcing South to ruff.

If West played a low heart, declarer would play low from dummy.

East would have to win, and then the forced heart or club return from East would allow declarer to reach dummy.

If declarer plays the queen of hearts from dummy, East wins with the king and can easily develop the setting trick in hearts.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold:

♠ K 3 2
♥ K J 9
♦ Q 10 9
♣ A 8 5 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid 2 notrump. This forcing bid shows 13 to 15 points in high cards, balanced distribution, and strength in all unbid suits.

The alternative is to jump to three spades, not attractive when you have only three spades and no short suit.

Donaldson Twins Quite A Mighty Mite Wrestling Duo

By GARY TISCHLER

Ninety-eight or one hundred and six pounds are nice weights for growing boys. If you're eight years old.

But if you're sophomore in high school, it's something else again. Just looking at you makes a 145-pound weakling feel strong. You don't dare step out of the house on a windy day. The cooks keep feeding you quarter portions in the lunchline. If they tied a balloon string around your finger, you'd be an astronaut. The welfare people want to know what orphanage you were in last. And somebody is always asking you for the direction to Snow White's house.

WATCH OUT

But if you happened to ask either Kirt or Ken Donaldson, choose your words carefully. You may find yourself in a knotty tangle that only a top-flight high school wrestler knows how to tie.

Kirt (98 pounds) and Ken (106 pounds) combine with 114-pounder Steve Collins to give Novato wrestling coach Ralph Cutler the most devastating opening act since Gypsy Rose Lee dropped a glove on a vaudeville ramp.

Kirt, the least experienced of the Fantastic Three, has won 16 matches, Kent has won 13 and Collins 10, this year, None of them has lost.

Kirt and Ken Donaldson can catch their opponents coming and going. By the time Kirt has polished off his unfortunate victim, the next man up will think he's getting a double dose. The two, sons of Maj. and Mrs. Jack Donaldson of Hamilton Air Force Base, are twins. They have been double trouble ever since they appeared on the Novato wrestling horizon.

UNBEATEN

They, and Collins, are in no small way responsible for Novato's unblemished 10-0 dual meet and 410 Marin County Athletic League record this year.

There are very few differences between them. Both have left permanent shoulder imprints of their pin victims all over Bay Area mats. Kirt has pinned 12 of 16, Ken 12 of 13.

Kirt, who started late in wrestling, is still not so sure of his considerable talents.

" I have to work on my takedowns," he said. "At the start of the season, I still didn't have enough confidence."

After 16 straight, he may be getting his confidence.

WEIGHT

Perhaps the biggest problem both boys have is the bane of all weight level wrestlers. Wrestlers fret about weight more than ballet dancers, faded movie queens or wind-thin Vogue cover girls. A 98-pounder who weighs in at 100 pounds is not only fat but disqualified from the match. It would be like Liz Taylor losing the Cleopatra part to Phyllis Diller because of a two-pound headpiece.

Keeping weight is part of a torturous path to excellence.

"We have a glass of water and something light before matches," Ken said. "We try not to go past hamburger stands. Sometimes we watch food commercials and suffer."

After a match, like a wine taster who hasn't been in a cellar for years, the boys make up for lost crumbs by eating, only to have to do it all over again.

FROM COLORADO

The twins hail most recently from Colorado, where the weather is cold and the wrestling programs are well developed, starting from the junior high school levels.

It was in Colorado that Ken first started wrestling on the junior high level. Kirt did not start until last year, when he and Ken made the Novato varsity.

Both boys credit Cutler, who is generally considered the dean of high school wrestling in Marin, with a large part of their success.

"Mr. Cutler has done a lot for us," both boys echoed. "He constantly teaches us new holds, different variations and new things in practice."

SAME WEIGHT

When the MCAL and North Coast tournaments roll around this year, a unique situation may develop. There will be two competitors from the same school and family at 98 pounds.

Ken is going to drop down to 98 pounds. He and Kirt will be vying for the same title in both tournaments. But since the top two finishers in each weight class advance to the state tournament from the North Coast tourney, Marin could have two competitors from the same weight class at the state finals.

Rain May Help L.A. Open

LOS ANGELES (AP) -- Rain may help the usually dry Los Angeles Open golf tournament—providing the downpour doesn't continue tomorrow, opening day.

Last week, observers said the Rancho Park municipal course fairways seemed too hard and would have been easy marks for the long-hitting pros. Since then, Los Angeles has had a good drenching. So good that several fairways were under water yesterday, but the forecast was for clearing skies.

Favorites in the 142-man Open field are, of course, Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Bill Casper. Nicklaus just picked up $16,000 by winning the Bing Crosby tournament on the Monterey Peninsula, and Palmer and Casper were not far behind.

Palmer, in particular, should be looking forward to the $100,000 Los Angeles Open. It was in the third round of the Open last year at Rancho Park that he shot 29 on nine holes, totalling 62 for 18 holes, both records for the 1966 pro tour.

Palmer has won the Open twice, with 273 last year and 274 in 1963.

Nicklaus will be on hand for the first time in five years. He turned pro at this tournament in 1962 but hasn't been back since.

Casper, the 1966 golfer of the year, is seeking his first Los Angeles Open victory.

All top 10 money winners and 45 of the top 50 from 1966 will attack the 6,821 - yard layout, which has par of 36-35—71.

Other top pros entered include Doug Sanders, Frank Beard, Al Geiberger, Miller Barber, Paul Harney, Bob Charles, Ken Venturi and Gene Littler.

All but 18 spots in the field have been filled by players exempt from qualifying. The rain washed out qualifying yesterday so it was rescheduled with the pro-amateur tourney today.

This will be the third stop on the 1967 tour. The San Diego Open kicked things off, and the Crosby event wound up Sunday.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Most Dividends Taxable Income

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Most dividends received on stocks you own are taxable income. How they are taxed and where you report them depends on the kind of dividends you receive.

Wikel

The first $100 of ordinary dividends is not taxed. If you and your wife both own stocks, each of you is entitled to a $100 exclusion, for a total of $200 on joint return. If either of you receive less than $100 in dividends, you can exclude only what you receive. If your wife receives only $60 in dividends you cannot use her remaining $40 exclusion to apply against dividends you received.

Ordinary dividends are reported on page 2, part II, of form 1040. Ordinarily you will receive a form 1099 information return from the paying corporation showing the dividends paid to you during the year.

This should not be attached to your tax return, but you should keep it in your tax records file. If you don't receive a statement of dividends paid, you are still required to report the income.

Some corporations, especially mutual funds, pay dividends called "capital gains dividends." The information form 1099 you receive will show these separately. Capital gains dividends are taxed as long term capital gain, and should be reported on Schedule D, part I, line 8, form 1040. Capital gains dividends are not subject to the $100 exclusion.

Some corporations, often public utilities, pay "return of capital" distributions. Often these are included as a certain percentage of the ordinary dividends you receive. Usually the paying corporation will inform you by letter of the amount of its dividends which are considered to be a return of capital distribution. Such distributions are not taxed, but they are considered a partial return of your cost for the stock.

In other words, if you ever sell stock on which you have received any return of capital distributions, your cost for income tax purposes must be reduced by the total of any return of capital distributions you have received on the stock. If the total of return of capital distributions ever becomes greater than your cost for the stock, then you are taxed on the amount you receive over the stock cost.

California income tax rules for dividends are different. No $100 exclusion is allowed. Capital gains and most return of capital dividends are taxed in full just like ordinary income.

Stocks Slip As Profit Takers Hit

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today, taking its first clear-cut loss of 1967.

Trading was heavy as prices were battered down to their lowest levels of the day.

Long-delayed profit taking was the reason cited for the decline. The correction was more welcome than not.

Analysts wanted the market to simmer down so that the air would be cleared and stocks would not be over-inflated, they said.

Volume for the day was estimated at 9.3 million shares compared with 10.43 million yesterday.

The market looked as if it was about to post its first clear-cut loss of 1967. Up until today, every session had more gainers than losers although there was one day when all the popular averages showed declines.

The Explorer IV, a space age automobile, has been unveiled in Detroit. The body is about two-thirds the weight of a conventional die-stamped metal one. It is made of fiberglass bonded with a newly-developed acrylic polyester resin which allows far fewer steps in finishing than a conventional fiberglass body. (UPI Telephoto)

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Stocks Suggested For Sons' Future

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We're saving for an educational fund for three sons who will reach college age over the next six to 10 years. We have 20 shares of International Business Machines and are concerned that the present rate of gain will be insufficient for college needs. Please advise us of stocks with more outstanding growth potential." J. A.

A. I commend you sincerely for your concern about your sons' future. IBM is the dominant factor in the computer business, which should continue to grow rapidly. Because of the expense of producing and marketing the new Series 360 family of machines, earnings gains slowed down last year, but for 1967 and beyond, resumption of a 15-20 per cent growth rate seems probable.

I advise you to hold IBM, which has been one of the finest performers in a bear market. I believe you should diversify, however, and suggest — as future purchases—Avon Products and American Hospital Supply. Both of these stocks should continue to show growth gains in the vicinity of 20 per cent.

Q. "Over the past several years, I have dealt with five different brokers. I have never been able to walk into a broker's office and ask to buy the stock of my choice without difficulties. Every time I ask to buy a stock the broker gives me an argument that he has something better. I get such powerful sales talk that I usually do what he says and wind up with a stock on which I lose money. I'm now afraid to walk into a broker's office. Do you think this is just because I'm a woman?" J. B.

A. Not at all. I think it's because you've been very unfortunate in your choice of brokers. Try a new firm and ask for the local manager or managing partner and explain your problem. I feel certain that he will assign to you a broker who will confine himself to his main job —which is executing your orders expertly.

Advisory Committee To State Consumer Counsel Is Liquidated

The 14-member program advisory committee to the state consumer counsel has been liquidated in a move believed to foreshadow elimination of the counsel's office.

Donald Vial of San Rafael told the Independent-Journal yesterday that he and 13 other committee members are submitting their resignations in response to a demand that they do so, received during the weekend from Gov. Ronald Reagan's appointments secretary, Thomas C. Reed.

Two weeks ago, the governor appointed Mrs. Kay Valory of Lafayette acting counsel to succeed Helen Nelson of Mill Valley, who resigned the $18,000 post at the new governor's request.

Reagan, who had indicated doubt during the election campaign as to the consumer counsel's value, said Mrs. Valory would head a study team on the necessity of the office.

Vial yesterday said Mrs. Valory was "appointed to preside over dismantling the office and only supposedly studying it."

He said Mrs. Valory and the administration "had rebuffed all efforts by the advisory committee" to meet with her and discuss the importance of the office and its programs.

The committee, whose members perform their public service without pay, was to meet with Mrs. Valory tomorrow, Vial said, but received their dismissals in the mail from Reed.

In his letter of resignation, mailed yesterday, Vial informed the governor that his committee would "at least have the satisfaction of knowing that our efforts and those of Mrs. Nelson have encouraged other states to assume greater responsibility" for protecting the consumer.

Vial wrote that he hoped that as the new administration "matures it will also grow to appreciate the . . . importance of providing consumers with the protections, information and services they must have to help our market economy function more effectively."

Vial, former director of research and education for the California Labor Federation, is chairman of the Center for Labor Research and Education of the Institute of Industrial Relations at University of California at Berkeley.

Also re-elected were: John Bradley, vice president; Mrs. Daniel Polak, secretary, and R. E. Thawley, treasurer.

Sounding Board Topic—Charter

Proposed changes in the San Rafael City Charter to be placed on the April municipal election ballot, will be discussed by speakers tomorrow in the Radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board" at 9 a.m.

Speaking will be City Councilman Fred E. Jensen; Roy M. Michael, chairman of the revision committee; John D. LaNoue, a member of the committee, and a fourth speaker to be announced. Kitty Oppenheimer conducts the program.

Speakers will answer listeners' questions and a recording of the discussion will be rebroadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Rooney Agrees To Wife's Pay

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Mickey Rooney agreed Monday to contribute to the support of his sixth wife, Margaret, who asked for $845 a month. The amount was not disclosed.

Mrs. Rooney, 45, agreed to reconciliation talks but Rooney, 46, said he thought the marriage was beyond salvage.

Mrs. Rooney has filed a divorce suit on grounds of cruelty. He countered with a petition for divorce or annulment.

The couple married last Sept. 10 in Las Vegas, Nev., and lived together 101 days.

Today is Wednesday, Jan. 25, the 25th day of 1967 with 340 to follow.

The moon is approaching the full stage. The morning stars are Mars and Jupiter. The evening stars are Venus, Saturn and Jupiter.

British author Somerset Maugham was born on this day in 1874.

On this day in history:

In 1787, a revolutionary war Army captain, Daniel Shay, led 2,000 debt-ridden men against the federal arsenal in Springfield, Mass., hoping to overthrow the government. It was broken up.

In 1890, the United Mine Workers Union was formed and affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

In 1915, Alexander Graham Bell opened the first cross-country telephone service.

In 1966, President Johnson named the first Negro women to a federal district judgeship in New York-Mrs. Constance Baker Motley.

A thought for the day — English statesman Benjamin Disraeli said: "Man is not the creature of circumstance. Circumstances are the creatures of men.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

More Than One Good Maneuver Necessary To Win This Hand

In the average bridge hand one good play is decisive.

You make the key play, and the rest of the hand is just a matter of following suit.

In today's hand, taken from a par contest held in 1963, six or seven fine plays are needed to defeat the contract.

Opening lead — ♣ 2

East takes the ace of clubs and returns a low diamond since a return of any other suit would put declarer in the dummy.

This is the easiest of a series of fine defensive plays needed to defeat four spades.

SOUTH'S MOVE

South takes the king of diamonds and leads the jack of spades. East must refuse the trick since otherwise dummy's queen of spades would be an entry to the good clubs.

When South leads the ten of spades next, East must again refuse the trick.

East's second and third good plays cost him his king of trumps. South leads the ace of spades, capturing the king.

Declarer next leads the ace of diamonds, and East must drop the queen.

WEST WINS

South leads his low diamond, and West wins with the jack, thanks to East's careful unblock.

West can get out safely by leading his last diamond, forcing South to ruff.

South leads a low heart, and West must step up with the ten.

If West played a low heart, declarer would play low from dummy.

East would have to win, and then the forced heart or club return from East would allow declarer to reach dummy.

West prevents this by putting up his ten of hearts.

If declarer plays low from dummy, West wins the trick and gets out safely with another heart.

If declarer plays the queen of hearts from dummy, East wins with the king and can easily develop the setting trick in hearts.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes.

♠ K 3 2

What do you say?

Answer: Bid 2 notrump. This forcing bid shows 13 to 15 points in high cards, balanced distribution, and strength in all unbid suits.

The alternative is to jump to three spades, not attractive when you have only three spades and no short suit.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Most Dividends Taxable Income

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Most dividends received on stocks you own are taxable income. How they are taxed and where you report them depends on the kind of dividends you receive.

Wikel

The first $100 of ordinary dividends is not taxed. If you and your wife both own stocks, each of you is entitled to a $100 exclusion, for a total of $200 on joint return. If either of you receive less than $100 in dividends, you can exclude only what you receive. If your wife receives only $60 in dividends you cannot use her remaining $40 exclusion to apply against dividends you received.

Ordinary dividends are reported on page 2, part II, of form 1040. Ordinarily you will receive a form 1099 information return from the paying corporation showing the dividends paid to you during the year.

This should not be attached to your tax return, but you should keep it in your tax records file. If you don't receive a statement of dividends paid, you are still required to report the income.

Some corporations, especially mutual funds, pay dividends called "capital gains dividends." The information form 1099 you receive will show these separately. Capital gains dividends are taxed as long term capital gain, and should be reported on Schedule D, part I, line 8, form 1040. Capital gains dividends are not subject to the $100 exclusion.

Some corporations, often public utilities, pay "return of capital" distributions. Often these are included as a certain percentage of the ordinary dividends you receive. Usually the paying corporation will inform you by letter of the amount of its dividends which are considered to be a return of capital distribution. Such distributions are not taxed, but they are considered a partial return of your cost for the stock.

In other words, if you ever sell stock on which you have received any return of capital distributions, your cost for income tax purposes must be reduced by the total of any return of capital distributions you have received on the stock. If the total of return of capital distributions ever becomes greater than your cost for the stock, then you are taxed on the amount you receive over the stock cost.

California income tax rules for dividends are different. No $100 exclusion is allowed. Capital gains and most return of capital dividends are taxed in full just like ordinary income.

Stocks Slip As Profit Takers Hit

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today, taking its first clear-cut loss of 1967.

Trading was heavy as prices were battered down to their lowest levels of the day.

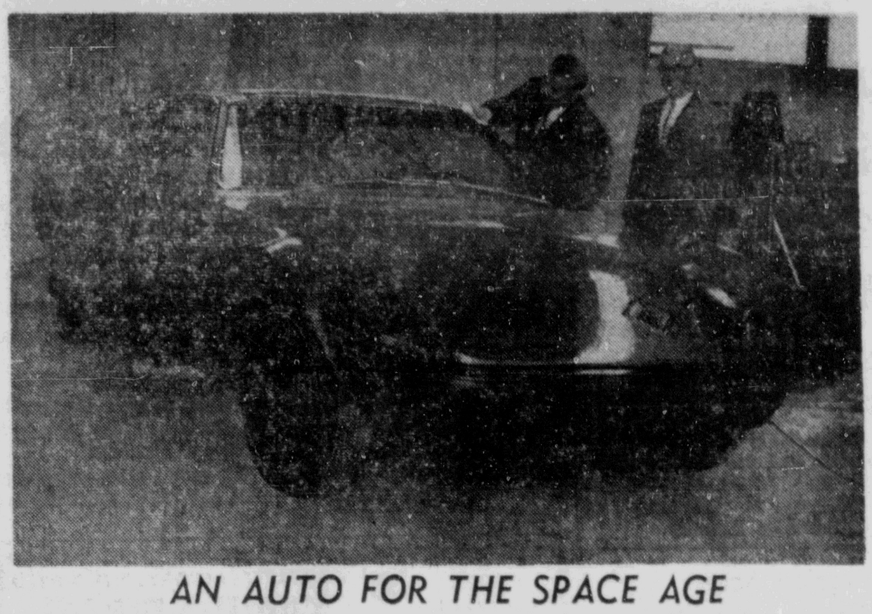
Long-delayed profit taking was the reason cited for the decline. The correction was more welcome than not.

Analysts wanted the market to simmer down so that the air would be cleared and stocks would not be over-inflated, they said.

market was lower late this afternoon in fairly heavy trading.

Volume for the day was estimated at 9.3 million shares compared with 10.43 million yesterday.

The market looked as if it was about to post its first clear-cut loss of 1967. Up until today, every session had more gainers than losers although there was one day when all the popular averages showed declines.



AN AUTO FOR THE SPACE AGE

The Explorer IV, a space age automobile, has been unveiled in Detroit. The body is about two-thirds the weight of a conventional die-stamped metal one. It is made of fiberglass bonded with a newly-developed acrylic polyester resin which allows far fewer steps in finishing than a conventional fiberglass body. (UPI Telephoto)

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Stocks Suggested For Sons' Future

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We're saving for an educational fund for three sons who will reach college age over the next six to 10 years. We have 20 shares of International Business Machines and are concerned that the present rate of gain will be insufficient for college needs. Please advise us of stocks with more outstanding growth potential." J. A.

A. I commend you sincerely for your concern about your sons' future. IBM is the dominant factor in the computer business, which should continue to grow rapidly. Because of the expense of producing and marketing the new Series 360 family of machines, earnings gains slowed down last year, but for 1967 and beyond, resumption of a 15-20 per cent growth rate seems probable.

I advise you to hold IBM, which has been one of the finest performers in a bear market. I believe you should diversify, however, and suggest — as future purchases—Avon Products and American Hospital Supply. Both of these stocks should continue to show growth gains in the vicinity of 20 per cent.

Q. "Over the past several years, I have dealt with five different brokers. I have never been able to walk into a broker's office and ask to buy the stock of my choice without difficulties. Every time I ask to buy a stock the broker gives me an argument that he has something better. I get such powerful sales talk that I usually do what he says and wind up with a stock on which I lose money. I'm now afraid to walk into a broker's office. Do you think this is just because I'm a woman?" J. B.

A. Not at all. I think it's because you've been very unfortunate in your choice of brokers. Try a new firm and ask for the local manager or managing partner and explain your problem. I feel certain that he will assign to you a broker who will confine himself to his main job —which is executing your orders expertly.

Advisory Committee To State Consumer Counsel Is Liquidated

The 14-member program advisory committee to the state consumer counsel has been liquidated in a move believed to foreshadow elimination of the counsel's office.

Donald Vial of San Rafael told the Independent-Journal yesterday that he and 13 other committee members are submitting their resignations in response to a demand that they do so, received during the weekend from Gov. Ronald Reagan's appointments secretary, Thomas C. Reed.

Two weeks ago, the governor appointed Mrs. Kay Valory of Lafayette acting counsel to succeed Helen Nelson of Mill Valley, who resigned the $18,000 post at the new governor's request.

Reagan, who had indicated doubt during the election campaign as to the consumer counsel's value, said Mrs. Valory would head a study team on the necessity of the office.

Vial yesterday said Mrs. Valory was "appointed to preside over dismantling the office and only supposedly studying it."

He said Mrs. Valory and the administration "had rebuffed all efforts by the advisory committee" to meet with her and discuss the importance of the office and its programs.

The committee, whose members perform their public service without pay, was to meet with Mrs. Valory tomorrow, Vial said, but received their dismissals in the mail from Reed.

In his letter of resignation, mailed yesterday, Vial informed the governor that his committee would "at least have the satisfaction of knowing that our efforts and those of Mrs. Nelson have encouraged other states to assume greater responsibility" for protecting the consumer.

Vial wrote that he hoped that as the new administration "matures it will also grow to appreciate the . . . importance of providing consumers with the protections, information and services they must have to help our market economy function more effectively."

Vial, former director of research and education for the California Labor Federation, is chairman of the Center for Labor Research and Education of the Institute of Industrial Relations at University of California at Berkeley.

Speakers will answer listeners' questions and a recording of the discussion will be rebroadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Rooney Agrees To Wife's Pay

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Mickey Rooney agreed Monday to contribute to the support of his sixth wife, Margaret, who asked for $845 a month. The amount was not disclosed.

Mrs. Rooney, 45, agreed to reconciliation talks but Rooney, 46, said he thought the marriage was beyond salvage.

Mrs. Rooney has filed a divorce suit on grounds of cruelty. He countered with a petition for divorce or annulment.

The couple married last Sept. 10 in Las Vegas, Nev., and lived together 101 days.
